OTP bank d.d. declared the best custodian bank in Croatia for the ninth time according to Global Finance

Dear clients,

We are pleased to inform you that OTP banka d.d. for the ninth time confirmed its position as the leading custodian banks in the Republic of Croatia by winning The World's Best Sub-custodian 2023 award for the Croatian market, awarded by the Global Finance magazine.

In this year's selection of World's Best Sub-custodians organized by Global Finance magazine, OTP banka d.d. won the award of the best custodian bank for the Croatian market in 2023, and thus found itself in the company of institutions from more than 80 countries and 7 regions of the world that reliably provide custody services for clients' assets. Winners were selected based on a set of objective and subjective criteria that include customer relationships, quality of service, price competitiveness, smooth operation in exceptional situations, technological development, post-settlement process, backup systems and knowledge of local regulations and practices.

We are especially proud to win this award year after year because it shows the continuity of our quality business in custody, as well as the high level of this service that you, as our clients and professionals recognize for many years.
