a. If three or more such quotations are obtained prior to 17.00 (London time) on such day (the “Quotation Deadline Time”), the Reference Entity Spread will be the arithmetic mean of such quotations without regard to the quotations having the highest or lowest values (and, if more than one such quotation have the same highest or lowest quotation, then one of such highest or lowest quotations (as relevant) may be disregarded); or

b. If two such quotations are obtained prior to the Quotation Deadline Time, the Reference Entity Spread will be the arithmetic mean of such quotations; or

c. If one such quotation is obtained prior to the Quotation Deadline Time, the Reference Entity Spread will be such quotation; or

(B) If it is not possible to obtain any quotations prior to the Quotation Deadline Time, the Reference Entity Spread will be a rate determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion acting in good faith, having regard to the conditions prevailing in the market.

Effective Credit Index: means the Initial Credit Index or, if subsequent versions are published after the Initial Index, the latest version of the Initial Credit Index, published by the Index Publisher and effective as of the relevant date. For the avoidance of doubt, it is expected that the Index Publisher publishes a new version each time a Credit Event Determination Date has occurred, and the Final Value has been determined pursuant to relevant Transaction Auction Settlement Terms.

Effective Credit Index Spread: means the offer rate, expressed as a quoted spread, for a credit default swap on the Effective Credit Index in the Credit Index Currency and with a maturity equal to the Credit Index Maturity, determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the Dealer Poll Method.

When using the Bloomberg function “CDSW”, the Calculation Agent shall determine the Effective Credit Index Upfront using the following Bloomberg parameters with the resulting “Points Upfront” expressed as a percentage:

- Bloomberg requested CDS Spread: Effective Credit Index Spread

- Bloomberg requested Index Coupon: Credit Index Coupon

- Bloomberg requested Currency: Credit Index Currency

- Bloomberg requested Maturity Date: Credit Index Maturity

- Bloomberg requested Recovery Rate: Credit Index Recovery Rate

[if Single Name Notes

Reference Entity Spread means, in respect of the Reference Entity and any day, the offer rate, expressed as a quoted spread, for a single-name credit default swap on the Reference Entity governed by the 2014 ISDA Credit Derivatives Definitions, in the relevant currency, with the Reference CDS Maturity and for a size equal to the product of (i) the Aggregate Nominal Amount of the Notes, and (ii) the Leverage (such credit default swap, the "Reference CDS"), determined by the Calculation Agent using the Dealer Poll Method. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Calculation Agent observes or receives a quotation expressed with an upfront amount (the "Upfront Quotation"), it will convert such Upfront Quotation into a quoted spread by using the function CDSW in Bloomberg or any other calculation as the Calculation Agent may deem appropriate in its sole and absolute discretion, but acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.]

3.10.8 Reverse Convertible Bond Linked Products

If the applicable Final Terms specify that "Reference of the Product" is 3.10.8, the following applies and the terms defined herein prevail:

3.10.8.1 Product Description:

- This Product does not pay any Structured Interest Amount.
- There is no Automatic Early Redemption under this Product.
- Unless previously redeemed, this Product pays on Maturity Date a Final Redemption Amount the calculation of which depends upon the scenario occurring among the 2 possible :
o If the value of the Bond Final Price considered is higher than [or equal to] a Strike, the Final Redemption Amount equals a predetermined value.
o If the value of the Bond Final Price considered is lower than or [equal to] a Strike, the Final Redemption Amount will be by way of physical delivery. As defined in Condition 1.3.2.

3.10.8.2 Structured Interest Amount: Not Applicable

3.10.8.3 Automatic Early Redemption Amount: Not Applicable

3.10.8.4 Final Redemption Amount:

Scenario 1:
If on Valuation Date(T), Bond Final Price is [higher] [lower] than [or equal to] Bond Clean Strike Price, then:

Final Redemption Amount = Specified Denomination × Product Formula(T)

Product Formula = ConstantRedemptionLevel_FRA_1

Scenario 2:
If on Valuation Date(T), Bond Final Price is [lower] [higher] than [or equal to] Bond Clean Strike Price, then:

[If settlement by way of cash:

Final Redemption Amount = Specified Denomination × Product Formula(T)

Product Formula = Bond Dirty Final Price / Bond Dirty Strike Price]

Final Redemption Amount = Physical Delivery Amount(T)]

Where :

Bond Final Price: means, in respect of a Bond and the Valuation Date, a quotation (expressed as a percentage of the Bond Notional Amount), obtained from a Price Source in the manner provided below, provided however that, if the Price Source is not available or no price appears or the Calculation Agent determines that any price from such Price Source is not representative of the relevant underlying market, then the Bond Final Price shall be obtained from Quotation Dealers, in the manner provided below.
(A) If the Bond Final Price is obtained from a Price Source:
Bond Final Price shall mean the mid-price (such price shall be considered as a Quotation for the purposes of Bond Final Price Accrued Interest) of the Underlying, as observed from the Price Source (or any page that may be substituted for it) at approximately the Valuation Time on the Valuation Date, as determined and calculated by the Calculation Agent.
Where,
"Price Source" means [Insert the Price Source]
"Valuation Time" means [Insert the Valuation Time]

B) If the Bond Final Price is obtained from Quotation Dealers:
The Calculation Agent will determine, based on the then current market practice, whether such quotations will include or exclude accrued but unpaid interest and all quotations will be obtained in accordance with this determination. The Calculation Agent will determine the Bond Final Price from the Full Quotations, the Weighted Average Quotation, the Partial Weighted Average Quotation or the Residual Quotation Amount (each as defined below). For the avoidance of doubt, the Bond Final Price, as determined by the Calculation Agent, is based on obtained Quotations, without any obligation by the Calculation Agent to actually realise any sale transaction in relation to such Quotations.

The Calculation Agent will require each Quotation Dealer to provide quotations to the extent reasonably practicable on the relevant day at approximately 11.00 a.m. London time or 11.00 a.m. New York time or 11.00 a.m. in any other leading market where the liquidity of such Bond may be better, as determined by the Calculation Agent, as the case may be. The Calculation Agent may on the First Quotation Day and if applicable, on the Second Quotation Day, acting in a commercially reasonable manner, determine whether to request (i) at least one Full Quotation and/or (ii) several firm bid quotations from Quotation Dealers in order to establish a Weighted Average Quotation.

To such end:
(a) if the Calculation Agent obtains at least one Full Quotation and/or one Weighted Average Quotation on the First Quotation Day, the Bond Final Price will be the highest Quotation of the Full Quotation(s) or Weighted Average Quotation(s) obtained (if any) by the Calculation Agent;
(b) if the Calculation Agent is unable to obtain at least one Full Quotation or to determine a Weighted Average Quotation on the First Quotation Day, the Calculation Agent will attempt to obtain at least one Full Quotation and/or one Weighted Average Quotation on the Second Quotation Day, and the Bond Final Price will be the highest Quotation of the Full Quotation(s) or Weighted Average Quotation(s) obtained (if any) by the Calculation Agent; or
(c) if the Calculation Agent obtains quotations for an aggregate amount lower than the Quotation Amount on the Second Quotation Day, then on the Third Quotation Day it will attempt to obtain several firm bid quotations from Quotation Dealers in order to establish a Partial Weighted Average Quotation in respect of an amount equal to the Residual Quotation Amount. If the Calculation Agent is unable to establish on the Third Quotation Day a Partial Weighted Average Quotation in respect of an amount equal to the Residual Quotation Amount, it will, until obtaining a Partial Weighted Average Quotation in respect of an amount equal to the Residual Quotation Amount, on each Quotation Day during the Auction Period, attempt to obtain several firm bid quotations from Quotation Dealers in order to establish a Partial Weighted Average Quotation in respect of an amount equal to the Residual Quotation Amount. For the avoidance of doubt, once a Partial Weighted Average Quotation is obtained on either the Third Quotation Day or on any Quotation Day in the Auction Period there will be no obligation on the Calculation Agent to seek a further Partial Weighted Average Quotation. The Bond Final Price will then be the weighted average of (i) the firm bid quotations obtained on the Second Quotation Day (if any) and (ii) the Partial Weighted Average Quotation (if any) for the portion equal to the Residual Quotation Amount and (iii) the value determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in a commercially reasonable manner and for the avoidance of doubt this value can be zero for any remaining amount for which no quotation was obtained.

First Quotation Day: means the first day the Calculation Agent attempts to obtain Full Quotations (such day falling no later than 20 Business Days after the Valuation Date).

Bond Clean Strike Price: means BondCleanStrikePrice

Bond Dirty Final Price: means Bond Final Price + Forward Accrued Coupon

Physical Delivery Amount(T): means the Number of Deliverable Bonds plus the Residual Cash Amount.

Number of Deliverable Bonds or "NDB": means the Number of Bonds to be delivered by the Issuer (rounded down to the nearest lower integer or trading unit as permitted by the relevant clearing or settlement venue in accordance with any applicable law, rule and/or regulation).

Number of Bonds or "NB": means the number of Bonds (rounded up to 4 decimal places) calculated in accordance with the following formula: Specified Denomination / (Bond Denomination x Bond Dirty Strike Price)

Bond Denomination: means BondDenomination

Residual Cash Amount: means, in respect of each Note, the cash amount, subject to a minimum of zero, to be paid by the Issuer in accordance with the following provisions: (NB – NDB) x (Bond Denomination x Bond Dirty Final Price)

Breakage Cost Amount: Not Applicable

Relevant proportion: Not Applicable

The Reference Formulae of the Family of Reference Formulae in sections 4.1 to 4.29 below are used to determine or calculate either (i) a price of one or several Underlying(s) which is called a Reference Price, (ii) a level of the price of one or several Underlying(s) which is called a Reference Level, (iii) a performance of the price of one or several Underlying(s) which is called a Reference Performance and/or (iv) a fixing of one or several Reference Rate(s) and/or (v) a fixing of one or several foreign exchange rate(s).

When applicable, the following Reference Formula(e) shall be specified when relevant in the applicable Final Terms. These Reference Formula(e) may be a Specific Definition defined under Condition 3 or any value yielded by one or several mathematical operations which may imply one or several Specific Definition, and applied to the Underlying(s) of the Product.

1) Price, Level or Performance

In sections 4.1 to 4.29 below, (a) when the denomination of a Reference Formula in a Family of Reference Formulae contains the word "Price", such Reference Formula is used to determine a Reference Price, (b) when the denomination of a Reference Formula in a Family of Reference Formulae contains the word "Level", such Reference Formula is used to calculate a Reference Level, (c) when the denomination of a Reference Formula in a Family of Reference Formulae contains the word "Performance", such Reference Formula is used to calculate a Reference Performance and (d) when the denomination of the Reference Formula in a Family of Reference Formulae contains the word "Fixing", such Reference Formula is used to determine or calculate a Reference Fixing.

Notwithstanding the foregoing in respect of a Product (i) a Reference Formula used to calculate a Reference Level (a "Base Reference Formula"), can also be used to determine a Reference Price or to calculate a Reference Performance and in that case its denomination in the applicable Final Terms of the relevant Product shall contain the word Price or Performance (an "Alternative Reference Formula"), (ii) a Reference Formula used to calculate a Reference Performance (a "Base Reference Formula"), can also be used to determine a Reference Price or to calculate a Reference Level and in that case its denomination in the applicable Final Terms of the relevant Product shall contain the word Price or Level (an "Alternative Reference Formula") provided that in each case the Alternative Reference Formula shall be deemed to be part of the same Family of Reference Formulae as the Base Reference Formula.

Example:

Section 4.11 contains the following Reference Formula: WeightedMaxTimeLevel(i) means the Sum, for k from 1 to N, of the Product W(i,k) and MaxTimeLevel(i,k) and is used to calculate a level of the Price of the Underlying. The same Reference Formula can also be used to determine a performance of the price of the Underlying and is then expressed in the applicable Final Terms as follows:

WeightedMaxTimePerformance(i) means the Sum, for k from 1 to N, of the Product W(i,k) and MaxTimePerformance(i,k)

2) Cap, Floor, Leverage, Shift

When the denomination of a Reference Formula in a Family of Reference Formulae described in sections 4.1 to 4.29 below use a Cap and contains the word "Capped", this means that by applying such Reference Formula, the price(s), level(s) or performance(s) of one or more Underlying(s) or fixing(s) of the Reference Rate retained to calculate a Product Amount will be the lower between (i) the Cap and (ii) the actual relevant price(s), level(s) or performance(s) of such Underlying(s) or of the fixing(s) of the Reference Rate.

When the denomination of a Reference Formula in a Family of Reference Formulae in sections 4.1 to 4.29 below uses a Floor and contains the word "Floored", this means that by applying such Reference Formula, the price(s), level(s) or performance(s) of one more Underlying(s) or fixing(s) of the Reference Rate retained to calculate a Product Amount will be the higher between (i) the Floor and (ii) the actual relevant price(s), level(s) or performance(s) of such Underlying(s) or of the fixing(s) of the Reference Rate(s).

When the denomination of a Reference Formula in a Family of Reference Formulae in sections 4.1 to 4.29 below uses a Leverage and contains the word "Leverage", this means that by applying such Reference Formula, the price(s), level(s) or performance(s) of one more Underlying(s) or fixing(s) of the Reference Rate retained to calculate a Product Amount will be the Product of the Leverage and the actual relevant price(s), level(s) or performance(s) of such Underlying(s) or of the fixing(s) of the Reference Rate(s).

When the denomination of a Reference Formula in a Family of Reference Formulae described in sections 4.1 to 4.29 below use a Shift and contains the word "Shifted", this means that by applying such Reference Formula, the price(s), level(s) or performance(s) of one or more Underlying(s) or fixing(s) of the Reference Rate retained to calculate a Product Amount will be the sum of (i) the Shift and (ii) the actual relevant price(s), level(s) or performance(s) of such Underlying(s) or of the fixing(s) of the Reference Rate.

Notwithstanding the foregoing:

a) In respect of a Product (i) a Reference Formula the denomination of which uses a Cap and contains the word "Capped" (a "Base Reference Formula"), can also be used with a Floor and in that case in the applicable Final Terms of the relevant Product, it shall embed a Floor and its denomination will contain the word "Floored" (an "Alternative Reference Formula") and (ii) a Reference Formula the denomination of which uses a Floor and contains the word "Floored" (a "Base Reference Formula"), can also be used with a Cap and in that case in the applicable Final Terms of the relevant Product, it shall embed a Cap and its denomination will contain the word "Capped" (an "Alternative Reference Formula"). FXSpread Value(i): (i from 0 to LastValuationDate) = {[S(i,k2) – S(i,k1)] x FXRate(i,k1) + [FXRate(i,k2) - FXRate(i,k1)] x S(0,k2)} / [S(0,k1) x FXRate(0,k1)]

Arbitrage Opportunity(i): (i from 0 to LastValuationDate) means in respect of the Interest Period(n) (n from 1 to NumberOfInterestPeriods) to which a Valuation Date(i) belongs: [S((n-1), k_FloatingRate)+ Spread] x [(Act(i9,i10) / Act(i11,i12))] [+ [SwapRate(n) + Spread] x DF(t) x [(Act(i13,i14) / Act(i15,i16))]]

exp(x) is the inverse function of ln(x)

negative(x) means that x is a negative value

SwapRate(n) (n from 1 to NumberOfInterestPeriods) in respect of an Interest Period(n) is determined as follows:

Scenario 1: If the number resulting from the calculation (Act(i13,i14) / Act(i15,i16) is equal to a Tenor(k) (k from 1 to NumberOfSwapRateTenorsOffered), then SwapRate(n) is the Reference Rate Fixing of the Risk-Free Reference Rate(k) which corresponds to that Tenor(k)

Scenario 2: If number resulting from the calculation (Act(i13,i14) / Act(i15,i16) falls between a Tenor(k) (k from 1 to NumberOfSwapRateTenorsOffered) and the immediately succeeding Tenor(k+1), then SwapRate(n) is the result from applying a linear interpolation to the Reference Rate Fixings of the corresponding Risk-Free Reference Rate(k) and Risk-Free Reference Rate(k+1)

Tenor(k) (k from 1 to NumberOfSwapRateTenorsOffered) is set out in the following table:

k	Tenor(k)	Risk-Free Reference Rate(k)
1	[a day] [1/[360][365]][other tenor]	The Reference Rate Fixing of the [insert SwapRate(t) corresponding to this tenor]

5. GENERAL DEFINITIONS USED IN THESE ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING TO FORMULAE

5.1 Generic indices, enumeration, simplification and scenario conventions

5.1.1 Generic indices convention used in Product Formulae definitions

"i" or "t" or "t1" or "t2" means the reference to any date relating to a Valuation Date, Relevant Valuation Date or a date within a relevant Schedule. For ease of reading, those letters can be replaced by n, t, x, y or z, being clarified that this list is not exhaustive.

"k" or "s" means the reference to any Underlying specified in the relevant Basket.

"N" means the number of Underlyings comprised in the relevant Basket.

"SubN" means the number of Underlyings comprised in the relevant sub-basket defined as a part of the relevant Basket. SubN is strictly lower than N.

"RVD(i)" (“Relevant Valuation Date” and with the abbreviate “RVD”) means, in respect of any date(i), the reference to a date (which may be different from date(i))

For illustration purposes, Valuation Date(i) may be, in respect of an Interest Payment Date(i), the Valuation Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date.

"t0" (or "0") means the first Valuation Date or the first date of a relevant Schedule.

"T" means the last Valuation Date or the last date of a relevant Schedule.

For the avoidance of doubt, i-1, t-1, t1-1, t2-1, or T-1 (resp. t+1,t1+1,t2+1, or T+1) means the Valuation Date immediately preceding (resp. following) i, t, t1, t2 or T.

5.1.2 Enumeration convention

Enumeration will be generally defined as follows:

The dates within the Reference Formula are defined using the following enumeration "from 0 to t" and / or "from 1 to t" and / or "from t1 to t2". The ReferenceFormula listed below can be defined with any of such three enumerations, as the case may be to determine the Product Formula.

Illustration

"MaxTimeBasketLevel(t) means the Maximum, for i from 1 to t, of BasketLevel(i)" could be modified in:

"MaxTimeBasketLevel(t1, t2) means the Maximum, for i from t1 to t2, of BasketLevel(i)."

"(i from t1 to t2)" means any date(i) from and including t1 to and including t2.

"(k from 1 to N)" means any Underlying(k) within a Basket from and including Underlying(1) to and including Underlying(N).

For the avoidance of doubt, lower and upper bounds of enumerations used in Product Formulae definitions can be modified notably (but not only) to take into account specificities of Schedules relating to Products. For instance (i from 0 to T) used in a generic Product Formula can become (i from 1 to T-1) for the purpose of defining a Product Formula in respect of a particular Product.

