 - b) the renewed card has been collected, but the previous Card is still with the Cardholder
 - c) the expired Card is still with the Cardholder.
- (100) The card should be invalidated by destroying it physically (cutting or punching through the magnetic stripe, the chip and the card data such as card number, expiry date and CVC2/CVV2) to ensure that no data can be retrieved from it. An exception is the webCARD, which is not produced in physical form and is invalidated by blocking the card.
- (101) The Bank undertakes no liability for damages arising out of the Cardholder's failure to invalidate the Card.

III.3 Blocking or suspending a card

- (102) The Card may be blocked based on the instruction of the Contracting Party, the Cardholder, the co-holder of the Account or the Bank.
- (103) The Bank is entitled to block the Card

- (104) In the interest of the Cardholder's security, the Bank is entitled to restrict, unilaterally, the use of the card in part or in whole, if fraud is suspected to have been committed or may be committed with the card. The Bank informs the Cardholder of the temporary suspension of card usage due to the aforementioned reasons within the shortest possible time after the suspension, at the phone number specified by the customer. If the Bank is unable to reach the customer, the Bank will inform them in a letter sent on the next working day. In order to clarify the circumstances of the restriction, reset the card for use or definitively block the Card, the Cardholder should seek assistance from the Bankcard HelpDesk.

- (105) The Bank will also suspend the Card if it is forced to prohibit payments on the Account Holder's account for the duration of administrative measures brought in accordance with the effective laws (e.g. administrative payments, court order to make payment, attachment, etc.) prior to other payment orders and of queuing based on the law or on the contract concluded with the Account Holder.
- (106) If the Card or the card data are lost or stolen, or unauthorised transactions (initiated without the customer's consent or authorisation) are performed, the Contracting Party or the Additional Cardholder shall immediately request the blocking of the Card. The Bank may report the theft or fraud to the police if the Contracting Party or the Cardholder fail to do so.
- (107) The Cardholder shall forthwith notify the Bank and block the Card, if they notice that
- a) the Card, or
 - b) the PIN code, TeleCode, CVV2 or CVC2 code, expiry date, necessary for the use of the card, or
 - c) other similar identification data of the Card
- have been obtained by an unauthorised third party.
- (108) Blocking takes effect after the Bank has received the relevant notification.

- (111) The Bank shall immediately notify the Contracting Party of the blocking effected by it.
- (112) The blocking of a retail electronic (online) Card by the Contracting Party or the Cardholder may be withdrawn personally by the person who gave the instruction for blocking the card if no Replacement Card has been requested.
- (113) The withdrawal of the blocking of the Additional Card may only be initiated by the Account Holder or, in the case of an account held for a person under guardianship, by the Guardian acting on behalf of the Account Holder.

- (114) The blocking cannot be withdrawn by Cardholders below the age of 18. In such a case, the cancellation of the blocking must be initiated by an Account Holder of legal age or by the legal representative.
- (115) The Contracting Party or the Cardholder cannot withdraw their instruction to block an embossed card, a webCARD, a WORLD JUDO TOUR Prepaid card or a Gift (Prepaid) card issued on or after 1 October 2018. If such a Card is recovered by the Contracting Party or the Cardholder after blocking, the Card shall be either returned to the Bank or invalidated immediately. The Bank shall not be liable for any damages due to failure to comply with the above provisions.
- (116) Upon the withdrawal of the blocking
- a) the legal consequences of blocking will not ensue,
 - b) the blocking will be released immediately after the notification.

 - b) it has not been invalidated, and

- (118) A withdrawn or retained Card may only be returned to the Cardholder, a natural person authorised by the Cardholder in writing or the general and permanent authorised person of the Account Holder. Cards may be personally collected by the authorised persons upon presentation of the appropriate identification documents and signing a document certifying receipt of the returnable Card
- a) at the branch operating the ATM, or
 - b) at the Home Branch.
- (119) Cards recovered after blocking must be invalidated in accordance with paragraphs (98)-(99).

III.5 Replacement card

- (120) The Bank shall provide the Cardholder with a Replacement Card, if

In the case of blocked cards, the replacement card may also be applied for via the electronic channels:

- (122) Applying for a Replacement Card for underage cardholders:
- a) the approval and signature of the legal representative for the replacement card application by cardholders aged 14-18 is not necessary.

- (123) The Replacement Card will be issued subject to charging the Replacement Card fee specified in the prevailing Announcement applicable to the given card, unless the Replacement Card is applied for because the Card is unfit for its intended purpose.
- (124) The Replacement Card replaces the original Card. The Replacement Card is issued with a new PIN code. When applying for a replacement retail debit card at the branch, the Cardholder must select a PIN code at the POS terminal. The PIN will not be stored. The Bank recommends, for security reasons, that the PIN code for the replacement card should not correspond to the PIN code of the blocked card. If no PIN code is specified, a PIN code will be generated.
- (125) The TeleCode and expiry date of the predecessor — replaced — Card will be automatically valid for the Replacement Card. If the Cardholder specified a TeleCode when ordering a Replacement Card, the Replacement Card will work with the TeleCode specified at the time of ordering, and not the TeleCode of the predecessor – replaced – Card.
- (126) If the old Card is still active when the Cardholder hands it over to the Bank upon collecting the Replacement Card, the Bank will invalidate the old Card.
- (127) If the Replacement Card is not collected after notification by email or SMS, the Bank

- (131) New PIN codes may only be applied for by

- (137) After the receipt of the new PIN code, the Cardholder must immediately activate it with the card belonging to the new PIN code at an OTP forint ATM, by selecting the “PIN code activation” menu item. The PIN code cannot be used without activation.
- (138) The old PIN code cannot be used from the first working day after registering the request for the new PIN code.