5.1.3 Simplification convention

5.1.3.1 For ease of reading, certain conditions relating to Product Formula(e) as defined herein may be simplified as follows:

Case 1: only one barrier condition is required

For example in respect of the following conditions:

"If on Valuation Date(T), ReferenceFormula_Autocall(T) is lower than [or equal to] AutocallBarrier(T) and ReferenceFormula_Barrier(T) is higher than [or equal to] FinalBarrier, then:",

If the second condition "ReferenceFormula_Barrier(T) is higher than [or equal to] FinalBarrier" is not required, these conditions may be simplified as follows: "If on Valuation Date(T), ReferenceFormula_Autocall(T) is lower than [or equal to] AutocallBarrier(T), then".

Case 2: one of the barrier condition is redundant

For example, in respect of the following conditions:

"If on Valuation Date(T), ReferenceFormula_Autocall(T) is lower than [or equal to] AutocallBarrier(T) and ReferenceFormula_Barrier(T) is lower than [or equal to] FinalBarrier, then:",

If "ReferenceFormula_Autocall(T) is equal to ReferenceFormula_Barrier(T) and FinalBarrier is lower than or equal to AutocallBarrier(T)",is not required, these conditions may be simplified as follows:

"If on Valuation Date(T), ReferenceFormula_Autocall(T) is lower than [or equal to] FinalBarrier, then".

Case 3: addition of Variable Data and values determined based on Reference Formulae

"Product Formula(T) = ConstantRedemptionLevel_FRA + Participation x (ReferenceFormula_Final(T) – Strike)"

If ConstantRedemptionLevel_FRA is equal to 90%, Participation is equal to 100% and Strike is equal to 10%, Product Formula may be simplified as follows:

"Product Formula(T) = 80% + ReferenceFormula_Final(T)"

where:

Case 4 : simplifying lengthy Reference Formula(e) for any Product Amount, conditions (categorized in several scenarios) or Event

For example, in respect of the following conditions:

“3.3.32.2 Structured Interest Amount: Applicable
Structured Interest Amount (i) = Specified Denomination x Product Formula(i) Product Formula(i) = Coupon(i) x ReferenceFormula_Coupon(RVD(i)) [x DayCountFraction]”

If Product Formula(i) is equal to DualRangeAccrual({Schedule(i)}, LowerBound_1(i), LowerBound_2(i), UpperBound_1(i), UpperBound2(i), ReferenceFormula_LowerBound_1, ReferenceFormula_LowerBound_2, ReferenceFormula_UpperBound_1, ReferenceFormula_UpperBound_2)” the Structured Interest Amount will be expressed as follow:

“ Structured Interest Amount (i) = Specified Denomination x Coupon(i) x DualRangeAccrual({Schedule(i)}, LowerBound_1(i), LowerBound_2(i), UpperBound_1(i), UpperBound2(i), ReferenceFormula_LowerBound_1, ReferenceFormula_LowerBound_2, ReferenceFormula_UpperBound_1, ReferenceFormula_UpperBound_2) [x DayCountFraction]” and may be simplified as follows:

“ Structured Interest Amount (i) = Specified Denomination x Coupon(i) x DualRangeAccrual({Schedule(i)}) [x DayCountFraction]” or;

“Structured Interest Amount (i) = Specified Denomination x Coupon(i) x DualRangeAccrual(i) [x DayCountFraction]” or; “Structured Interest Amount (i) = Specified Denomination x Coupon(i) x DualRangeAccrual [x DayCountFraction]”.

5.1.3.2 Spread Differential

For ease of reading, where the application of the formulae produces the same Product Amount in both scenarios, the Final Redemption Amount may be simplified as follows:

Final Redemption Amount = Product Amount

5.1.4 Scenario convention

The convention described hereunder is applicable to all the different Scenarios described in Condition 3.

A scenario is deemed to have occurred and therefore to pay an associated Product Formula according to the position of the relevant Reference Formula and a predefined barrier and/or according to the occurrence of an knock-in event. The position of the relevant Reference Formula and a predefined barrier can be "higher", "lower", "higher or equal to" or "lower or equal to". When the position of the relevant Reference Formula is described as being "higher" or "lower", it can be written as "strictly higher" or "strictly lower".

(i) from the Interest Amount(s) (if any) due under any Structured Note on the Interest Payment Date(s) following the occurrence of the Increased Cost of Hedging, the amount of any new or any increase of, any tax, duty, expense or fee that triggered the occurrence of the Increased Cost of Hedging incurred by Societe Generale or any of its affiliates, in relation to the Hedge Positions hedging the payment obligation of the Issuer under the Structured Notes, such amount to be apportioned pro rata amongst the outstanding Structured Notes (the Reduction Amount); provided however that if on an Interest Payment Date on which a Reduction Amount shall be deducted from the Interest Amount, the Reduction Amount in respect of one Structured Note is higher than such Interest Amount due under one Structured Note (prior to the deduction of the Reduction Amount) on such Interest Payment Date, the Interest Amount shall be reduced to zero and the difference between the Reduction Amount and the Interest Amount (prior to the deduction of the Reduction Amount), shall be deducted from the Interest Amount(s) due on one or more of the following Interest Payment Date(s) (if any), and if a Reduction Amount has not been deducted in all or in part after the occurrence of the last Interest Payment Date under the Structured Notes, the remaining Reduction Amount shall be deducted from the Optional Redemption Amount (if any), the Automatic Early Redemption Amount (if any), the Early Redemption Amount (if any) or the Final Redemption Amount whichever comes first (the result of such deduction being floored at zero); or

(ii) in the absence of any Interest Amount in respect of the Structured Notes, (a) from the Optional Redemption Amount (if any), the Automatic Early Redemption Amount (if any) or the Early Redemption Amount (if any) due under one Note on the Optional Redemption Date (if any), the Automatic Early Redemption Date (if any) or the payment date of the Early Redemption Amount (if any), whichever comes first, and (b) in the absence of any Optional Redemption Amount, Automatic Early Redemption Amount and Early Redemption Amount in respect of the Structured Notes, from the Final Redemption Amount due under one Note on the Maturity Date, in each case after the occurrence of the Increased Cost of Hedging, the Reduction Amount (the result of such deduction being floored at zero); or

(iii) in the case of Structured Notes that are Physical Delivery Notes, any Physical Delivery Amount which is calculated in connection with the Structured Notes shall be reduced by the Reduction Amount (subject to a floor of zero).

If the Calculation Agent has not made a replacement in accordance with (A) above (or a deduction in accordance with (B) above in the case of Increased Cost of Hedging only), then the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith, may either:

(A) consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Structured Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). In that case, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of the Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes; or
(B) apply Monetisation until the Maturity Date (as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions).

(C) in the case of Hedging Disruption only, for Notes which offer a full capital protection (100%) of the Specified Denomination at maturity date only, the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith, may consider such event as an event triggering a partial early redemption of the Structured Notes. In that case, the Issuer shall pay or cause to be paid

(i) the Partial Early Redemption Amount on the Early Redemption Date, and,

(ii) the Capital Protection Amount on the Maturity Date of the note

For the purpose of this provision:

Capital Protection Amount means an amount equal to the product of the Specified Denomination and the Capital Protection Rate Capital Protection Rate means a percentage which is equal to the minimum percentage of the Specified Denomination that would have been paid to the Noteholder on the maturity date if no Extraordinary Event would have occurred and regardless of any scenario described in the relevant Final redemption Amount as set out in the Additional Terms and Conditions relating to Formulae. For the avoidance of doubt, this percentage is subject to a minimum of 100%.

Partial Early Redemption Amount means an amount equal to the difference between (i) the Market Value of the Note and (ii) the Market Value of a note which would only be paying at maturity the Capital Protection Amount.

The Market Value of the Note and the Market Value of a note which would only be paying at maturity the Capital Protection Amount will be calculated as follows: at an amount determined by the Calculation Agent, which, on the due date for the redemption of the Notes, shall represent the fair market value of the Notes and shall have the effect (after taking into account the costs that cannot be avoided to redeem the fair market value to the Noteholders) of preserving for the Noteholders the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer to make the payments in respect of the Notes which would, but for such early redemption, have fallen due after the relevant early redemption date.

Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to Notes to be listed on the Italian Exchange (Borsa Italiana S.p.A.).

(i) if any Valuation Date or Averaging Date is postponed as the case may be pursuant to the provisions above, the Calculation Agent shall determine to apply any of the following methods:

A. notwithstanding the foregoing, determine that the fourth Business Day before the date of any payment be deemed the Valuation Date or Averaging Date and the Calculation Agent shall determine the good faith estimate of the value or level of the Underlying and the good faith estimate of the value or level of the Underlying so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price and in that case, the payment date shall not be postponed; or

B. postpone any payment date related to such Averaging Date or Valuation Date (including, if applicable, the Maturity Date) until the fourth Business Day following the day the determinations described in (B) above or at the latest on the fourth Business Day following the date on which a Disrupted Day is no longer subsisting. No interest or other amount shall be paid by the Issuer in respect of such postponement;

(ii) if the Underlying is included in a Basket, the above provisions shall apply only to the Underlying affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day and the Valuation Date or the Averaging Date for each Underlying not affected by a Disrupted Day shall be the Scheduled Valuation Date or the Scheduled Averaging Date; and

4.3 CURRENCY HEDGING DISRUPTION, CHINA CONNECT TRANSACTION ILLEGALITY OR ELIGIBILITY EVENT AND CONSEQUENCES

China Connect Transaction Illegality means, in respect of any Underlying or Component Security traded through the China Connect Service, that, on or after the Trade Date or Issue Date, whichever is earlier, as specified in the applicable Final Terms, (A) due to the adoption of or any change in any applicable law, regulation, rule, procedure, guidance or policy, (B) due to the promulgation of or any change in the interpretation by any China Connect Authority of any relevant law, regulation, rule, procedure, guidance or policy, or (C) due to the public or private statement or action by any China Connect Authority or any official or representative thereof acting in an official capacity, the Calculation Agent determines in good faith that Societe Generale or any of its affiliates has suffered, or may suffer, a penalty, injunction, non-financial burden, reputational harm or other adverse consequence in connection with maintaining the agreement entered into with Societe Generale or any of its affiliates by the Issuer of the Notes relating to the Underlying or Component Security.

Eligibility Event means, in respect of any Underlying or Component Security traded through the China Connect Service involving any ChiNext Shares or STAR Securities, any of the following:
(1) the owner or the beneficial owner of such Notes is not or ceases to be an Eligible Investor, except where the Noteholder of the Notes are holding such Notes upon due exercise of its investment discretion in the course of providing asset management services in which case the asset manager shall be deemed the beneficial owner of such Notes for the purposes of considering whether an Eligibility Event occurred under sub-clause (1) hereof; or
(2) on or after the Issue Date, (A) due to the adoption of or any change in any applicable law, regulation, rule, procedure, guidance or policy, (B) due to the promulgation of or any change in the interpretation by any China Connect Authority of any relevant law, regulation, rule, procedure, guidance or policy, or (C) due to the public or private statement or action by any China Connect Authority or any official or representative thereof acting in an official capacity, the Calculation Agent determines in good faith that Societe Generale or any of its affiliates has suffered, or may suffer, a penalty, injunction, non-financial burden, reputational harm or other adverse consequence in connection with the Issuer performing its obligations under the Notes or any agreement entered into with Societe Generale or any of its affiliates by the Issuer with respect to the Notes.

Eligible Investor means, in respect of Notes that are linked to ChiNext Shares or STAR Securities, an "institutional professional investor" as defined in Chapter 1 of the Rules of the Exchange of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong (as may be amended or supplemented from time to time) i.e. any person falling under paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h) or (i) of the definition of "professional investor" in section 1 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571) of Hong Kong or other types of investors that are permitted or approved by the relevant governmental or regulatory authorities, exchanges and/or clearing systems to trade ChiNext Shares or STAR Securities through China Connect Service.

In case of the occurrence of a China Connect Transaction Illegality Event or an Eligibility Event, the Calculation Agent may consider such event as an Early Redemption Event. In that case where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer may, but is not obliged to, terminate its obligations under some or all of the Notes and pay or cause to be paid an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of the Market Value as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions.

If appliccable, following the occurrence of an Eligibility Event, the Noteholder undertakes that it shall, and shall procure each owner and beneficial owner of the Notes to, take all necessary and appropriate actions for facilitating the termination of the Issuer's obligations under the Notes in connection with such Eligibility Event.

Currency Hedging Disruption means, in respect of any Underlying or Component Security traded through the China Connect Service only, the occurrence of an event ("Currency Disruption Event"), which may include the imposition by the Local Jurisdiction of any controls, that the Calculation Agent determines has or will have the effect of preventing, restricting or delaying the Issuer, or any of its affiliated entities through whom it in good faith has effected any hedging transactions with respect to the Notes, from entering into or settling a Currency Transaction.

(A) If the Calculation Agent notifies the Noteholder that a Currency Disruption Event has occurred prior to or on the Payment Date, any payment to be made in the Settlement Currency in respect of such Payment Date will be postponed until the first succeeding Payment Business Day on which no Currency Disruption Event exists; provided, however, that, if a Currency Disruption Event continues to exist on or after the date falling one year after the occurrence of the Currency Disruption Event ("Long Stop Date"),
(a) the Maturity Date of the Notes shall be postponed to the earlier of first succeeding Payment Business Day on which no Currency Disruption Event exists or the first succeeding Payment Business Day following the Long Stop Date (which will include any day on which, commercial banks in the Local Jurisdiction would have been open or would have effected delivery of the Settlement Currency, but for the occurrence of a banking moratorium or other similar event related to the Currency Disruption Event applicable to the Notes), and

(b) the Calculation Agent will either (i) determine the applicable Exchange Rate on such date taking into consideration all available information that the Calculation Agent deems relevant or (ii) designate the Local Currency as the Settlement Currency.

If the Local Currency is designated as the Settlement Currency and any payment to be made in the Local Currency is further prevented by the existence of a Currency Disruption Event, the Calculation Agent will determine the applicable Exchange Rate in accordance with (b)(i) above.

In each case, the Payment Date will be deemed to be postponed as per the foregoing. Until such determination Noteholders will not be entitled to any payment from the Issuer pursuant to the Notes. If a Currency Disruption Event occurs on any day that is a Disrupted Day, the terms of the Notes will be adjusted pursuant to the foregoing only after the necessary postponements or adjustments have been made pursuant to the definition of Valuation Date.

For the purpose of this provision:
(1) "Currency Transaction" means, on or in respect of a Payment Date, a transaction entered into by the Issuer for the purpose of (a) converting the Hedge Proceeds denominated in the Local Currency into the Settlement Currency and/or (b) obtaining a rate or a commercially reasonable rate (as determined by the Calculation Agent) outside of the Local Jurisdiction, in each case, at which the Hedge Proceeds denominated in the Local Currency can be exchanged outside of the Local Jurisdiction for the Settlement Currency, through customary legal channel.

(2) "Exchange Rate" means the currency exchange rate at the relevant time that the Calculation Agent determines is required to convert one unit of the Local Currency into the Settlement Currency in an unrestricted currency market.

(3) "Local Currency" means the currency in which the relevant Shares trades on the Exchange.

(4) "Payment Date" means a day on which any payment is due under the terms of the Notes.

(5) "Hedge Proceeds" means the cash amount constituting the proceeds received by the Issuer or any of its affiliated entities in respect of any Hedging Positions (or would be so received if the Issuer or any of its affiliated entities held the Hedge Position).

(6) "Settlement Currency" means the Specified Currency.

If an event or circumstance that would otherwise (but for this provision) constitute a Hedging Disruption also constitutes a Currency Hedging Disruption, it will be deemed to be a Currency Hedging Disruption and will not constitute a Hedging Disruption.

3.1 Adjustment Events and extraordinary events

3.1.1 Potential Adjustment Events

Potential Adjustment Event means, in relation to a Share or a Depositary Receipt, any of the following:
A. a subdivision, consolidation or reclassification of such Share or Deposited Securities (unless resulting in a Merger Event), including, for the avoidance of doubt, a stock split or reverse stock split, or a free distribution or dividend of any such Shares or Deposited Securities to existing holders by way of bonus, capitalisation or similar issue;

B. a distribution, issue or dividend to existing holders of (a) such Shares or Deposited Securities, (b) other share capital or securities granting the right to payment of dividends and/or the proceeds of liquidation of the Company equally or proportionately with such payments to holders of such Shares or Deposited Securities, (c) share capital, other securities of another issuer acquired or owned (directly or indirectly) by the Company as a result of a spin-off or other similar transaction, or (d) any other type of securities, rights or warrants or other assets, in any case for payment (in cash or otherwise) at less than the prevailing market price as determined by the Calculation Agent;

C. an extraordinary dividend as determined by the Calculation Agent;

D. a call by the Company in respect of Shares or Deposited Securities that are not fully paid;

E. a repurchase by the Company or any of its subsidiaries of Shares or Deposited Securities whether out of profits or capital and whether the consideration for such repurchase is cash, securities or otherwise;

F. an event that results in any shareholder rights being distributed or becoming separated from shares of common stock or other shares of the capital stock of the Company pursuant to a shareholder rights plan or arrangement directed against hostile takeovers that provides upon the occurrence of certain events for a distribution of preferred stock, warrants, debt instruments or stock rights at a price below their market value, as determined by the Calculation Agent provided that any adjustment effected as a result of such an event shall be readjusted upon any redemption of such rights; or

G. any other event having, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the Shares or the Depositary Receipts.

Following the occurrence of any Potential Adjustment Event as defined above, the Calculation Agent will, as soon as reasonably practicable after it becomes aware of such event determine whether such Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect:

(i) on the theoretical value of the Share and, if so, will (a) calculate the corresponding adjustment, if any, to be made to the elements relating to the relevant Share used to determine any settlement or payment terms under the Notes and/or adjust any other terms of the Notes as it determines appropriate to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes and (b) determine the effective date of that adjustment; or

(ii) on the Deposited Securities that affects the theoretical value of the Depositary Receipts, provided that an event that has a diluting or concentrative effect on the Deposited Securities will affect the theoretical value of the Depositary Receipts unless (and to the extent that) the Company or the Depositary, pursuant to its authority (if any) under the Deposit Agreement, elects to adjust the number of the Deposited Securities that are represented by each Depositary Receipt such that the price of the Depositary Receipts will not be affected by any such event (as determined by the Calculation Agent), in which case the Calculation Agent will make no adjustment. If the Company or the Depositary elects not to adjust the number of Deposited Securities that are represented by a Depositary Receipt or makes an adjustment that the Calculation Agent determines not to have been adequate, then the Calculation Agent may make the necessary adjustment to the elements relating to the Underlying used to determine any settlement or payment terms under the Notes and/or any other terms of the Notes as it determines appropriate to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes (subject to any Local Taxes to be withhold or paid) and determine the effective date of that adjustment. The Depositary may also have the ability pursuant to the Deposit Agreement to make adjustments in respect of the Depositary Receipts for share distributions, rights distributions, cash distributions and distributions other than shares, rights and cash. Upon any such adjustment by the Depositary, the Calculation Agent may make the necessary adjustments as the Calculation Agent deems appropriate to account for such event.

In its determinations of the existence and extent of any dilutive or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the Shares or on the Deposited Securities that affects the theoretical value of the Depositary Receipts of any Potential Adjustment Event, and any related adjustments to the terms of the Notes, the Calculation Agent shall take into account (i) any amounts of Local Taxes that would, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, be withheld from or paid or otherwise incurred by an Offshore Investor in connection with such Potential Adjustment Event and, in respect of Shares traded through the China Connect Service only, (ii) any requirement, adjustment and/or limitation that may be imposed by the China Connect Service or any action or inaction by any one or more of the Exchange, SEHK, CSDCC and HKSCC in relation to such Potential Adjustment Event.

The Calculation Agent may (but need not) determine the appropriate adjustment by reference to the adjustment in respect of such Potential Adjustment Event made by a Related Exchange to options on the Share or on the Deposited Securities traded on such Related Exchange.

Definitions applicable to this Condition:

Offshore Investor means a holder of Shares or Deposited Securities who is an institutional investor not resident in the country in which the Company has been incorporated or in which the Exchange, on which the Share (or the Deposited Securities) is (are) listed is located (the Local Jurisdiction), for the purposes of the tax laws and regulations of the Local Jurisdiction and, for the avoidance of doubt, whose jurisdiction of residence (a) shall be determined by the Calculation Agent and (b) may be the jurisdiction of Societe Generale or any of its affiliates.

3.1.2 Extraordinary events and consequences

A. Upon the occurrence, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, on or prior to the last Valuation Date or the last Averaging Date of the opening of an Offering Period relating to a Merger Event, a De-merger Event, a Tender Offer, a De-listing Event, an Insolvency or a Nationalisation, in respect of (i) the Company or issuance of Shares by the Company, as applicable (an Affected Share) or (ii) a Depositary Receipt (an Affected Depositary Receipt), then during such Offering Period, the Calculation Agent may decide in good faith to apply Method of Substitution with respect to the Affected Share or Affected Depositary Receipt as the case may be.

B. If the Calculation Agent decides not to apply Method of Substitution during the Offering Period with respect to the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt, then:

(a) in respect of a Merger Event (or a Tender Offer as the case may be), from the Merger Date (or the Tender Offer Date as the case may be), and/or upon consummation of the Merger Event (or the Tender Offer as the case may be), until the sixtieth Business Day thereafter, the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith, shall apply, in relation to Share-for-Share, Share-for-Other and Share-for-Combined, either:

(x) Calculation Agent Adjustment and/or

(y) Method of Substitution

(b) in the case of a Merger Event affecting two Shares or two Depositary Receipts comprised in a Basket, the Calculation Agent will either:

(x) continue with the share or the Depositary Receipt resulting from the Merger Event and in order to maintain the original number of companies in the Basket, a Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt (as applicable) will be elected and included in the Basket;

(y) substitute both Shares or Depositary Receipts with two Substitute Shares or Substitute Depositary Receipts selected as described in the Method of Substitution;

(c) in respect of a De-merger Event, from the De-merger Date, and/or upon consummation of the De-merger Event, until the sixtieth Business Day thereafter, the Calculation Agent will either:

(x) replace the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt with the shares or depositary receipts of the successor companies;

(y) substitute one or more share(s) or depositary receipt(s) resulting from such De-merger Event pursuant to the Method of Substitution;

it being understood that, in the case of a Basket, the Calculation Agent shall maintain the initial number of companies in the Basket and that in the case where the Calculation Agent has elected to substitute the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt with several shares or depositary receipts resulting from such De-merger Event, such shares or depositary receipts shall be placed in a sub-basket and considered as one component of the Basket;

(d) in respect of a De-listing Event or a Nationalisation, from the effective date of such event, until the sixtieth Business Day thereafter, the Calculation Agent may apply the Method of Substitution;

(e) in respect of an Insolvency, the Calculation Agent will decide either:

(x) that the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt will be substituted pursuant to the Method of Substitution;

(y) that the value of the relevant component in the formula used to determine the amount to be paid or whether a condition has occurred, if any, as described in the applicable Final Terms, representing the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt will be accounted by the Calculation Agent for its fair market value determined at any time as from the date of occurrence of such Insolvency until the last Valuation Date or the last Averaging Date. The determination of the fair market value shall depend upon the liquidity of the market and the trading conditions relating to the Share or the Depositary Receipt affected at the time of calculation;

(f) In each case as set out in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) above, if the Calculation Agent has not (x) applied the adjustment described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) above; or (y) if in the case of paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) above, no share or depositary receipt meets the criteria as set out in the Method of Substitution, then the Calculation Agent may either:

(x) apply Condition 6.5 “Monetisation until the Maturity Date" of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(y) consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes . In that case, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the relevant Notes and pay to each Noteholder, as soon as possible after the occurrence of any of the events described in (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) above, an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

C. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Calculation Agent shall use its reasonable endeavours at all times to maintain the original number of companies in the Basket as Companies hereunder.

Definitions applicable to this Condition:

Calculation Agent Adjustment means, in respect of a Merger Event (or a Tender Offer as the case may be), the Calculation Agent shall, on or after the relevant Merger Date (or the Tender Offer Date as the case may be), (A) make such adjustment to the exercise, settlement, payment or any other terms of the Note as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Note of such Merger Event (or such Tender Offer as the case may be) (provided that no adjustments will be made to account solely for changes in volatility, expected dividends, stock loan rate or liquidity relevant to the Shares or the Depositary Receipt or to the Note), which may, but need not, be determined by reference to the adjustment(s) made in respect of such Merger Event (or such Tender Offer as the case may be) by an options exchange to options on the relevant Shares or Depositary Receipts traded on such options exchange and (B) determine the effective date of that adjustment.

Combined Consideration means New Shares in combination with Other Consideration.

De-listing Event means, in respect of a Share or a Depositary Receipt, that such Share or Depositary Receipt (or Deposited Securities related to such Depositary Receipt): (a) ceases to be listed, traded or publicly quoted on the relevant Exchange or listing compartment of the relevant Exchange (for any reason other than a Merger Event or a Tender Offer) and is not immediately re-listed, re-traded or re-quoted on an exchange or quotation system located in the same country as the Exchange (or where the Exchange is within the European Union, in any Member State of the European Union) or (b) has its listing, trading or public quotation maintained in inappropriate conditions in the opinion of the Calculation Agent (such conditions to include, without limitation, a lack of liquidity or the disappearance of the relevant futures and/or option contract of the relevant Share or Depositary Receipt (or Deposited Securities related to such Depositary Receipt)).

De-merger Event means, in respect of any Share or Depositary Receipt, that the Company relevant to such Share or Depositary Receipt is affected by a de-merger including, without limitation, a spin off, scission or any operation of a similar nature.

De-merger Date means the date on which a De-merger Event becomes effective.

Early Redemption means that there will be an early redemption of the Notes on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

Fixing Period means the period subject to a maximum of ten Exchange Business Days, which shall expire no later than 90 Business Days following the Merger Date, the De-merger Date, the Tender Offer Date or the effective date of the De-listing Event, Nationalisation or Insolvency during which:

A. Societe Generale or any of its affiliates sells the Affected Shares or the Affected Depositary Receipts, the New Shares and/or the Other Consideration, (as the case may be), on the basis of the weighted average of the closing prices of the relevant assets traded by Societe Generale or any of its affiliates with regards to the relevant Notes, as observed during such Fixing Period; and

B. the proceeds of such sale are re-invested in the Substitute Shares, Substitute Depositary Receipt and/or New Shares accordingly during the said Fixing Period on the basis of the weighted average of the closing prices of such Substitute Shares, Substitute Depositary Receipt and/or New Shares traded by Societe Generale or any of its affiliates with regards to the relevant Notes, as observed during such Fixing Period.

Insolvency means, in respect of a Company, voluntary or involuntary liquidation, bankruptcy, insolvency, dissolution or winding-up of, or any analogous proceeding affecting, such Company, as determined in good faith by the Calculation Agent.

Merger Date means, in respect of a Share or the Deposited Securities related to a Depositary Receipt, the date upon which holders of the necessary number of the relevant Shares or Deposited Securities (other than, in the case of a takeover offer, Shares or Deposited Securities owned or controlled by the offeror) to constitute a Merger Event have agreed or have irrevocably become obliged to transfer their Shares or Deposited Securities.

Merger Event means, in respect of any Share or Depositary Receipt:

A. any reclassification or change of such Share or Deposited Securities (including the change of currency reference of such Share or Deposited Securities) that results in a transfer of or an irrevocable commitment to transfer all of such outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities to another entity or person;

B. any consolidation, amalgamation, merger or binding share exchange of the relevant Company with or into another entity (other than a consolidation, amalgamation or merger in which such Company is the continuing entity and which does not result in a reclassification or change of all of the outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities):

C. other take-over offer, tender offer, exchange offer, solicitation, proposal or other event by any entity or person to purchase or otherwise obtain 100 per cent. of the outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities that results in a transfer of or an irrevocable commitment to transfer all or part of such Shares or Deposited Securities (other than any of such Shares or Deposited Securities owned or controlled by the offeror); or

D. any consolidation, amalgamation, merger or binding share exchange of the relevant Company or its subsidiaries with or into another entity in which such Company is the continuing entity and which does not result in a reclassification or change of all of the outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities but results in the outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities (other than Shares or Deposited Securities owned or controlled by such other entity) immediately prior to such event collectively representing less than 50 per cent. of the outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities immediately following such event.

Method of Substitution means that in the case of a Merger Event, De-merger Event, Tender Offer, De-listing Event, Nationalisation or Insolvency (regardless of the consideration to be received), in respect of an Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt, the Calculation Agent may consider that the Affected Share, the Affected Depositary Receipt, the New Shares and/or, all or part of the Other Consideration (as the case may be) is/are converted into cash and that the proceeds will be reinvested either (a) into a new share or a new depositary receipt of the same economic sector or into a share or a depositary receipt issued by a company of a similar international standing or creditworthiness as the Company related to the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt (the Substitute Share or the Substitute Depositary Receipt, as the case may be) or (b) in the case of Combined Consideration into New Shares. In the event of Other Consideration to be received in cash, in the future, the Calculation Agent may consider that the cash to be received in the future is discounted in order to immediately re-invest the proceeds then procured in accordance with (a) and (b) above.

The sale of the Affected Share, the Affected Depositary Receipt, the New Shares and/or the Other Consideration shall be deemed to take place during the Fixing Period. The Substitute Share or the Substitute Depositary Receipt, as the case may be, and the company issuing such Substitute Share or, in the case of a Substitute Depositary Receipt, the company issuing the Deposited Securities will be deemed a Share or a Depositary Receipt and the Company respectively, and the Calculation Agent will adjust any relevant terms of the Notes.

For information purposes, it is understood that in all cases described herein where a Share or a Depositary Receipt is substituted, on any date "t", with a Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt, the value of the relevant component in the formula used to determine the amount to be paid as described in the applicable Final Terms, shall not be affected by the substitution on such date "t" in respect of the Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt and would mean the closing price of such Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt on the relevant Exchange on the date "t" is weighted by an appropriate linking coefficient so that it is equal to the closing price of the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt on such date "t".

Share-for-Other means, in respect of a Merger Event or Tender Offer, that the consideration for the relevant Shares or Depositary Receipts consists solely of Other Consideration.

Share-for-Share means, in respect of a Merger Event or Tender Offer, that the consideration for the relevant Shares or Depositary Receipts consists (or, at the option of the holder of such Shares or Depositary Receipts, may consist) solely of New Shares.

Tender Offer means, in respect of any Share or Depositary Receipt, a take-over offer, tender offer, exchange offer, solicitation, proposal or other event by any entity or person that results in such entity or person purchasing or otherwise obtaining or having the right to obtain, by conversion or other means, greater than 10 per cent. and less than 100 per cent. of the outstanding voting shares of the Company, as determined by the Calculation Agent based upon the making of filings with governmental or self-regulatory agencies or such other information as the Calculation Agent deems relevant.

Tender Offer Date means, in respect of a Share or a Depositary Receipt, the date on which voting shares in the amount of the applicable percentage threshold are actually purchased or otherwise obtained (as determined by the Calculation Agent).

3.1.3 Stop-Loss Event

Unless "Stop-Loss Event" is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, if on any Exchange Business Day between the initial Valuation Date (excluded) and the last Valuation Date (included), the Closing Price of a Share or a Depositary Receipt is affected by a decrease of 80 per cent. or more of its Closing Price on the initial Valuation Date (the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt and the event, the Stop-Loss Event), then:

A. the Calculation Agent may decide to substitute the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt by a new share or a new depositary receipt issued by a company of a similar international standing or creditworthiness as the Company related to the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt (the Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt, as the case may be) and will adjust any relevant terms of the Notes accordingly; or

B. the Calculation Agent may decide to continue with the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt; or

C. if the Calculation Agent has neither retained any Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt nor decided to continue with the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt, the Calculation Agent may either:

(a) apply Condition 6.5 "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(b) consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes. In that case, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay to each Noteholder, as soon as possible after the occurrence of the Stop-Loss Event an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.
For information purposes, it is understood that in all cases described herein where a Share or a Depositary Receipt is substituted, on any date "t", with a Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt, the value of the relevant component in the formula used to determine the amount to be paid as described in the applicable Final Terms, shall not be affected by the substitution on such date "t" in respect of the Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt and would mean that the closing price of such Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt on the relevant Exchange on the date "t" is weighted by an appropriate linking coefficient so that it is equal to the closing price of the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt on such date "t".

3.1.4 Correction of the Closing Price

In the event that any price or level of a Share or a Depositary Receipt published on the Exchange which is used for any calculation or determination made under the Notes is subsequently corrected and the correction is published and made available to the public by the Exchange after the original publication but no later than four Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (or any payment date(s) determined in the applicable Final Terms), the Calculation Agent will determine the amount that is payable as a result of that correction, and, to the extent necessary, will adjust the terms of the Notes to account for such correction, provided however that, all references to the word "four" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System.

3.2 Change in Law, Hedging Disruption, Holding Limit Event, Increased Cost of Hedging and Insolvency Filing and consequences - China Connect Share Disqualification, China Connect Service Termination and consequences

3.2.1 Change in Law, Hedging Disruption, Holding Limit Event, Increased Cost of Hedging and Insolvency Filing and consequences

Change in Law, Hedging Disruption, Holding Limit Event, Increased Cost of Hedging and Insolvency Filing have the meanings given to them in the Additional Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

In case of the occurrence of a Change in Law, a Hedging Disruption, Holding Limit Event, Increased Cost of Hedging or an Insolvency Filing relating to a Share or a Depositary Receipt (the Affected Underlying), the Calculation Agent may apply the adjustments as specified in the Additional Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

3.2.2 China Connect Share Disqualification and China Connect Service Termination and consequences

In respect of Shares traded through the China Connect Service, the following paragraphs apply:

China Connect Share Disqualification means, on or after the Issue Date, the Shares cease to be accepted as "China Connect Securities" (as defined in the rules of the exchange of SEHK) for the purpose of the China Connect Service;

China Connect Service Termination means, on or after the Issue Date, the announcement by one or more of the Exchange, SEHK, the CSDCC, HKSCC or any regulatory authority with competent jurisdiction of a suspension or termination of the China Connect Service or a part thereof for any reason which materially affects the routing of orders in respect of, or holding of, the Shares through the China Connect Service and the Calculation Agent determines that there is a reasonable likelihood that such suspension or termination is not, or will not be, temporary, then upon the occurrence of such events, the Calculation Agent may elect, while China Connect Share Disqualification or China Connect Service Termination is continuing, to terminate the transaction(s), upon at least two Scheduled Trading Days' notice specifying the date of such termination, in which event the Calculation Agent will apply the Early Redemption.

3.3. ESG Downgrading Event

If ESG Downgrading Event is specified as “Applicable” in the Final Terms, upon the occurrence of an ESG Downgrading Event as determined by the Calculation Agent, the ESG Determination Agent may decide either:

(i) To replace the Affected Share by a new share (the “New Share”) issued by a Company whose (i) ESG Metric by the relevant ESG Rating Agency is at least equal to the Minimum ESG Metric Level and (ii) meets one or more of the ESG Criteria, in each case as specified in the Final Terms; and in that case the substitution of the Affected Share by the New Share shall be made, inter alia, on the basis of the price at which the Affected Share can be sold and the New Share can be bought by the Calculation Agent on the relevant Exchange as soon as reasonably practicable following the occurrence of the ESG Downgrading Event and the determination by the ESG Determination Agent. The Calculation Agent may then make the necessary adjustment to the terms of the Notes used to determine any settlement or payment terms under the Notes and/or any other terms of the Notes as it determines appropriate to reflect such substitution and preserve the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes (subject to any Local Taxes to be withhold or paid) and determine the effective date of that adjustment ;

(ii) to apply Condition 6.5 “Monetisation until the Maturity Date“ of the General Terms and Conditions;

(iii) to consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes. In that case, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay to each Noteholder, as soon as possible after the occurrence of the ESG Downgrading Event an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions;

(iv) to keep the terms of the Notes unchanged (and in particular keep the Affected Share within the Underlying(s) of the Notes). As a consequence, the Affected Share will not be subject to ESG Downgrading Event until the maturity of the Notes.

The Calculation Agent shall notify the Noteholder of the occurrence of an ESG Downgrading Event and of the decision of the ESG Determination Agent pursuant to the above provisions pursuant to Condition 13 of the General Terms and Conditions.

Upon the occurrence of an ESG Metric Event, the ESG Determination Agent shall determine an Alternative ESG Metric. The Calculation Agent shall notify the Noteholder of the occurrence of an ESG Metric Event and of the Alternative ESG Metric and Minimum ESG Metric Level pursuant to the above provisions pursuant to Condition 13 of the General Terms and Conditions.

Where:

"Alternative ESG Metric" means the ESG Metric selected in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner by the ESG Determination Agent, in case of occurrence of an ESG Metric Event. An Alternative ESG Metric shall be deemed the ESG Metric.

"ESG Criteria" means :
(a) the Company of the New Share is incorporated in the same country or geographical area as the Company of the Affected Share,
(b) the Company of the New Share operates in the same economic sector as the Company of the Affected Share,
(c) the New Share is denominated in the same currency as the Affected Share.

"ESG Determination Agent" means the entity specified as such in the Final Terms.

"ESG Downgrading Event" means that at the latest X days/weeks/months prior to the Maturity Date, the ESG Rating assigned by an ESG Rating Agency to a Company, the Share of which is used as Underlying, including as part of a Basket (the "Affected Share"), is withdrawn or reduced below the Minimum ESG Metric Level.