III.7 Use of the Card

- (139) The Cardholder may use the Card to pay for services and goods and to withdraw cash at authorised points of acceptance in Hungary and abroad, depending on the card type and in accordance with the rules specified in the Contract.
- (140) The Cardholder may use the Card to pay only for goods and services actually provided. The Cardholder is identified by checking
- a) the Card and the signature corresponding to the name shown on the Card (if there is a signature panel), or
 - b) the PIN code, or
 - c) the signature and the PIN code together, or
 - d) the data on the chip.
- In addition, for the purpose of identifying the Cardholder, the merchant may also prescribe the presentation of identification documents. Card payments shall be performed in compliance with the rules of the acquiring bank. In accordance with the contract concluded with its bank, the merchant is obliged to accept all cards belonging to the card organisations indicated by it.
- (141) The Cardholder is only entitled to use the Card for its intended purposes; the Bank assumes no responsibility for losses incurred by the Cardholder or any third person on account of the improper use of the Card.
- (142) The Cardholder shall check that the data in the Transaction slip correspond to the facts. The Cardholder shall sign the transaction slip in the same manner as indicated on the Card (with the exception of cards that do not have a signature panel, ATM transactions and as set out in the following paragraph), and use the PIN code for Transactions that require the use of a PIN code. By signing the slip or using the PIN code, the Cardholder acknowledges that the Transaction has been performed in line with the Cardholder’s intention and with the content specified on the slip.
- (143) At certain points of acceptance, if the terminal asks for a PIN code, a signature is no longer required; in this case the slip will bear the text “Valid without a signature”.
- (144) One copy of the Transaction Slips is for the Cardholder to keep. The Cardholder shall keep the Slips and all the documents related to Card use and, when required, make them available to the Bank in compliance with the relevant statutory and other regulations.
- (145) The Cardholder may only use the Card at ATMs and points of acceptance where the logo indicated on the Card is displayed and acceptance is not otherwise limited in the contract concluded with the Bank.
- (146) The Cardholder shall take any and all reasonable measures to prevent the loss or theft of the Card. The Cardholder shall store the Card and its PIN code separately and safeguard both with utmost care. By signing the Contract, the Cardholder undertakes not to disclose the codes — PIN, TeleCode — related to the Card or write them on the Card or on any object kept together with the Card; if they do so, it will be at their own risk.

- (147) The Cardholder is obliged to use the Card as specified in the Contract and, in order to ensure the safety of personal security elements — PIN code, TeleCode or any other code, e.g. the 3D Secure Code — that are required for the use of the Card, exhibit conduct as would be reasonably expected of them under the given circumstances; in particular, they shall forthwith notify the Bank, if they notice that
- a) the Card is no longer in their possession (safekeeping) or has been stolen,
 - b) the Card or the card data, and the codes necessary for its use (PIN code, TeleCode, 3D Secure Code) and other data (expiry date, CVC2/CVV2) were obtained by an unauthorised third party,
 - c) the illegal or unauthorised use of their Card.
- (148) The Bank shall consider the transactions performed in possession of the PIN code, the 3D Secure Code or the TeleCode as transactions performed by the Cardholder in accordance with the contract.
- (149) The branch, the post office teller or the merchant are entitled to retain the Card, and the ATM will withdraw the card (and simultaneously reject the transaction) in the following cases:
- a) based on the Bank's instruction, or
 - b) if any doubts arise in respect of personal identity, or
 - c) the repeated incorrect entry of the PIN code for a predefined number of times in the case of transactions where the Bank checks the correctness of the PIN code.
- The Bank does not publish the permitted number of attempts.
- (150) In the case of purchase transactions initiated by cards equipped with chip, where the correctness of the PIN code is checked by the chip on the card, after a specific number of failed attempts with the PIN code, the Bank is entitled to suspend the bank card. The suspension may be released with any PIN-based (cash withdrawal, balance check, PIN code replacement) transaction at ATMs with chip technology.
- (151) The Card can be used in accordance with its intended purpose based on its financial and/or identification function.
- (152) Pursuant to its financial function, the Card can be used as a cashless payment instrument for the execution of bank card Transactions in compliance with the provisions of these Business Regulations.
- (153) Pursuant to its identification function, the Card can be used, in accordance with these Business Regulations, for identifying the Cardholder by the Bank. Such identification shall be equivalent to the submission of an official deed suitable for identification or a signature provided for the Bank.
- (154) The Card can also be used for purchasing other services of the Bank (OTPdirekt services etc.).
- (155) The detailed rules pertaining to the use of the Card are included in Section III.10 "Permitted card transactions".

(161) In the case of retail forint debit cards, the ATM cash withdrawal limit and the purchase limit may be permanent or time-limited. The permanent limit may be specified by the Contracting Party upon contract conclusion.

(162) The virtual purchase limit must always be a permanent value.

(163) The permanent limit is the default value that the Contracting Party sets the daily limit to. The set limit is valid until such time as the customer changes it to a time-limited value or another permanent value.

(164) The time-limited limit is the value to which the Cardholder may modify the limit for a given time interval, based on local time in Hungary. Its amount must not be lower than the minimum or higher than the maximum value applicable to the given card, as specified in the prevailing Announcement.