"ESG Metric" means the level of the metric assigned by an ESG Rating Agency to a company measuring its exposure to long-term environmental, social, and governance risks, involving issues such as but not limited to energy efficiency, worker safety, and board independence and specified in the Final Terms. If an ESG Metric is:

(a) not calculated and announced by the relevant ESG Rating Agency, but is calculated and announced by a relevant successor ESG rating agency (the Successor ESG Rating Agency) acceptable to the ESG Determination Agent; or
(b) replaced by a successor index (the Successor ESG Metric) using, in the determination of the ESG Determination Agent, the same or a substantially similar formula for, and method of, determining an ESG metric as used in the determination of the ESG Metric;
then the ESG Metric will be deemed to be the ESG metric so calculated and announced by the relevant Successor ESG Rating Agency or that Successor ESG Metric (as the case may be).

"ESG Metric Event" means that, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, X days/weeks/months prior to the Maturity Date, (i) the relevant ESG Rating Agency (or if applicable the Successor ESG Rating Agency) makes a material change in the formula for or the method of assigning the ESG Metric or in any other way materially modifies that ESG Metric or (ii) a public statement or publication of information by or on behalf of the ESG Rating Agency announcing that it has ceased or will cease to provide the ESG Metric permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at the time of the statement or publication, there is no Successor ESG Rating Agency , that will continue to provide the ESG Metric.

"ESG Rating Agency" means the entity specified as such in the Final Terms, or the Successor Rating Agency which shall be deemed the ESG Rating Agency.

"Minimum ESG Metric Level" means the minimum ESG Metric Level specified in the Final Terms that must be assigned by the ESG Rating Agency specified in the Final Terms to the company selected by the ESG Determination Agent so that its share can replace a Share whose Company is affected by an ESG Downgrading Event, as Underlying, including as part of a Basket.

3. ADJUSTMENTS AND EVENTS - CHANGE IN LAW, HEDGING DISRUPTION, HOLDING LIMIT EVENT, INCREASED COST OF HEDGING AND CONSEQUENCES

3.1 Adjustments and Events

3.1.1 Adjustments

A. If an Index is:

(a) not calculated and announced by the relevant Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent as the case may be, but is calculated and announced by a relevant successor sponsor (the Successor Index Sponsor) or a successor calculation agent (the Successor Index Calculation Agent) acceptable to the Calculation Agent; or

(b) replaced by a successor index (the Successor Index) using, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, the same or a substantially similar formula for, and method of, calculation as used in the calculation of that Index;

then the Index will be deemed to be the index so calculated and announced by the relevant Successor Index Sponsor or Successor Index Calculation Agent or that Successor Index (as the case may be).

B. If, in the determination of the Calculation Agent:

(a) on or prior to a Valuation Date or an Averaging Date, the relevant Index Sponsor (or if applicable the Successor Index Sponsor) makes a material change in the formula for, or the method of calculating, that Index or in any other way materially modifies that Index (other than a modification prescribed in that formula or method to maintain that Index in the event of changes in constituent securities and capitalisation and other routine events (an Index Modification). For the avoidance of doubt, the following events do not constitute "routine events": a sub-division (split) of the level of the Index or a consolidation (reverse split) of the level of the Index, or any other event linked to either the performance or the level of the Index);

(b) on or prior to any Valuation Date or Averaging Date, the relevant Index Sponsor (or, if applicable, the relevant Successor Index Sponsor) or the Index Calculation Agent (or the Successor Index Calculation Agent) as the case may be, fails to calculate and publish the level of the Index and such failure is likely to have a material impact on the hedge of Societe Generale or one of its affiliates in connection with the Notes (an Index Disruption);

(c) the Index Sponsor (or, if applicable, the Successor Index Sponsor) permanently cancels the Index and no Successor Index exists (an Index Cancellation and together with an Index Modification and an Index Disruption, each an Index Adjustment Event); or

(d) for an Index which comprises any Fund Unit or ETF Share, an FRTB Event has occurred;

then the Calculation Agent shall either:

(x) calculate the relevant formula used to determine an amount to be paid or whether a condition has occurred, if any, as described in the applicable Final Terms using, in lieu of a published level for the Index, the level of that Index as at the Valuation Time on the relevant Valuation Date or Averaging Date, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating that Index last in effect prior to that Index Adjustment Event, but using only those securities that comprised that Index immediately prior to that Index Adjustment Event (other than those securities that have since ceased to be listed on any relevant Exchange);

(y) replace the Index by a new index provided that such index is (a) representative of the same economic or geographic sector (as the case may be), and (b) to the extent possible, representative of shares listed on one or more Exchanges of one or more OECD countries; or

(z) only in case of FRTB Event, substitute the Index with a Substitute Index (an Index Substitution Event), where Substitute Index means an Index determined by the Calculation Agent as being similar to the benchmark of the affected Index or, in the absence of benchmark for the affected Index, as having an investment strategy similar to the investment strategy of the affected Index.

If the Calculation Agent has not retained (x) or (z) and if in (y) no index meeting the criteria (a) and (b) can be selected by the Calculation Agent, then the Calculation Agent may either:

(i) apply "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(ii) consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay or deliver, as the case may be, as soon as possible after the occurrence of the Early Redemption Event, an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

3.1.2 Stop-Loss Event

Unless “Stop-Loss Event” is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms, if on an Exchange Business Day after the initial Valuation Date (excluded) and before the last Valuation Date (included), the Closing Price of an Index is affected by a decrease of 80 per cent. or more of its Closing Price on the initial Valuation Date (the Affected Index and the event, the Stop-Loss Event), then:

A. the Calculation Agent may decide to substitute the Affected Index by a new index representative of the same economic or geographic sector (as the case may be), and to the extent possible, representative of shares listed on one or more Exchanges of one or more OECD countries (the Substitute Index) and will adjust any relevant terms of the Notes accordingly; or

B. the Calculation Agent may decide to continue with the Affected Index; or

C. if the Calculation Agent has neither retained any Substitute Index nor decided to continue with the Affected Index, the Calculation Agent may either:

(a) apply "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(b) consider such event as an event triggering an Early Redemption Event. Where Stop-Loss Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay or deliver, as the case may be, as soon as possible after the occurrence of the Stop-Loss Event, an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

3.1.3 Correction of the Closing Price

In the event that any price or level published on the Exchange or by the Index Sponsor and which is used for any calculation or determination made under the Notes is subsequently corrected and the correction is published and made available to the public by the Exchange or the Index Sponsor after the original publication but no later than four Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (or any payment date(s) determined in the applicable Final Terms), the Calculation Agent will determine the amount that is payable as a result of that correction, and, to the extent necessary, will adjust the terms of the Notes to account for such correction , provided however that, all references to the word "four" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System.

3.2 Change in Law, Hedging Disruption, Holding Limit Event and Increased Cost of Hedging and consequences

Change in Law, Hedging Disruption, Holding Limit Event and Increased Cost of Hedging have the meaning given to them in the Additional Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

In case of the occurrence of Change in Law, Hedging Disruption, Holding Limit Event or Increased Cost of Hedging relating to an Index (the Affected Underlying), the Calculation Agent may apply the adjustments as specified in the Additional Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR SGI INDEX LINKED NOTES

The provisions of these Additional Terms and Conditions for SGI Index Linked Notes apply if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Type of Structured Notes" is stated as being "SGI Index Linked Notes".

1. GENERAL DEFINITIONS

Advised SGI Index means an SGI Index for which the Index Rules indicate an Index Advisor, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Averaging Date means, in respect of a Valuation Date and an SGI Index, each date so specified in the applicable Final Terms for the purpose of determining an average (or if such date is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the next following Scheduled Trading Day) unless such day is a Disrupted Day, in which case it shall be postponed pursuant to the provisions of Condition 2 below.

Barrier Date means a date with respect to which the Calculation Agent determines whether a Barrier Level is reached or any other condition has occurred by reference to the level of an SGI Index which Index Rules specify that the only Basket Component "type" is "Physical Commodity" and/or "Commodity Contract", and which includes (1) each date specified as such in the applicable Final Terms (or, if such date is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the next following Scheduled Trading Day) or (2) each date where an American Knock-In Event can occur, as specified in the applicable Final Terms. If a date is specified in the applicable Final Terms as both a Barrier Date and a Valuation Date, it will be considered as a Valuation Date. Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, if a Barrier Date falls on a date which is not a Scheduled Trading Day in respect of all SGI Indices which Index Rules specify that the only Basket Component "type" is "Physical Commodity" and/or "Commodity Contract", it shall be postponed to the next following day which is a Scheduled Trading Day with respect to all such SGI Indices.

Barrier Level means (i) the level, if any, specified as such in the applicable Final Terms, or where none is so specified (ii) the "Knock-In Threshold" if any, designated in the applicable Final Terms, or where no such level or threshold is designated (iii) the level at which an American Knock-In Event is deemed to have occurred in accordance with the applicable Final Terms.

Basket has the meaning given to it in the Additional Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

Basket Component means, unless otherwise provided in the relevant Index Rules, any Index Component other than an Underlying SGI Index and Market Data.

Closing Price means the official closing level of the SGI Index published by the Index Calculation Agent on the relevant Valuation Date, subject to the Index Rules.

Commodity Instrument means (i) an article of trade or commerce such as aluminium, barley, canola, coal, cocoa, coffee, copper, corn, cotton, crude oil, diesel fuel, electricity, emissions allowances, fuel oil, gas oil, gasoline, gold, heating oil, iron, jet fuel, lead, livestock, lumber, milk, natural gas, nickel, oats, orange juice, palladium, palm oil, platinum, rapeseed, rice, rubber, silver, soybeans, steel, sugar, tin, wheat, and zinc, and more generally any commodity (the Physical Commodity), (ii) a future, an option, or any other contract traded on a regulated or organised market with a Physical Commodity as the ultimate underlying (a Commodity Contract), (iii) a Fund Unit or an ETF Share with a Physical Commodity as the ultimate underlying, or (iv) an Underlying Index on the aforementioned, or any other similar instrument specified in the Index Rules.

Commodity Instrument Disruption Event means, with respect to a Commodity Instrument, any event that, in the reasonable opinion of the Calculation Agent, disrupts or impairs the determination of the price or level of such Commodity Instrument for a Valuation Date, and includes, without limitation, (a) the failure by the relevant Exchange or price source to make public the relevant price for a Valuation Date, or the temporary or permanent discontinuance or unavailability of the price source, or (b) the material suspension of trading or the material limitation imposed on trading (whether by reason of movements in price reaching the limits established by the relevant Exchange within which the price of the relevant futures contract may fluctuate or otherwise) in the relevant Commodity Instrument on the relevant Exchange, or (c) the non-opening of trading in a relevant Commodity Instrument on the relevant Exchange on a day on which such Exchange is scheduled to be open for trading provided that all trading in the Commodity Instrument is closed for the entire regular trading session on such Exchange on such day, or (d) with respect to a Commodity Instrument which is an Underlying Index, the failure by the relevant index sponsor or, as the case may be, index calculation agent, to determine or make public the closing level of that Underlying Index.

The occurrence or existence of any such event on a Barrier Date (which is not also a Valuation Date) will not constitute a Commodity Instrument Disruption Event with respect to such Barrier Date. Accordingly, such Barrier Date will not be postponed pursuant to Condition 2 below.

Debt Instrument means (i) a bond (including a structured bond), a note (including an Euro Medium Term Note), and more generally any other debt instrument representing a debt of an issuer, or (ii) any Underlying Index on the aforementioned or (iii) any other similar instrument specified in the Index Rules.

Debt Instrument Disruption Event means the occurrence of any of the following events: (a) the non-publication of the closing levels or market value of the relevant Debt Instrument, (b) the suspension or limitation imposed on trading on the over-the-counter, organised or regulated market(s) on which the relevant Debt Instrument is traded, (c) any event that disrupts or impairs the ability of market participants in general to effect transactions in, comply with clearing obligations in respect of, or obtain market values for, the Debt Instrument on the over-the-counter, organised or regulated market(s) on which the relevant Debt Instrument is traded, (d) the unforeseen early closure of the organised or regulated market(s) on which the relevant Debt Instrument is traded, (e) events equivalent to (c) and (d) but affecting the trading on a Related Exchange of futures, options contracts or other derivatives relating to such Debt Instrument, or (f) if the Debt Instrument is an Underlying Index, the non-publication of such Underlying Index, the announcement of a disruption event by the index sponsor or the index calculation agent for such Underlying Index, or any of the foregoing events (a) through (e) affecting such Underlying Index and/or in respect of one or more components of such Underlying Index.

Derivatives and Other Instrument means (i) a warrant, an over-the-counter swap, a future, an option, an OTC Option or any other contract traded on a regulated or organised market which is not a Commodity Instrument, or (ii) an Underlying Index on the aforementioned or any other similar instrument specified in the Index Rules.

3. ADJUSTMENTS, EVENTS, MONETISATION UNTIL THE MATURITY DATE, CHANGE IN LAW, HEDGING DISRUPTION, INCREASED COST OF HEDGING AND HOLDING LIMIT EVENT RELATING TO SGI INDICES

3.1 Adjustments and Events relating to SGI Indices

A. If on any Scheduled Trading Day, an SGI Index is:

(a) not published by the relevant Index Calculation Agent, but is published by a successor index calculation agent (the Successor Index Calculation Agent), acceptable to the Calculation Agent; or

(b) advised by a successor Index Advisor appointed by the Index Sponsor following an Index Advisor Extraordinary Event (in the case of an Advised SGI Index); or

(c) replaced by a Similar Index;

then (as the case may be) that index published by the Successor Index Calculation Agent or advised by the successor Index Advisor or such Similar Index will be deemed to be the SGI Index so calculated and announced.

B. If, in the determination of the Calculation Agent:

(a) on or prior to any Valuation Date, Averaging Date or Barrier Date, the relevant Index Sponsor and/or Index Calculation Agent announce(s) that it/they will make a material change in the formula for or the method of calculating that SGI Index or in any other way materially modifies that SGI Index (other than a modification prescribed in that formula or method to maintain that SGI Index and/or any modification reasonably incidental to such maintenance, in the event of changes in Index Components and other routine events) (an Index Modification); or

(b) on or prior to any Valuation Date, Averaging Date or Barrier Date, the Index Sponsor permanently cancels the SGI Index and no Similar Index exists or the agreement between the Index Calculation Agent and the Index Sponsor is terminated and such Index Calculation Agent cannot practicably be replaced (an Index Cancellation); or

(c) on any Valuation Date or Averaging Date, the Index Calculation Agent fails to publish the Closing Price of the SGI Index other than as a result of the occurrence of a Market Disruption Event (an Index Disruption and together with an Index Modification and an Index Cancellation, each an Index Adjustment Event); or

(d) for an SGI Index in respect of which the Index Components comprise (i) one or more Equity Instruments that is a Fund Unit or an ETF Share or (ii) one or more Underlying Indices composed of one or more Fund Units or ETF Shares or (iii) any other similar instrument specified in the Index Rules, an FRTB Event has occurred;

then the Calculation Agent shall either:

(i) calculate the relevant formula used to determine an amount to be paid or whether a condition has occurred, if any, as described in the applicable Final Terms using, in lieu of a published level for the SGI Index, the level of that SGI Index on the relevant Valuation Date, Averaging Date or, in respect of any event described in B(a) and (b) above, Barrier Date as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating that SGI Index last in effect prior to that Index Adjustment Event, but using only those Index Components that composed the SGI Index immediately prior to that Index Adjustment Event (other than those Index Components that have since then ceased to be listed on any relevant Exchange), and adjust, as the case may be, any of the relevant terms of the Notes; or

(ii) replace the SGI Index by a Similar Index (except for the case described in (b) above); or

(iii) consider such Index Adjustment Event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay to each Noteholder as soon as possible after the occurrence of the Early Redemption Event, an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(iv) apply "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" (as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions); or

(v) only in case of FRTB Event, substitute the SGI Index with the Substitute Index (an Index Substitution Event), where Substitute Index means an Index determined by the Calculation Agent as being similar to the benchmark of the affected SGI Index or, in the absence of benchmark for the affected SGI Index as having an investment strategy similar to the investment strategy of the affected SGI Index. Following the occurrence of the Index Substitution Event, the Notes shall be governed by the Additional Terms and Conditions for Index Linked Notes for any aspect in relation with the Substitute Index.

provided that, for the avoidance of doubt:

in the event of the occurrence or existence, on a Barrier Date (which is not also a Valuation Date), of an Index Disruption in respect of an SGI Index which Index Rules specify that the only Basket Component “type” is “Physical Commodity” and/or “Commodity Contract”, such Index Disruption will not result in the Calculation Agent taking any of the steps described in (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) above with respect to such Barrier Date. Instead, such date will no longer be considered a Barrier Date, and accordingly the Calculation Agent will not determine whether a Barrier Level is reached, or any other condition has occurred, for such date with respect to the SGI Index affected by the Index Disruption.

3.1.2 Stop-Loss Event relating to an SGI Index

If, on any Exchange Business Day after the initial Valuation Date (excluded) and before the last Valuation Date (included), the Closing Price of an SGI Index is affected by a decrease of 80 per cent. or more of its Closing Price on the initial Valuation Date (the Affected SGI Index and the event, the Stop-Loss Event), then the Calculation Agent may decide to:

A. substitute the Affected SGI Index by a Similar Index and will adjust any relevant terms of the Notes accordingly; or

B. continue with the Affected SGI Index; or

C. consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay or deliver, as the case may be, to each Noteholder, as soon as possible after the occurrence of the Stop-Loss Event, an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

3.1.3 Correction of the Closing Price of an SGI Index

In the event that any price or level published by the Index Calculation Agent which is used for any calculation or determination made under the Notes is subsequently corrected and the correction is published and made available to the public by the Index Calculation Agent after the original publication but no later than four Business Days prior to the Maturity Date, (or any payment date(s) determined in the applicable Final Terms), the Calculation Agent will determine the amount that is payable as a result of that correction, and, to the extent necessary, will adjust the terms of the Notes to account for such correction , provided however that, all references to the word "four" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System.

3.2 Change in Law, Hedging Disruption, Increased Cost of Hedging, Holding Limit Event and consequences

Change in Law, Hedging Disruption, Increased Cost of Hedging and Holding Limit Event have the meanings given to them in the Additional Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

In the case of the occurrence of a Change in Law, a Hedging Disruption, a Holding Limit Event or an Increased Cost of Hedging relating to an SGI Index (the Affected Underlying), the Calculation Agent may apply the adjustments as specified in the Additional Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR FOREIGN EXCHANGE RATE LINKED NOTES

The provisions of these Additional Terms and Conditions for Foreign Exchange Rate Linked Notes apply if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Type of Structured Notes" is stated as being "Foreign Exchange Rate Linked Notes*"*.

1. DEFINITIONS

Averaging Date means the dates specified as such in the applicable Final Terms or, if any such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the immediately succeeding Scheduled Trading Day unless, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, any such day is a Disrupted Day, in which case the provisions of Condition 2 below shall apply.

Closing Price means, in respect of a Foreign Exchange Rate the fixing of such Foreign Exchange Rate published by the Price Source (or the Substitute Price Source if (a) the Price Source (or any page that may be substituted for it) is not available or (b) the fixing of such Foreign Exchange Rate is not available on the Price Source) at the Valuation Time on the relevant Valuation Date.

For EU Allowance Notes, Closing Price means the:

Spot FX Rate, which in respect of a Valuation Date, means the bid price ('FwdsBid') published by the Price Source (or its successor) in respect of such date; and

Forward FX Rate, which, in respect of a Valuation Date, means the ask price ('FwdsAsk') published by the Price Source (or its successor) in respect of that date, provided that:

(a) If the exact maturity of the ask price is not available on the Price Source, the Calculation Agent will determine the Closing Price by applying linear interpolation based on the next shorter and next longer maturities available; and

(b) If it is not possible to determine the ask price based on the Price Source, the Closing Price will be a rate determined by the Calculation Agent acting in good faith and having regard to the conditions prevailing in the market.

For Carry Spread Notes, Closing Price means the:

Spot FX Rate, which in respect of a Valuation Date, means the fixing of the Foreign Exchange Rate published by the Price Source (or its successor) at the Valuation Time on the relevant Valuation Date(i).

For the avoidance of doubt, for an exchange rate expressed as X/Y (where X and Y are currencies), the Spot FXRate(i) represents, for any Valuation Date(i), the number of units (or part units) of Y for which one unit of X may be exchanged on a spot basis.; and

Forward FX Rate, which, in respect of a Valuation Date, means the fixing of the Foreign Exchange Rate published by the Price Source (or its successor) at the Valuation Time on the relevant Valuation Date(i) for the forward maturity aligned with the Valuation Date(T), provided that:

(a) If the exact maturity of the fixing is not available on the Price Source, the Calculation Agent will determine the Closing Price by applying linear interpolation based on the next shorter and next longer maturities available; and

(b) If it is not possible to determine the fixing based on the Price Source, the Closing Price will be a rate determined by the Calculation Agent acting in good faith and having regard to the conditions prevailing in the market

For the avoidance of doubt, for an exchange rate expressed as X/Y (where X and Y are currencies), the Forward FXRate(i) represents, for any Valuation Date(i), the number of units (or part units) of Y for which one unit of X may be exchanged on a forward basis, with the relevant exchange date.

Disrupted Day means any Scheduled Trading Day on which a Disruption Event has occurred.

Disruption Events means, in respect of a Foreign Exchange Rate, the occurrence or existence of (a) a Price Source Disruption, (b) an Illiquidity Disruption, (c) a Dual Exchange Rate or (d) any other event that, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, is analogous to (a), (b) or (c). For the purpose hereof:

A. Price Source Disruption means that it becomes impossible to obtain the rate or rates from which the Closing Price is calculated.

B. Illiquidity Disruption means the occurrence of any event in respect of any Foreign Exchange Rate whereby it becomes impossible for the Calculation Agent to obtain a firm quote for such currency in an amount deemed necessary by the Calculation Agent to hedge its obligations under the Notes (in one or more transaction(s)) on the relevant Averaging Date or any Valuation Date.

C. Dual Exchange Rate means that the Foreign Exchange Rate splits into dual or multiple foreign exchange rates.

Foreign Exchange Rate means any exchange rate expressed as X/Y (X and Y are currencies) and specified as Underlying in the applicable Final Terms. For the avoidance of doubt, an exchange rate expressed as X/Y means the number of units (or part units) of Y for which one unit of X can be exchanged.

FX Opening Time means the time specified as such in the applicable Final Terms.

Hedge Positions means any purchase, sale, entry into or maintenance, by Societe Generale or any of its affiliate, of one or more (a) positions or contracts in securities, options, futures, derivatives, interest rate transactions or foreign exchange transactions, (b) securities lending/borrowing transactions, (c) any cash deposits or cash borrowing and/or (d) other instruments, arrangements, assets or liabilities howsoever described in order to hedge, individually or on a portfolio basis, the part of Societe Generale's or any of its affiliates' obligation under the Notes or any agreement entered into with Societe Generale or any of its affiliates by the Issuer in relation to the Notes.

Intraday Price means, in respect of a Foreign Exchange Rate, any time between the FX Opening Time and the FX Closing Time on a Valuation Date, the level of such Foreign Exchange Rate published by the Intraday Price Source (or the Substitute Intraday Price Source if the Intraday Price Source (or any page that may be substituted for it) is not available) at a specific time on the relevant Valuation Date.

Intraday Price Source means, the published source, information vendor or provider as specified in the applicable Final Terms containing or reporting the rate or rates from which the Intraday Price is calculated.

Price Source means the published source, information vendor or provider as specified in the applicable Final Terms containing or reporting the rate or rates from which the Closing Price is calculated.

Substitute Intraday Price Source means the substitute published source, information vendor or provider as specified in the applicable Final Terms (if any) containing or reporting the rate or rates from which the Intraday Price is calculated.

Scheduled Trading Day means a day on which commercial banks are open (or, but for the occurrence of a Disruption Event would have been open) for business in the principal financial centres of the Foreign Exchange Rate (including dealings in foreign exchange in accordance with the market practice of the foreign exchange market).

Substitute Price Source means the substitute published source, information vendor or provider as specified in the applicable Final Terms (if any) containing or reporting the rate or rates from which the Closing Price is calculated.

Valuation Date means each date specified as such in the applicable Final Terms or, if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the immediately succeeding Scheduled Trading Day unless, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, any such day is a Disrupted Day, in which case the provisions of Condition 2 below shall apply.

In case more than one Foreign Exchange Rate needs to be determined for a Note on a date specified as a Valuation Date in the applicable Final Terms and such date is a Scheduled Trading Day for one or more of these Foreign Exchange Rates and not a Scheduled Trading Day for one or more of the other Foreign Exchange Rates:

(a) Such date shall be the Valuation Date for the Foreign Exchange Rates for which this date is a Scheduled Trading Day.

(b) The Valuation Date for the Foreign Exchange Rates for which such date is not a Scheduled Trading Day shall be the immediately succeeding Scheduled Trading Day for each of these Foreign Exchange Rates unless, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, any such day is a Disrupted Day, in which case the provisions of Condition 2 below shall apply.

In case a Foreign Exchange Rate X/Y is described in the applicable Final Terms as the combination of two other Foreign Exchange Rates (X/Y = X/Z multiplied by Z/Y, with X/Z and Z/Y the Intermediate Foreign Exchange Rates) and a day specified as a Valuation Date in the applicable Final Terms is a Scheduled Trading Day for one of the Intermediate Foreign Exchange Rates and not for the other, the Valuation Date for both Intermediate Foreign Exchange Rates (but only for the purpose of determining the Foreign Exchange Rate that is the combination of these two Intermediate Foreign Exchange Rates) shall be the first succeeding day that is a Scheduled Trading Day for both Intermediate Foreign Exchange Rates unless, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, any such day is a Disrupted Day, in which case the provisions of Condition 2 below shall apply.

Valuation Time means the time at which the Price Source publishes the relevant rate or rates from which the Closing Price is calculated, as specified in the applicable Final Terms. Provided that if no Valuation Time is specified in the applicable Final Terms, Valuation Time is deemed to be the cut-off time commonly used by market participants for this Price Source.

2. CONSEQUENCES OF DISRUPTED DAYS

If any Valuation Date or Averaging Date specified in the applicable Final Terms (the Scheduled Valuation Date and the Scheduled Averaging Date respectively), is a Disrupted Day for a Foreign Exchange Rate, the Calculation Agent shall :

(a) determine to apply any of the following methods:

(x) determine that the Valuation Date or Averaging Date for such Foreign Exchange Rate shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day in respect of such Foreign Exchange Rate, unless each of the fourteenth calendar days immediately following the Scheduled Valuation Date or Scheduled Averaging Date is also a Disrupted Day. In that case, the Scheduled Trading Day immediately following such fourteenth calendar day shall be deemed to be the Valuation Date or Averaging Date for the Foreign Exchange Rate notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day, and the Calculation Agent shall determine, its good faith estimate of the fixing of the Foreign Exchange Rate as of the Valuation Time on that eighth Scheduled Trading Day and the good faith estimate of the fixing of the Foreign Exchange Rate so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price.

Provided however that, if a Scheduled Averaging Date is a Disrupted Day, the Averaging Date shall be postponed pursuant to the provisions above to the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day provided it is not also a Scheduled Averaging Date; if on the fourteenth calendar day following the Scheduled Averaging Date a Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day nor another Scheduled Averaging Date has not occurred, then the Scheduled Trading Day immediately following such fourteenth calendar day shall be deemed the Averaging Date (irrespective of whether that Scheduled Trading Day immediately following such fourteenth calendar day is also a Scheduled Averaging Date or is a Disrupted Day), and the Calculation Agent shall make on that day the determinations described in (x) above, and the good faith estimate of the fixing of the Foreign Exchange Rate so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price; or

(y) consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay or deliver, as the case may be, as soon as possible after the occurrence of the Early Redemption Event, an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(z) apply Condition 6.5 “Monetisation until the Maturity Date” of the General Terms and Conditions.

(b) postpone any payment date related to such Averaging Date or Valuation Date (including, if applicable, the Maturity Date) until the second Business Day following the date on which a Disruption Event is no longer subsisting. No interest or other amount shall be paid by the Issuer in respect of such postponement.

provided however that all references to the word "second" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System. For the purposes of this Condition 2, Clearing System means the clearing system through which the Notes are cleared and settled, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

3. CHANGE IN LAW, HEDGING DISRUPTION, INCREASED COST OF HEDGING, HOLDING LIMIT EVENT AND CONSEQUENCES

Change in Law, Hedging Disruption, Increased Cost of Hedging and Holding Limit Event have the meanings given to them in the Additional Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

In the case of the occurrence of a Change in Law, a Hedging Disruption, a Holding Limit Event or an Increased Cost of Hedging relating to a Foreign Exchange Rate (the Affected Underlying), the Calculation Agent may apply the adjustments as specified in the Additional Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

2.1.2 If a Barrier Date is not a Common Commodity Business Day, then such Barrier Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Common Commodity Business Day, subject to determination deadline provisions in Condition 2.1.3 below.

2.1.3 Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Valuation Date or a Barrier Date, shall occur not later than the earlier of (i) the Maturity Date of a Commodity Linked Note and (ii) the fourth Business Day prior to the date of any payment to be made on the basis of determinations made for such Valuation Date or Barrier Date, as the case may be. The earlier of (i) the Maturity Date of a Commodity Linked Note and (ii) such fourth Business Day shall be deemed to be the Valuation Date or Barrier Date, as relevant, and the Calculation Agent shall determine the fair market value of the Commodity or Commodities for which the earlier of (i) the Maturity Date of a Commodity Linked Note and (ii) that fourth Business Day is not a Commodity Business Day.

2.2 Consequences of Market Disruption Events

2.2.1 If a Market Disruption Event occurs or is continuing with respect to a Commodity Reference Price on a Valuation Date, then the price of such Commodity with respect to such Valuation Date will be (subject to the determination deadline provision in Condition 2.2.2 below):

(a) the Commodity Reference Price for such Valuation Date published by the relevant Exchange on the next Commodity Business Day on which there is no Market Disruption Event (the Determination Day);

C. at any time following the first Valuation Date, a material change in the content, the composition or the constitution of the relevant Commodity occurs, then, except in case of EU Allowance Notes, the Calculation Agent will be entitled to either:

Y. determine the fair market value of the relevant Commodity for the relevant Valuation Date or Barrier Date; or

Z. replace, to the extent possible, the affected Commodity Reference Price with a similar price.

If the Calculation Agent does not make a determination in accordance with Y above and if in the determination of the Calculation Agent, no price meets the criteria to be an appropriate replacement price in accordance with Z above, then, except in the case of EU Allowance Notes, the Calculation Agent will decide to either:

a. consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of the Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

b. apply the "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions.

3. PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO INDICES ON COMMODITIES

3.1 Index Business Day Adjustment

3.1.1 If a Valuation Date is not an Index Business Day with respect to a Commodity Index, then the Valuation Date for such Commodity Index shall be postponed to the next day which is an Index Business Day with respect to such Commodity Index, subject to valuation deadline provisions in Condition 3.1.3 below.

3.1.2 If a Barrier Date is not a Common Index Business Day, then such Barrier Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Common Index Business Day, subject to determination deadline provisions in Condition 3.1.3 below.

3.1.3 Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Valuation Date or a Barrier Date shall occur not later than the earlier of (i) the Maturity Date of a Commodity Linked Note and (ii) the fourth Business Day prior to the date of any payment to be made on the basis of determinations made for such Valuation Date or Barrier Date; as the case may be. The earlier of (i) the Maturity Date of a Commodity Linked Note and (ii) such fourth Business Day shall be deemed to be the Valuation Date or Barrier Date, as relevant, and the Calculation Agent shall determine the fair market level of the Commodity Index or Commodity Indices for which the earlier of (i) the Maturity Date of a Commodity Linked Note and (ii) that fourth Business Day is not an Index Business Day.

3.2 Consequences of Index Disruption Events

3.2.1 If a Valuation Date specified in the applicable Final Terms is subject to an Index Disruption Event for a Commodity Index or any Underlying Index, as applicable, the level of such Commodity Index or Underlying Index shall be determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula and calculation method for that Commodity Index and Underlying Index, as applicable, then in effect (subject to determination deadline provisions in Condition 3.2.2 below), using:

(a) with respect to each commodity comprised in the Commodity Index or any Underlying Index for which no Commodity Instrument is affected by an Index Disruption Event, its settlement price as determined and made public by the relevant Exchange for the Valuation Date; and

(b) with respect to each commodity comprised in the Commodity Index or any Underlying Index for which one or more Commodity Instrument is affected by an Index Disruption Event:

(i) the settlement price of the Commodity Instruments related to such commodity as determined by the relevant Exchange for the Valuation Date and made public on the Valuation Date or retrospectively on the next Commodity Business Day on which there is no Index Disruption Event with respect to such Commodity Instruments;

(ii) if the settlement price of one or more Commodity Instruments related to such commodity is not determined as per (b)(i) above or is a Limit Price, the settlement price of all Commodity Instruments related to such commodity published by the relevant Exchange for the next Commodity Business Day on which the Index Disruption Event ceases to exist with respect to all such Commodity Instruments;

(iii) the settlement price of such Commodity Instruments shall be determined within five (5) Commodity Business Days from and including the relevant Valuation Date for the purposes of paragraph (b)(i) and (b)(ii) above;

(iv) if the settlement price of one or more Commodity Instruments is not determined as per (b)(i) or (b)(ii) above,

Y. for each Commodity Instrument which is not affected by an Index Disruption Event on the fifth (5th) Commodity Business Day from and including the relevant Valuation Date and for which the relevant Exchange determines and makes public the settlement price on that day (and that settlement price is not a Limit Price), the settlement price of such Commodity Instrument(s) as determined and made public by the relevant Exchange; and

Z. for each other Commodity Instrument the fair market value of all such Commodity Instruments on that fifth Commodity Business Day, as determined by the Calculation Agent taking into consideration the latest available settlement price for such Commodity Instruments as determined and made public by the relevant Exchange and any other information that the Calculation Agent may in good faith deem relevant.

3.2.2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the date on which the value of a Commodity comprised in the Commodity Index and the level of Commodity Index are determined shall occur not later than the earlier of (i) the Maturity Date of a Commodity Linked Note and (ii) the fourth Business Day prior to the date of any payment to be made under the Notes on the basis of determinations made on such date.

3.3 Consequences of extraordinary events and adjustments to Indices

A. If a Commodity Index is:

(a) not calculated and made public by the relevant Index Sponsor and/or Index Calculation Agent but is calculated and made public by a relevant successor sponsor or calculation agent (the Successor Sponsor or Successor Calculation Agent, as the case may be) acceptable to the Calculation Agent, or

(b) replaced by a successor index using, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, the same or a substantially similar formula for, and method of, calculation as used in the calculation of that Commodity Index (the Successor Index);

then the Commodity Index will be deemed to be the index so calculated and made public by the relevant Successor Sponsor or Successor Calculation Agent or that Successor Index (as the case may be).

B. If, on or prior to a Valuation Date or a Barrier Date, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, the relevant Index Sponsor or Index Calculation Agent (as applicable) (or if applicable the Successor Sponsor or Successor Calculation Agent, as the case may be):

(a) makes a material change in the formula or calculation method of a Commodity Index or in any other way materially modifies a Commodity Index (other than a modification prescribed in that formula or method to maintain that Commodity Index in the event of changes in commodities comprised in the Commodity Index and capitalisation and other routine events). For the avoidance of doubt, and without limitation, any sub-division (split) of the Commodity Index or any consolidation (reverse split) of the level of the Commodity Index, or any other event linked to the performance or the level of the Commodity Index shall not be considered a routine event; or

(b) fails to calculate and publish the level of the Commodity Index for a continuous period of at least four (4) Commodity Business Days before and including that Valuation Date; or

(c) permanently ceases to calculate or cancels a Commodity Index and no Successor Index exists;

each of the events described in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above, an Index Adjustment Event;

then the Calculation Agent will be entitled to either:

Y. determine the level of that Commodity Index for the relevant Valuation Date or Barrier Date in accordance with the formula and calculation method for that Commodity Index last in effect prior to that Index Adjustment Event (provided that the Calculation Agent may, if required in the Calculation Agent's determination, adapt such formula or calculation method to take the Index Adjustment Event into account). The Commodity Index so calculated will be used in lieu of the Closing Price made public by the Index Sponsor or Index Calculation Agent (as applicable) for the determination of an amount to be paid under the Notes or to determine whether a condition, if any, has occurred or not, or

Z. replace the Commodity Index with a new index to the extent possible, representative of the similar type of commodities comprised in the Commodity Index and traded on one or more Exchanges.

If the Calculation Agent does not make a determination in accordance with Y above and if in the determination of the Calculation Agent, no index meets the criteria to be an appropriate replacement index in accordance with Z above, then the Calculation Agent will decide to either:

a. consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid, an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of the Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

b. apply the "Monetisation until the Maturity Date", as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions.

Z. apply any of the following methods:

(a) Substitution and the Calculation Agent shall (i) identify a fund (the Substitute Fund) having an investment strategy similar to the investment strategy of the Fund affected by the Extraordinary Event (the Affected Fund) and (ii) may adjust any relevant terms of the Notes to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes.

For information purposes, it is understood that in all cases described herein where a Fund is substituted, on any date "t", with a Substitute Fund, the value of the relevant component in the formula used to determine the amount to be paid as described in the applicable Final Terms, shall not be affected by the substitution on such date "t" in respect of the Substitute Fund and would mean the closing price of such Substitute Fund on the relevant Exchange on the date "t" is weighted by an appropriate linking coefficient so that it is equal to the closing price of the Affected Fund on such date "t", or

(b) Postponement to the Adjusted Payment Date (as defined below), or

(c) "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions, or only in the case of Increased Cost of Hedging:

AA. deduct:

(i) from the Interest Amount(s) (if any) due under one Note on the Interest Payment Date(s) following the occurrence of the Increased Cost of Hedging, the amount of any new or any increase of, any tax, duty, expense or fee that triggered the occurrence of the Increased Cost of Hedging and that would be incurred by the Hypothetical Investor, in relation to the Intermediate Hypothetical Hedge Positions or Optional Hypothetical Hedge Positions or Hypothetical Hedge Positions hedging the payment obligation of the Issuer under the Notes and such amount to be apportioned pro rata amongst the outstanding Notes (the "Reduction Amount"); provided however that if on an Interest Payment Date on which a Reduction Amount shall be deducted from the Interest Amount, the Reduction Amount in respect of one Note is or higher than such Interest Amount due under one Note (prior to the deduction of the Reduction Amount) on such Interest Payment Date, the Interest Amount shall be reduced to zero and the difference between the Reduction Amount and the Interest Amount (prior to the deduction of the Reduction Amount), shall be deducted from the Interest Amount(s) due on one or more of the following Interest Payment Date(s), and if a Reduction Amount has not been deducted in all or in part after the occurrence of the last Interest Payment Date under the Notes, the remaining Reduction Amount shall be deducted from the Optional Redemption Amount (if any), the Automatic Early Redemption Amount (if any), the Early Redemption Amount (if any) or the Final Redemption Amount whichever comes first (the result of such deduction being floored at zero); or

(ii) in the absence of any Interest Amount in respect of the Notes, (a) from the Optional Redemption Amount (if any), the Automatic Early Redemption Amount (if any) or the Early Redemption Amount (if any) due under one Note on the Optional Redemption Date (if any), the Automatic Early Redemption Date (if any) or the payment date of the Early Redemption Amount (if any), whichever comes first, and (b) in the absence of any Optional Redemption Amount, Automatic Early Redemption Amount and Early Redemption Amount in respect of the Notes, from the Final Redemption Amount due under one Note on the Maturity Date, in each case after the occurrence of the Increased Cost of Hedging, the Reduction Amount (the result of such deduction being floored at zero).

Provided, however, that:

If "Redemption at the option of the Noteholders" or "Redemption at the option of the Issuer" is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms then:

(x) upon the occurrence or likely occurrence of an Extraordinary Event, any Put Notice or the exercise by the Issuer of its right of optional redemption relating to an Optional Redemption Date with an Optional Redemption Cut-Off Date falling after the date of such occurrence shall be null and void; and

(z) upon the occurrence or likely occurrence of an Extraordinary Event, with respect to Put Notices or the exercise by the Issuer of its right of optional redemption relating to an Optional Redemption Date with an Optional Redemption Cut-Off Date falling on or before the date of such occurrence, the Calculation Agent may proceed with the determinations and/or adjustments described in (X), (Y) or (Z) above.

Only in case of FRTB Event:

AB. substitute the Affected Fund with the Substitute Index (an Index Substitution Event), where Substitute Index means an Index determined by the Calculation Agent as being similar to the benchmark of the Affected Fund, or, in the absence of benchmark for the Affected Fund, as having an investment strategy similar to the investment strategy of the Affected Fund.

Following the occurrence of the Index Substitution Event, the Notes shall be governed by the Additional Terms and Conditions for Index Linked Notes for any aspect in relation with the Substitute Index.

Sub-paragraph (Z) shall not apply to Notes listed on the Italian Stock Exchange (Borsa Italiana S.p.A.).

2.3 Disruption Events and consequences

Upon the occurrence or, unless the applicable Final Terms specify that “Fund Linked Notes_Events2” applies, the likely occurrence, as determined by the Calculation Agent, of any of the following events (each a Disruption Event) in respect of a Valuation Date or an Averaging Date (the Disrupted Day) and a Fund or Fund Unit (the Affected Fund):

A. Calculation and/or Publication Disruption means the occurrence of an event, beyond the control of a Hypothetical Investor (including in case of any gate, deferral, suspension or other provisions in the Fund Documents permitting the Fund to delay or refuse subscription and/or redemption orders) which precludes the calculation and/or publication of the official net asset value per Unit of the Fund by the Fund (or the Fund Service Provider generally in charge of calculating such official net asset value); or

B. Fund Settlement Disruption means a failure by the Fund to pay in cash the full amount of the redemption proceeds on the date by which the Fund was scheduled to have paid such amount and which, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, makes it impossible or impracticable for the Calculation Agent to determine the Closing Price, including without limitation due to (a) the transfer of all illiquid assets of such Fund to a dedicated fund, account or structure pending the liquidation of such assets for the benefit of existing holders of the Fund Units (side pocket), (b) the restriction on the amount or number of redemptions orders that the Fund (or the Fund Service Provider generally in charge of accepting redemption orders) will accept in relation to a single date on which the

Fund normally accepts redemption orders (a gate), (c) the suspension for any reason of the subscription or redemption orders by the Fund (or the Fund Service Provider generally in charge of accepting subscription and redemption orders), or (d) the postponement of the payment of the balance of redemption proceeds to a date occurring after the financial statements of the Fund have been reviewed by the Fund's statutory auditors (holdback), in each case whether these events are imposed by the Fund without being envisaged in the Fund Documents on the Issue Date of the Notes or are already envisaged by the Fund Documents on the Issue Date of the Notes and are solely implemented by the Fund after such date; or

C. NAV Determination Disruption Event means the occurrence of any event (beyond the control of a Hypothetical Investor) other than the events mentioned in "Calculation and/or Publication Disruption" in (A) above or "Fund Settlement Disruption" in (B) above affecting such Fund which, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, makes it impossible or impracticable for the Calculation Agent to determine the Closing Price, the Valuation Date or the Averaging Date (the Scheduled Valuation Date and the Scheduled Averaging Date respectively) in respect of the Affected Fund shall be postponed to the immediately following Fund Business Day or Fund Valuation Day (as specified in relation to such Valuation Date or Averaging Date in the applicable Final Terms) that is no longer affected by a Disruption Event for such Affected Fund.

If a Disruption Event has occurred or is continuing on each of the five scheduled Fund Business Days or Fund Valuation Days, as the case may be, following the Scheduled Valuation Date or the Scheduled Averaging Date, or if no Fund Business Day or Fund Valuation Day, as the case may be, that is not affected by a Disruption Event has occurred at the latest on the thirty-fifth calendar day following the Scheduled Valuation Date or the Scheduled Averaging Date, then the Calculation Agent may either:

X. determine its good faith estimate of the net asset value per Unit of such Fund which shall be deemed to be the Closing Price in respect of such Valuation Date;

Y. (i) consider such Disruption Event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(ii) only in case of Fund Settlement Disruption, (a) consider such event as an Early Redemption Event and may decide to pay, in full or in part, the Early Redemption Amount by the delivery of the Fund Units in lieu of its obligations to pay the Early Redemption Amount in cash; or (b) if Fund Settlement Disruption is continuing on the last Valuation Date and the Calculation Agent did not consider such event as an Early Redemption Event may decide to pay, in full or in part, the Final Redemption Amount by the delivery of the Fund Units in lieu of its obligations to pay the Final Redemption Amount in cash; or

Z. apply either (i) "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions, (ii) Postponement to the Adjusted Payment Date, or (iii) Substitution.

Provided that:

(a) if "Redemption at the option of the Noteholders" or "Redemption at the option of the Issuer*"* is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms then:

(i) upon the occurrence or likely occurrence of a Disruption Event, the Put Notices or the exercise by the Issuer of its right of optional redemption relating to an Optional Redemption Date with an Optional Redemption Cut-Off Date falling after the date of such occurrence shall be null and void.

(ii) upon the occurrence or likely occurrence of a Disruption Event, with respect to Put Notices or the exercise by the Issuer of its right of optional redemption relating to an Optional Redemption Date with an Optional Redemption Cut-Off Date falling on or before the date of such occurrence, the Calculation Agent may proceed with the determinations and/or adjustments described in (X), (Y) or (Z) above:

(b) if a Scheduled Averaging Date is a Disrupted Day, the Averaging Date shall be postponed pursuant to the provisions above to the first succeeding Fund Business Day or Fund Valuation Day, as the case may be, that is not a Disrupted Day provided it is not also a Scheduled Averaging Date; if on the earlier of (i) the fifth Fund Business Day or Fund Valuation Day, as the case may be, following the Scheduled Averaging Date and (ii) the thirty-fifth calendar day following the Scheduled Averaging Date, a Fund Business Day or Fund Valuation Day, as the case may be, that is not a Disrupted Day nor another Scheduled Averaging Date has not occurred, then that fifth Fund Business Day or Fund Valuation Day, or that thirty-fifth calendar day, as the case may be, shall be deemed the Averaging Date (irrespective of whether that fifth Fund Business Day or Fund Valuation Day, or that thirty-fifth calendar day, as the case may be, is also a Scheduled Averaging Date or is a Disrupted Day), and the Calculation Agent shall make on that day the determinations described in (X) above, and the good faith estimate of the net asset value per Unit of such Fund so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price;

(c) notwithstanding the foregoing, a Valuation Date or an Averaging Date (postponed as the case may be pursuant to the provisions above) shall occur not later than the fourth Business Day before the date of any payment to be made under the Notes on the basis of determinations made on such Valuation Date or Averaging Date; if a Valuation Date (postponed as the case may be pursuant to the provisions above) would fall after the fourth Business Day prior to the date of any payment to be made under the Notes on the basis of determinations made on such Valuation Date or Averaging Date, then that fourth Business Day shall be deemed the Valuation Date or the Averaging Date and the Calculation Agent shall elect to make the determinations and/or adjustments described in either (X), (Y) or (Z) above on such fourth Business Day and, in case the Calculation Agent elects to make the determinations described in (X) above, the good faith estimate of the net asset value of the Fund so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price.

For the purposes of this Condition 2.3 :

- All references to the word "fourth" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System; and

- Clearing System means the clearing system through which the Notes are cleared and settled, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

2.4 Consequences of Maturity Disruption Event

Upon the occurrence or, unless the applicable Final Terms specify that “Fund Linked Notes_Events2” applies, the likely occurrence, as determined by the Calculation Agent, of a Maturity Disruption Event, then the Calculation Agent may either:

(i) unless the applicable Final Terms specify that “Fund Linked Notes_Events2” applies (in which case only paragraph (ii) below is applicable), consider such Maturity Disruption Event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(ii) apply Postponement to the Adjusted Maturity Date (as described in Condition 3.1.3).

3. POSTPONEMENT TO THE ADJUSTED PAYMENT DATE - SUBSTITUTION

3.1 Postponement to the Adjusted Payment Date

Following the occurrence of an event giving rise to the Postponement to the Adjusted Payment Date, the Issuer shall no longer be liable for the payment of (1) the Intermediate Amount(s) initially scheduled to be paid on any Intermediate Payment Date and/or (2) the Optional Redemption Amount on the Optional Redemption Date and/or (3) the Final Redemption Amount as defined in the applicable Final Terms on the Maturity Date, but instead will, in full and final satisfaction of its obligations, pay an amount described in Conditions 3.1.1 and/or 3.1.2 and/or 3.1.3 below.

Notwithstanding the above, following the occurrence or likely occurrence of a Maturity Disruption Event, the Issuer shall no longer be liable for the payment on the Maturity Date of the Intermediate Amount(s) and/or the Optional Redemption Amount and/or the Final Redemption Amount, but instead will, in full and final satisfaction of its obligations, pay an amount described in Condition 3.1.3 below.

For the avoidance of doubt, the liquidation proceeds of any assets held by a Hypothetical Investor as Optional Hypothetical Hedge Positions shall be deemed to be used in priority to extinguish any liability, if any, incurred by such Hypothetical Investor under its Optional Hypothetical Hedge Positions and the Calculation Amount mentioned above can be as low as zero.

3.1.3 Postponement to the Adjusted Maturity Date

3.1.3.1 In respect of the payment of any Intermediate Amount and/or the Optional Redemption Amount and/or the Final Redemption Amount as defined in the applicable Final Terms which could be as low as zero

Pursuant to the provisions of Condition 3.1, the Issuer shall pay on the Adjusted Maturity Date an amount per Note, determined by the Calculation Agent, based on (a) the net positive cash amount that a Hypothetical Investor would be left with on the Intermediate Full Liquidation Date and/or the Optional Full Liquidation Date and/or the Full Liquidation Date, as a result of liquidating the Intermediate Hypothetical Hedge Positions and/or the Optional Hypothetical Hedge Positions and/or the Hypothetical Hedge Positions (inter alia by satisfying any obligations or liabilities in place with respect to all or part of such Intermediate Hypothetical Hedge Positions and/or Optional Hypothetical Hedge Positions and/or Hypothetical Hedge Positions, if any, with the liquidation proceeds of the assets of the Intermediate Hypothetical Hedge Positions and/or the Optional Hypothetical Hedge Positions and/or the Hypothetical Hedge Positions, as the case may be) minus (b) the Associated Costs (the result of which converted if necessary into the Specified Currency using the Relevant Spot Exchange Rate on the Intermediate Full Liquidation Date and/or the Optional Full Liquidation Date and/or on the Full Liquidation Date, is a Calculation Amount for the purposes of this provision and of the Compounding Method) together with (c) interest that would have accrued on such Calculation Amount pursuant to the Compounding Method, during the period, if any, (which for the purposes of this provision and of the Compounding Method shall be a Calculation Period) between (x) the Intermediate Full Liquidation Date and/or the Optional Full Liquidation Date and/or the Full Liquidation Date (included) and (y) the fourth Business Day preceding the Adjusted Maturity Date (excluded),

provided however that:

- all references to the word "fourth" in (y) above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System.

For the purposes of this Condition 3.1.3, Clearing System means the clearing system through which the Notes are cleared and settled, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR CREDIT LINKED NOTES

The provisions of these Additional Terms and Conditions for Credit Linked Notes apply if the applicable Final Terms specify that (i) the clause "Type of Structured Notes" is "Credit Linked Notes" and (ii) the clause "Credit Linked Notes Provisions" is "Applicable". If relevant, the applicable Final Terms will also specify whether "Additional Provisions related to CDS Spread" of Condition 3 apply.

The 2014 ISDA Credit Derivatives Definitions may be obtained from the relevant Issuer upon request at the address and contact details specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Capitalised terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the General Terms and Conditions.

"" means that the section so indicated will be deemed not to apply if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Settlement Method" is "Physical Settlement".*
"" means that the section so indicated will be deemed not to apply if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Settlement Method" is "Cash Settlement".

1. CREDIT EVENT PROVISIONS

1.1 Settlement Method

1.1.1 Physical Settlement

If the Notes are Single Name Notes or First-to-Default Notes and if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Settlement Method" is "Physical Settlement":
1.1.1.1 If a Credit Event has occurred, as determined by the Calculation Agent, in the period from and including the First Credit Event Occurrence Date to and including the Last Credit Event Occurrence Date and a Credit Event Notice and, unless specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, a Notice of Publicly Available Information, are delivered during the Notice Delivery Period by or on behalf of the Issuer to the relevant Clearing System for the Noteholders' information, then (i) the Issuer will no longer be liable for the payment of the Final Redemption Amount on the Scheduled Maturity Date or on the Maturity Date, as the case may be, and will, in full and final satisfaction of its obligations hereunder in respect of the redemption of each Credit Linked Note, Deliver or procure Delivery of the Physical Delivery Amount to the Noteholders during the Physical Settlement Period, subject to the next following paragraphs and the cash settlement provisions hereafter and (ii) the Interest Period(s) and/or the Interest Calculation Amount shall be as specified in Condition 1.2 below.

If the Physical Delivery Amount is not equal to an authorised denomination (or integral multiple thereof) of the Specified Deliverable Obligations then (i) the Physical Delivery Amount of Specified Deliverable Obligations to be Delivered will be rounded down to the nearest authorised denomination or integral multiple thereof, or, if none, to zero, and (ii) in addition to the Delivery of the Physical Delivery Amount, the Issuer will pay or procure payment of a cash amount determined by the Calculation Agent as the market value of the Specified Deliverable Obligations that were not capable of being Delivered due to such rounding.

The Delivery of the Specified Deliverable Obligations or,payment of the Cash Redemption Amount is subject to the prior delivery by or on behalf of the Issuer to the relevant Clearing System for the Noteholders' information, of a Notice of Physical Settlement between the Credit Event Determination Date and the Latest Notification Date (both dates inclusive).

1.1.1.2 Following the occurrence of a Credit Event with respect to a Reference Entity, the Issuer will select the Specified Deliverable Obligations.

1.1.1.3 The Issuer will not necessarily Deliver all the Specified Deliverable Obligations on the same date and may Deliver Specified Deliverable Obligations to different Noteholders on different dates or to the same Noteholder on different dates.

1.1.1.4 The Issuer is not obliged to Deliver the same type and proportion of Deliverable Obligations to each Noteholder and a Noteholder may receive various types of Deliverable Obligations.

1.1.1.5 If any or all of the Specified Deliverable Obligations are not eligible for clearance by the relevant Clearing System, then the Issuer may, upon prior notice to the Noteholders, arrange:

(A) Delivery of those Specified Deliverable Obligations (if any) that are eligible for clearance by the relevant Clearing System in the relevant Clearing System and Delivery of those Specified Deliverable Obligations that are not eligible for clearance by the relevant Clearing System outside the relevant Clearing System; or

(B) Delivery of all the Specified Deliverable Obligations (whether or not those Specified Deliverable Obligations are eligible for clearance) outside the relevant Clearing System.

The relevant Clearing System will then be instructed to block and, upon confirmation by the Issuer that delivery has taken place, cancel the Noteholders' positions in its books and the Principal Paying Agent in turn will cancel the outstanding Credit Linked Notes.

If Delivery is to take place outside the relevant Clearing System, the Issuer shall have to receive the relevant Noteholders' transfer instructions, in terms that are satisfactory to the Issuer, sufficiently before the Latest Permissible Physical Settlement Date to allow for physical settlement, otherwise the cash settlement provisions set out below will apply.

1.1.2 Fallback to Cash Settlement

1.1.2.1 If the Notes are Single Name Notes or First-to-Default Notes and if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Settlement Method" is "Physical Settlement" but, on the Latest Permissible Physical Settlement Date, the Calculation Agent (acting on behalf of the Issuer) determines that it is Illegal or Impossible for the Issuer to Deliver all or part of the Specified Deliverable Obligations to all or some of the Noteholders or if the Issuer does not receive transfer instructions as described in the last sentence of Condition 1.1.1.5 above, then the Calculation Agent will calculate a Cash Redemption Amount, in respect of such part of the Specified Deliverable Obligations which are Undeliverable Obligations, and the Issuer will, on the Cash Redemption Date, pay or procure payment of a Cash Redemption Amount to the relevant Noteholders in full and final satisfaction of its obligations in respect of the Undeliverable Obligations.

1.1.2.2 The Issuer must notify the relevant Noteholders through the relevant Clearing System that there are Undeliverable Obligations and the reasons why it is Illegal or Impossible to Deliver such Specified Deliverable Obligations.

1.1.2.3 If, before the Latest Permissible Physical Settlement Date, the Calculation Agent determines that the Delivery of all of the Specified Deliverable Obligations is Illegal or Impossible, and it deems in good faith that such Delivery is to remain Illegal or Impossible until the Latest Permissible Physical Settlement Date, then the Calculation Agent may give notice thereof to the relevant Clearing System for the attention of the Noteholders. The Credit Valuation Date will then be the date that is two Business Days after the date on which the Calculation Agent delivers such notice to the relevant Clearing System, and the Issuer will pay the Noteholders a Cash Redemption Amount on the Cash Redemption Date, in full and final satisfaction of its obligations in respect of the Undeliverable Obligations.

1.1.2.4 If Delivery is partially Illegal or Impossible, the Issuer may, for each Noteholder Deliver the Specified Deliverable Obligations and pay a Cash Redemption Amount. The Issuer shall not be obliged to ensure that each Noteholder receives the same type and proportion of Deliverable Obligations and the same proportion of Deliverable Obligations and Cash Redemption Amount as each other Noteholder.

1.1.2.5 If Condition 1.1.2.1 or Condition 1.1.2.3 above applies, the Issuer may arrange that all settlements hereunder be made outside the relevant Clearing System in the manner described in Condition 1.1.1.5 above provided that the Issuer receives transfer instructions in terms that are satisfactory to the Issuer to allow for such settlements.

1.1.2.6 The Calculation Agent will inform the Noteholders via the relevant Clearing System of the Cash Redemption Amount by sending a Final Valuation Notice.

1.1.3 Cash Settlement

If the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Settlement Method" is "Cash Settlement":

1.2.3 Common provisions to Single Name Notes, First-to-Default Notes, Basket Notes and Tranche Notes

For the avoidance of doubt, except in the case of a Guaranteed Coupon, if a Notice of Pending Credit Event is delivered to the Noteholders, payment of interest on the Credit Linked Notes, or, in the case of Basket Notes or Tranche Notes, on the portion of the Interest Calculation Amount relating to the relevant Reference Entity, will be deferred until:

(A) if a Credit Event Notice is delivered in relation to the relevant event, the Maturity Date, or in the case of Basket Notes or Tranche Notes, the Scheduled Maturity Date or the Maturity Date, as the case may be; or

(B) the date that is 10 Payment Business Days (or in respect of Uncertificated Swedish Notes or Uncertificated Finnish Notes, 18 Payment Business Days) following the publication of a DC No Credit Event Announcement; or

(C) if no DC No Credit Event Announcement is published and no Credit Event Notice is delivered in relation to the relevant event, the date that is 100 Business Days + 10 Payment Business Days (or in respect of Uncertificated Swedish Notes or Uncertificated Finnish Notes, 100 Business Days + 18 Payment Business Days) following the Credit Event Resolution Request Date (all as defined in Condition 2 below).

For the avoidance of doubt, (x) should a Credit Event Determination Date occur within an Interest Period but the relevant Credit Event Notice is delivered (i) less than four Business Days (or in respect of Uncertificated Swedish Notes or Uncertificated Finnish Notes, twelve Business Days) prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date and the Issuer's payment instructions have already been given in respect of interest payable with respect to such Interest Period, or (ii) during a subsequent Interest Period and the Issuer has paid an amount of interest prior to such delivery in excess of the amount due in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 1.2, then the Issuer may deduct the amount of overpaid interest from (i) the next interest amount(s) (if any) due under the Credit Linked Notes (only in respect of Basket Notes and Tranche Notes), and/or (ii) the Optional Redemption Amount (if any), the Automatic Early Redemption Amount (if any), the Early Redemption Amount (if any) or the Final Redemption Amount (or Cash Redemption Amount or Physical Delivery Amount, as the case may be), whichever comes first (the result of such deduction being in each case floored at zero); and (y) if payment of interest is deferred following the delivery of a Notice of Pending Credit Event, no additional interest will be payable on the Suspended Amounts for the period of the deferral.

1.3 Credit Event Notice after Restructuring

Upon the occurrence of a Restructuring in the period from and including the First Credit Event Occurrence Date to and including the Last Credit Event Occurrence Date, if M(M)R Restructuring is applicable, the following provisions apply:

1.3.1 Single Name Notes and First-to-Default Notes

If the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Settlement Type" is "American Settlement":

1.3.1.1 the Calculation Agent may deliver multiple Credit Event Notices with respect to such Restructuring, each such Credit Event Notice setting forth an amount (the Partial Redemption Amount) that is less than the Nominal Amount outstanding of each Credit Linked Note immediately prior to the delivery of such Credit Event Notice. In such circumstances the provisions of Condition 1.1 or Condition 1.2 shall be deemed to apply to the Partial Redemption Amount, only and each such Credit Linked Note shall be redeemed in part (such redeemed part being equal to the Partial Redemption Amount) (and for the avoidance of doubt, without prejudice to the effect of the Principal Credit Factor on the redemption amount);

1.3.1.2 for the avoidance of doubt (i) the Nominal Amount of each such Credit Linked Note not so redeemed in part shall remain outstanding and, if applicable, interest shall accrue on the Nominal Amount outstanding of the Credit Linked Note as provided in the applicable Final Terms (adjusted in such manner as the Calculation Agent determines to be appropriate) and (ii) the provisions of Condition 1.1 or Condition 1.2 shall apply to such Nominal Amount outstanding of such Credit Linked Note in the event that subsequent Credit Event Notices are delivered in respect of a Reference Entity; and

1.3.1.3 on redemption of part of each Credit Linked Note, the relevant Credit Linked Note or, if the Credit Linked Notes are represented by a Global Note, such Global Note, shall be endorsed to reflect such partial redemption.

For the avoidance of doubt, the outstanding Nominal Amount of each Credit Linked Note in respect of which no Credit Event Notice has been delivered during the Notice Delivery Period (and, if applicable, no Potential Repudiation/Moratorium or Potential Failure to Pay has occurred on or prior to the Scheduled Last Credit Event Occurrence Date), will be redeemed on the Scheduled Maturity Date.

If the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Settlement Type" is "European Settlement":

1.3.1.4 the Calculation Agent may deliver multiple Credit Event Notices with respect to such Restructuring, each such Credit Event Notice setting forth an amount (the Partial Redemption Amount) that is less than the Nominal Amount outstanding of each Credit Linked Note immediately prior to the delivery of such Credit Event Notice. In such circumstances the provisions of Condition 1.1 or Condition 1.2 shall apply to the Partial Redemption Amount; and

1.3.1.5 for the avoidance of doubt the provisions of Condition 1.1 or Condition 1.2 shall apply to the Nominal Amount of each Credit Linked Note outstanding after reduction by such Partial Redemption Amount, in the event that subsequent Credit Event Notices are delivered in respect of a Reference Entity.

1.3.2 Basket Notes and Tranche Notes

(a) The Calculation Agent may deliver multiple Credit Event Notices with respect to such Restructuring, each such Credit Event Notice setting forth an amount (the Partial Restructuring Notional Amount) that is less than the Reference Entity Notional Amount of the relevant Reference Entity immediately prior to the delivery of such Credit Event Notice. In such circumstances the provisions of Condition 1.1.3 shall apply to the Partial Restructuring Notional Amount instead of the Reference Entity Notional Amount; and

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, following such Restructuring, the provisions of these Additional Terms and Conditions for Credit Linked Notes shall apply in respect of the relevant Reference Entity with such Reference Entity's Reference Entity Weighting being reduced by the ratio of the Partial Restructuring Notional Amount divided by the Reference Portfolio Notional Amount. In the event of the occurrence of further Restructurings with respect to such Reference Entity, the relevant Reference Entity Notional Amount will be further reduced by the relevant Partial Restructuring Notional Amount.

1.4 Multiple Successors

If the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Type of Credit Linked Notes" is "Single Name Notes" and if "Multiple Successor(s)" is "Applicable" the following provisions shall apply:

Where, pursuant to the definition of Successor (see Condition 2 below), more than one Successor has been identified, each such Successor (a Multiple Successor) shall be a Reference Entity for the purposes of these Conditions, but only in respect of an amount of each Credit Linked Note equal to the Nominal Amount divided by the number of Multiple Successors to such Reference Entity (the Multiple Successor Notional Amount) as determined by the Calculation Agent (for the avoidance of doubt, without prejudice to the effect of the Principal Credit Factor on the redemption amount). Where Multiple Successors to such Reference Entity (each, a Sub-Multiple Successor) have been identified in respect of a Reference Entity (an Original Multiple Successor) that is itself a Multiple Successor, each such Sub-Multiple Successor shall be a Reference Entity for the purposes of these Conditions, but the Multiple Successor Notional Amount in respect of a Sub-Multiple Successor shall be equal to the Multiple Successor Notional Amount in respect of such Original Multiple Successor divided by the number of Sub-Multiple Successors to such Original Multiple Successor. Following the delivery of a Credit Event Notice and, unless specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, a Notice of Publicly Available Information, in respect of a Multiple Successor, Credit Linked Notes will not be redeemed, in whole but an amount shall be deliverable or, as the case may be, payable in respect of each Credit Linked Note (an Instalment Amount) which amount shall be determined in the same manner, mutatis mutandis, as the Physical Delivery Amount or Cash Redemption Amount that would otherwise have been determined in respect of such a Credit Event in relation to the original Reference Entity, except that it shall be in respect of a principal amount of each Credit Linked Note equal to the relevant Multiple Successor Notional Amount only. The date of delivery or payment, as the case may be, of any such Instalment Amount (an Instalment Date) shall be determined in the same manner, mutatis mutandis, as the Physical Settlement Date or Cash Redemption Date, that would otherwise have been determined in respect of such a Credit Event in relation to the original Reference Entity.

The provisions of Condition 1.2 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to determine the amount of interest that would otherwise have been determined following the occurrence of such a Credit Event in relation to the original Reference Entity, except that it shall be in respect of a principal amount of each Credit Linked Note equal to the relevant Multiple Successor Notional Amount only.

More than one Instalment Amount may be delivered or payable on the same day in respect of different Multiple Successors, but not more than one Credit Event Notice may be delivered in relation to a single Multiple Successor unless a Restructuring occurs in relation to a Multiple Successor, in which case the provisions of Condition 1.3 will apply in respect of each such Multiple Successor. Upon the determination by the Calculation Agent of the identity of Multiple Successors, the Calculation Agent shall determine the modifications required to be made to these Conditions and any other related documents, to preserve substantially the economic effect for a Noteholder of a holding of the Credit Linked Notes and the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to effect such modifications.

If the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Settlement Type" is "American Settlement":

(ii) second, by subtracting all or any portion of such amount which, pursuant to the terms of the obligation (A) is subject to any Prohibited Action or (B) may otherwise be reduced as a result of the effluxion of time or the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event or circumstance (other than by way of (x) payment or (y) a Permitted Contingency) (the amount determined in (i) less any amounts subtracted in accordance with (ii), the "Non-Contingent Amount"); and

(iii) third, by determining the Quantum of the Claim, which shall then constitute the Outstanding Principal Balance.

in each case, determined;

unless otherwise specified, in accordance with the terms of the obligation in effect on the date selected by the Calculation Agent by reference to any Hedge Positions; and with respect to the Quantum of the Claim only, in accordance with any applicable laws (insofar as such laws reduce or discount the size of the claim to reflect the original issue price or accrued value of the obligation).

For the purposes of determining whether the issue price of a Bond or the amount advanced under a Loan is less than ninety-five per cent of the principal redemption amount or principal repayment amount (as applicable) or, where applicable, for applying straight line interpolation:

(x) where such Bond or Loan was issued as a result of an exchange offer, the issue price or amount advanced of the new Bond or Loan resulting from the exchange shall be deemed to be equal to the aggregate Outstanding Principal Balance of the original obligation(s) that were tendered or exchanged (the "Original Obligation(s)") at the time of such exchange (determined without regard to market or trading value of the Original Obligation(s)); and

(y) in the case of a Bond or Loan that is fungible with a prior debt obligation previously issued by the Reference Entity, such Bond or Loan shall be treated as having the same issue price or amount advanced as the prior debt obligation.

In circumstances where a Noteholder would have received more than one obligation in exchange for the Original Obligation(s), the Calculation Agent will determine the allocation of the aggregate Outstanding Principal Balance of the Original Obligation(s) amongst each of the resulting obligations for the purpose of determining the issue price or amount advanced of the relevant Bond or Loan. Such allocation will take into account the interest rate, maturity, level of subordination and other terms of the obligations that resulted from the exchange and shall be made by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the methodology (if any) determined by the relevant Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee.

Restructured Bond or Loan means an Obligation which is a Bond or Loan and in respect of which the relevant Restructuring has occurred.

Restructuring means that:

(a) with respect to one or more Obligations and in relation to an aggregate amount of not less than the Default Requirement, any one or more of the following events occurs in a form that binds all holders of such Obligation, is agreed between a Reference Entity or a Governmental Authority and a sufficient number of holders of such Obligation to bind all holders of the Obligation or is announced (or otherwise decreed) by a Reference Entity or a Governmental Authority in a form that binds all holders of such Obligation (including, in each case, in respect of Bonds only, by way of an exchange) and such event is not expressly provided for under the terms of such Obligation in effect as of the later of the First Credit Event Occurrence Date (or such other date determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to any Hedge Position) and the date as of which such Obligation is issued or incurred:

(1) a reduction in the rate or amount of interest payable or the amount of scheduled interest accruals (including by way of redenomination);

(2) a reduction in the amount of principal or premium payable at redemption (including by way of redenomination);

(3) a postponement or other deferral of a date or dates for either (a) the payment or accrual of interest, or (b) the payment of principal or premium;

(4) a change in the ranking in priority of payment of any Obligation, causing the Subordination of such Obligation to any other Obligation; or

(5) any change in the currency of any payment of interest, principal or premium to any currency other than the lawful currency of Canada, Japan, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and the United States and the euro and any successor currency to any of the aforementioned currencies (which in the case of the euro, shall mean the currency which succeeds to and replaces the euro in whole).

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) above, none of the following will constitute a Restructuring:

(1) the payment in euros of interest, principal or premium in relation to an Obligation denominated in a currency of a Member State of the European Union that adopts or has adopted the single currency in accordance with the Treaty establishing the European Community, as amended by the Treaty on European Union;

(2) the redenomination from euros into another currency, if (A) the redenomination occurs as a result of action taken by a Governmental Authority of a Member State of the European Union which is of general application in the jurisdiction of such Governmental Authority and (B) a freely available market rate of conversion between euros and such other currency existed at the time of such redenomination and there is no reduction in the rate or amount of interest, principal or premium payable, as determined by reference to such freely available market rate of conversion;

(3) the occurrence of agreement to or announcement of any of the events described in paragraphs (a)(1) to (a)(5) above, due to an administrative adjustment, accounting adjustment or tax adjustment or other technical adjustment occurring in the ordinary course of business; and

(4) the occurrence of agreement to or announcement of any of the events described in paragraphs (a)(1) to (a)(5) above in circumstances where such event does not directly or indirectly result from a deterioration in the creditworthiness or financial condition of the Reference Entity, provided that in respect of paragraph (a)(5) above only, no such deterioration in the creditworthiness or financial condition of the Reference Entity is required where the redenomination is from euros into another currency and occurs as a result of action taken by a Governmental Authority of a Member State of the European Union which is of general application in the jurisdiction of such Governmental Authority.

(c) For the purposes of paragraphs (a) and (b) above and, unless Multiple Holder Obligation is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, paragraph (e) below and the definition of Multiple Holder Obligation, the term Obligation shall be deemed to include Underlying Obligations for which the Reference Entity is acting as provider of a Guarantee. In the case of a Guarantee and an Underlying Obligation, references to the Reference Entity in paragraph (a) above shall be deemed to refer to the Underlying Obligor and the reference to the Reference Entity in paragraph (b) above shall continue to refer to the Reference Entity.

(d) If an exchange has occurred, the determination as to whether one of the events described under paragraphs (a)(1) to (a)(5) above has occurred will be based on a comparison of the terms of the Bond immediately prior to such exchange and the terms of the resulting obligations immediately following such exchange.

(e) Unless Multiple Holder Obligation is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) above, the occurrence of, agreement to or announcement of any of the events described in paragraphs (a)(1) to (a)(5) above shall not be a Restructuring unless the Obligation in respect of any such events is a Multiple Holder Obligation.

Restructuring Date means the date on which a Restructuring is legally effective in accordance with the terms of the documentation governing such Restructuring.

Restructuring Maturity Limitation Date means, with respect to a [Deliverable] [Selected]* Obligation, the Limitation Date occurring on or immediately following the Scheduled Maturity Date. (b) Either:

(1) In respect of Basket Notes, the product of the Principal Loss Factor and the aggregate of the Loss Amounts for all the Unsettled Credit Events (assuming a Final Value of zero in respect of each Unsettled Credit Event); or

(2) In respect of Tranche Notes, the amount by which the product of the Principal Loss Factor and the Aggregate Loss Amount on the Maturity Date (assuming a Final Value of zero in respect of each Unsettled Credit Event) would exceed the product of the Principal Loss Factor and the Aggregate Loss Amount immediately prior to the Scheduled Maturity Date.

(d) if Asset Package Delivery is applicable, any Prior Deliverable Obligation (if "Financial Reference Entity Terms" is specified as "Applicable" in respect of the Reference Entity in the applicable Final Terms) or any Package Observable Bond (if the Reference Entity is a Sovereign), PROVIDED THAT such Prior Deliverable Obligation or Package Observable Bond, as applicable, may be replaced by the related Asset Package, and (i) such Asset Package shall be treated as having the same currency, Outstanding Principal Balance or Due and Payable Amount, as applicable, as the Prior Deliverable Obligation or Package Observable Bond to which it corresponds had immediately prior to the Asset Package Credit Event, and (ii) if the Asset Package is zero, the Final Price of such Asset Package shall be deemed to be zero, in each case, (i) unless it is an Excluded Selected Obligation; and (ii) provided that the obligation has an Outstanding Principal Balance or Due and Payable Amount which is greater than zero (determined for the purposes of paragraph (d) above of this definition, immediately prior to the Asset Package Credit Event).

For purposes of assessing the applicability of Selected Obligation Characteristics and the requirements specified in the definition of Mod R and Mod Mod R to a Prior Deliverable Obligation or a Package Observable Bond, any such assessment shall be made by reference to the terms of the relevant Obligation in effect immediately prior to the Asset Package Credit Event.

If "Subordinated European Insurance Terms" is specified as "Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, if a Selected Obligation would otherwise satisfy the Maximum Maturity Selected Obligation Characteristic, the existence of any Solvency Capital Provisions in the relevant Selected Obligation shall not cause such Selected Obligation to fail to satisfy such Selected Obligation Characteristic.

Where a Selected Obligation is denominated in a currency other than the Specified Currency of the Credit Linked Notes, the Calculation Agent will, where required, determine the Specified Currency equivalent of the Outstanding Principal Balance or Due and Payable Amount, as the case may be, in respect of that Selected Obligation by reference to the mid-point rate of conversion published by WM/Reuters at 4:00 pm (London time), or any successor rate source selected by the Calculation Agent on the Credit Valuation Date, or on such other date as determined by the Calculation Agent as appropriate by reference to any Hedge Positions and, if such rate is not available at such time, the Calculation Agent shall determine the rate at such time and by reference to such sources as it deems appropriate.

If "Financial Reference Entity Terms" and "Governmental Intervention" are specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, if an obligation would otherwise satisfy a particular Selected Obligation Characteristic, the existence of any terms in the relevant obligation in effect at the time of making the determination which permit the Reference Entity's obligations to be altered, discharged, released or suspended in circumstances which would constitute a Governmental Intervention, shall not cause such obligation to fail to satisfy such Selected Obligation Characteristic.

Senior Obligation means any obligation which is not Subordinated to any unsubordinated Borrowed Money obligation of the Reference Entity.

Senior Transaction means, in respect of a Reference Entity, that (a) the Reference Obligation or Prior Reference Obligation, as applicable, is a Senior Obligation, or (b) there is no Reference Obligation or Prior Reference Obligation.

Sovereign Restructured Selected Obligation means an Obligation of a Reference Entity which is a Sovereign (either directly or as provider of a Relevant Guarantee) (a) in respect of which a Restructuring that is the subject of the relevant Credit Event Notice has occurred and (b) which fell within the definition of a Selected Obligation immediately preceding the date on which such Restructuring is legally effective in accordance with the terms of the documentation governing such Restructuring.

Specified Deliverable Obligation(s) means Deliverable Obligations of the Reference Entity or First-to-Default Reference Entity as specified in the Notice of Physical Settlement (subject to the definition of such term) which, for the avoidance of doubt, may where Asset Package Delivery is applicable, include any Prior Deliverable Obligation, Package Observable Bond or Asset Package.

Subordinated Transaction means, in respect of a Reference Entity, that the Reference Obligation or Prior Reference Obligation, as applicable, is a Subordinated Obligation.

Subordination means, with respect to an obligation (the Second Obligation) and another obligation of the Reference Entity to which such obligation is being compared (the First Obligation), a contractual, trust or similar arrangement providing that (I) upon the liquidation, dissolution, reorganisation or winding-up of the Reference Entity, claims of the holders of the First Obligation are required to be satisfied prior to the claims of the holders of the Second Obligation or (ii) the holders of the Second Obligation will not be entitled to receive or retain payments in respect of their claims against the Reference Entity at any time that the Reference Entity is in payment arrears or is otherwise in default under the First Obligation. Subordinated will be construed accordingly. For the purposes of determining whether Subordination exists or whether an obligation is Subordinated with respect to another obligation to which it is being compared, (x) the existence of preferred creditors arising by operation of law or of collateral, credit support or other credit enhancement or security arrangements shall not be taken into account, except that, notwithstanding the foregoing, priorities arising by operation of law shall be taken into account where the Reference Entity is a Sovereign and (y) in the case of the Reference Obligation or the Prior Reference Obligation, as applicable, the ranking in priority of payment shall be determined as of the date as of which it was issued or incurred (or in circumstances where the Reference Obligation or a Prior Reference Obligation is the Standard Reference Obligation and "Standard Reference Obligation" is applicable, then the priority of payment of the Reference Obligation or the Prior Reference Obligation, as applicable, shall be determined as of the date of selection) and, in each case, shall not reflect any change to such ranking in priority of payment after such date.

Substitute Reference Obligation(s) means, with respect to a Non-Standard Reference Obligation to which a Substitution Event has occurred, the obligation that will replace the Non-Standard Reference Obligation, determined by the Calculation Agent as follows:

(a) The Calculation Agent shall identify the Substitute Reference Obligation in accordance with paragraph (c), (d) and (e) below to replace the Non-Standard Reference Obligation; provided that the Calculation Agent will not identify an obligation as the Substitute Reference Obligation if, at the time of determination, such obligation has already been rejected as the Substitute Reference Obligation by the relevant Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee and such obligation has not changed materially since the date of the relevant DC Resolution.

(b) If any of the events set forth under paragraphs (i) to (iii) of the definition of Substitution Event have occurred with respect to the Non-Standard Reference Obligation, the Non-Standard Reference Obligation will cease to be the Reference Obligation (other than for purposes of the "Not Subordinated" Obligation Characteristic or "Not Subordinated" [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation Characteristic and paragraph (c)(ii) below). If the event set forth in paragraph (ii) of the definition of Substitution Event has occurred with respect to the Non-Standard Reference Obligation and no Substitute Reference Obligation is available, the Non-Standard Reference Obligation will continue to be the Reference Obligation until the Substitute Reference Obligation is identified or, if earlier, until any of the events set forth under paragraphs (i) to (iii) of the definition of Substitution Event occur with respect to such Non-Standard Reference Obligation.

(c) The Substitute Reference Obligation shall be an obligation that on the Substitution Date:

(i) is a Borrowed Money obligation of the Reference Entity (either directly or as provider of a guarantee);

(ii) satisfies the Not Subordinated [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation Characteristic as of the date it was issued or incurred (without reflecting any change to the priority of payment after such date) and on the Substitution Date; and

(iii) (A) if the Non-Standard Reference Obligation was a Conforming Reference Obligation when issued or incurred and immediately prior to the Substitution Event Date:

(1) is a [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation (other than a Loan) determined in accordance with paragraph (B) of the definition of [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation [or, where Selected Obligation is specified as "*Not Applica*ble" in the applicable Final Terms, any relevant obligation determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to any Hedge Positions]*; or if no such obligation is available,

(2) is a Loan (other than a Private-side Loan) which constitutes a [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation determined in accordance with paragraph (B) of the definition of [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation [or, where Selected Obligation is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, any relevant obligation determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to any Hedge Positions]*;

(B) if the Non-Standard Reference Obligation was a Bond (or any other Borrowed Money obligation other than a Loan) which was a Non-Conforming Reference Obligation when issued or incurred and/or immediately prior to the Substitution Event Date:

(1) is a Non-Conforming Substitute Reference Obligation (other than a Loan); or if no such obligation is available,

(2) is a [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation (other than a Loan) determined in accordance with paragraph (B) of the definition of [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation [or, where Selected Obligation is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, any relevant obligation determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to any Hedge Positions]*; or if no such obligation is available,

(3) is a Non-Conforming Substitute Reference Obligation which is a Loan (other than a Private-side Loan) or, if no such obligation is available,

(4) is a Loan (other than a Private-side Loan) which constitutes a [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation determined in accordance with paragraph (B) of the definition of [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation [or, where Selected Obligation is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, any relevant obligation determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to any Hedge Positions]*; or

(C) if the Non-Standard Reference Obligation was a Loan which was a Non-Conforming Reference Obligation when incurred and/or immediately prior to the Substitution Event Date:

(1) is a Non-Conforming Substitute Reference Obligation which is a Loan (other than a Private-side Loan); or if no such obligation is available,

(3) is a [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation (other than a Loan) determined in accordance with paragraph (B) of the definition of [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation [or, where Selected Obligation is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, any relevant obligation determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to any Hedge Positions]*; or if no such obligation is available,

(4) is a Loan (other than a Private-side Loan) which constitutes a [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation determined in accordance with paragraph (B) of the definition of [Selected]* [Deliverable] Obligation [or, where Selected Obligation is specified as "Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, any relevant obligation determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to any Hedge Positions]*.

(d) If more than one potential Substitute Reference Obligation is identified pursuant to the process described in paragraph (c) above, the Substitute Reference Obligation will be the potential Substitute Reference Obligation that most closely preserves the economic equivalent of the delivery and payment obligations of the Issuer under the Credit Linked Notes, as determined by the Calculation Agent. The Substitute Reference Obligation will replace the Non-Standard Reference Obligation on such date as determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to any Hedge Positions, which is expected to be as soon as reasonably practicable after it has been identified in accordance with paragraph (c) above. Information about the occurrence of a Substitute Reference Obligation with a description in reasonable detail of the facts relevant to the determination of the Substitute Reference Obligation, including the identity thereof and the date of substitution, may be requested at any time by the Noteholders at the specified office of the Calculation Agent (subject to proof of ownership of such Credit Linked Notes in a form acceptable to the Calculation Agent).

(e) If a Substitution Event has occurred with respect to the Non-Standard Reference Obligation and the Calculation Agent determines that no Substitute Reference Obligation is available for the Non-Standard Reference Obligation, then, subject to paragraph (a) above and notwithstanding the fact that the Non-Standard Reference Obligation may have ceased to be the Reference Obligation in accordance with paragraph (b) above, the Calculation Agent shall continue to attempt to identify the Substitute Reference Obligation.

Substitution Date means, with respect to a Substitute Reference Obligation, the date, selected by the Calculation Agent by reference to any Hedge Positions, that the Calculation Agent has determined in accordance with the definition of Substitute Reference Obligation.

(ii) the aggregate amounts due under the Non-Standard Reference Obligation have been reduced by redemption or otherwise below USD 10,000,000 (or its equivalent in the relevant Obligation Currency, as determined by the Calculation Agent); or

(iii) for any reason, other than due to the existence or occurrence of a Credit Event, the Non Standard Reference Obligation is no longer an obligation of the Reference Entity (either directly or as provider of a guarantee).

For purposes of identification of a Non-Standard Reference Obligation, any change in the Non-Standard Reference Obligation's CUSIP or ISIN number or other similar identifier will not, in and of itself, constitute a Substitution Event.

If an event described in paragraph (i) or (ii) above has occurred on or prior to the Issue Date, then a Substitution Event shall be deemed to have occurred pursuant to paragraph (i) or (ii), as the case may be, on the Issue Date.

If a Substitution Event occurs in respect of the Reference Obligation in Reference Obligation Only Notes and unless Substitution Event Early Redemption is specified as " Not Applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, the Calculation Agent shall consider such event as an event triggering the early redemption of the Credit Linked Notes and the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Credit Linked Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of the Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions. Notice shall be given by or on behalf of the Issuer to the Noteholders informing them of the Substitution Event and the date scheduled for early redemption.

Substitution Event Date means, with respect to a Reference Obligation, the date of the occurrence of the relevant Substitution Event.

Succession Date means the legally effective date of an event in which one or more entities succeed to some or all of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity; provided that if at such time, there is a Steps Plan, the Succession Date will be the legally effective date of the final succession in respect of such Steps Plan, or if earlier (i) the date on which a determination pursuant to paragraph (a) of the definition of Successor would not be affected by any further related successions in respect of such Steps Plan, or (ii) the occurrence of a Credit Event Determination Date in respect of the Reference Entity or any entity which would constitute a Successor.

Successor means, in respect of a Reference Entity, the entity or entities, if any, determined as follows:

(a) subject to paragraph (c) below of this definition, the entity or entities, if any determined as follows:

(1) subject to paragraph (a)(7) below, if one entity succeeds, either directly or as a provider of a Relevant Guarantee, to seventy-five per cent. or more of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity, that entity will be the sole Successor and, in the case of Basket Notes and Tranche Notes, the Reference Entity Weighting of such sole Successor will be the Reference Entity Weighting of the Reference Entity before the succession.

(2) If only one entity succeeds, either directly or as a provider of a Relevant Guarantee, to more than twenty-five per cent. (but less than seventy five per cent.) of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity, and not more than twenty-five per cent. of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity remain with the Reference Entity, the entity that succeeds to more than twenty-five per cent. of the Relevant Obligations will be the sole Successor and, in the case of Basket Notes and Tranche Notes, the Reference Entity Weighting of such sole Successor will be the Reference Entity Weighting of the Reference Entity before the succession.

(3) If more than one entity each succeeds, either directly or as a provider of a Relevant Guarantee to more than twenty-five per cent. of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity, and not more than twenty-five per cent. of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity remain with the Reference Entity, the entities that succeed to more than twenty-five per cent. of the Relevant Obligations will each be a Successor and the terms of the Credit Linked Notes will be amended in accordance with the provisions set out in the definition of Multiple Successor in Condition 1.5 above. In the case of Basket Notes and Tranche Notes, the Reference Entity Weighting of each Successor will be the Reference Entity Weighting of the Reference Entity before the succession, divided by the number of Successors.

(4) If one or more entities each succeeds, either directly or as a provider of a Relevant Guarantee, to more than twenty-five per cent. of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity, and more than twenty-five per cent. of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity remain with the Reference Entity, each such entity and the Reference Entity will each be a Successor and the terms of the Credit Linked Notes will be amended in accordance with the provisions set out in the definition of Multiple Successor in Condition 1.5 above. In the case of Basket Notes and Tranche Notes, the Reference Entity Weighting of each Successor will be the Reference Entity Weighting of the Reference Entity before the succession, divided by the number of Successors.

(5) If one or more entities succeed, either directly or as a provider of a Relevant Guarantee, to a portion of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity, but no entity succeeds to more than twenty-five per cent. of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity and the Reference Entity continues to exist, there will be no Successor and the terms of the Credit Linked Notes will not be changed in any way as a result of such succession.

(6) If one or more entities succeed, either directly or as a provider of a Relevant Guarantee, to a portion of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity, but no entity succeeds to more than twenty-five per cent. of the Relevant Obligations of the Reference Entity and the Reference Entity ceases to exist, the entity which succeeds to the greatest percentage of Relevant Obligations will be the Successor (provided that if two or more entities succeed to an equal percentage of Relevant Obligations, each such entity will be a Successor) and, in the case of Basket Notes and Tranche Notes, the Reference Entity Weighting of such Successor(s) will be the Reference Entity Weighting of the Reference Entity before the succession, divided by the number of Successor(s).

(7) in respect of a Reference Entity which is not a Sovereign, if one entity assumes all of the obligations (including at least one Relevant Obligation) of the Reference Entity, and either (A) the Reference Entity has ceased to exist or (B) the Reference Entity is in the process of being dissolved (howsoever described) and the Reference Entity has not issued or incurred any Borrowed Money obligation at any time since the legally effective date of the assumption, that entity (the "Universal Successor") will be the sole Successor and, in the case of Basket Notes and Tranche Notes, the Reference Entity Weighting of such sole Successor will be the Reference Entity Weighting of the Reference Entity before the succession or as otherwise determined by the Calculation Agent by reference to Hedge Positions.

PROVIDED THAT, in the case of Basket Notes and Tranche Notes, if the resulting Successor of a Reference Entity affected by a succession, or as the case may be, one or more of the several resulting Successors of such Reference Entity is(are) another Reference Entity comprised in the Reference Portfolio at the legally effective date of the succession, the Reference Entity Weighting of the Successor will be the sum of the Reference Entity Weighting of such Successor after the succession as determined in accordance with paragraphs (a)(1), (a)(2), (a)(3), (a)(4), (a)(6) or (a)(7) above and the Reference Entity Weighting of such Successor in effect prior to the succession.

PROVIDED FURTHER THAT, in the case of Basket Notes and Tranche Notes, if two or more Reference Entities are affected by a succession resulting in at least one common Successor, the Reference Entity Weighting of the Successor will be the sum of the Reference Entity Weighting of such Successor after the succession as determined in accordance with paragraphs (a)(1), (a)(2), (a)(3), (a)(4), (a)(6) or (a)(7) above with respect to each Reference Entity in respect of which it is a Successor.

PROVIDED FURTHER THAT (for paragraph (a) above), if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "N-to-M-to-Default" is "Applicable" or in respect of First-to-Default Notes, the Calculation Agent will adjust the effect of any succession as necessary so that in all cases the number of Reference Entities in the Reference Portfolio will remain unchanged and if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "N-to-M-to-Default" is "Applicable", so that the Reference Entity Weighting will remain the same for all Reference Entities comprised in the Reference Portfolio, in particular:

(x) if the resulting Successor of a Reference Entity (the Legacy Reference Entity) affected by a succession is another Reference Entity comprised in the Reference Portfolio (the Surviving Reference Entity) at the legally effective date of the succession, the Calculation Agent acting in good faith shall select a new entity having an equivalent Rating (as defined below) or an equivalent credit risk (if no Rating is available) to the Legacy Reference Entity immediately prior to the occurrence of the succession; such new entity shall be deemed to have replaced the Legacy Reference Entity as Reference Entity effective on and from the date of the succession and if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "N-to-M-to-Default" is "Applicable", the Reference Entity Weighting of the Surviving Reference Entity shall remain the Reference Entity Weighting of the Surviving Reference Entity in effect prior to the succession and the Reference Entity Weighting of the entity having replaced the Legacy Reference Entity shall be equal to the Reference Entity Weighting of the Legacy Reference Entity prior to the succession; and

(y) if a succession would result in more than one Successor (the Potential Successors) to a Reference Entity either directly or as provider of a Relevant Guarantee, the Calculation Agent shall select only one entity (the Chosen Successor) among the Potential Successors to replace the Reference Entity; the Chosen Successor shall be deemed to have replaced the Reference Entity and if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "N-to-M-to-Default" is "Applicable", its Reference Entity Weighting shall be equal to the Reference Entity Weighting of the Reference Entity prior to the succession.

For the purposes of this definition Rating means the senior unsecured debt rating assigned by the three rating agencies Moody's France S.A.S, S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited, and Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited or any of them, being understood that if the ratings assigned in respect of an entity are not equivalent, only the highest one(s) will be taken into consideration.

(b) The Calculation Agent will be responsible for determining with effect from the Succession Date any Successor or Successors under paragraph (a) above; provided that the Calculation Agent will not make such determination if, at the time of determination, the DC Secretary has publicly announced that the relevant Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee has Resolved that there is no Successor based on the relevant succession to Relevant Obligations. Information about the occurrence of a succession (or, in relation to a Reference Entity that is a Sovereign, a Sovereign Succession Event) pursuant to which one or more Successors to a Reference Entity can be determined, with reasonable detail of the facts relevant to the determination, pursuant to paragraph (a) of the definition of Successor, of the identity of any Successor(s), may be requested at any time by the Noteholders at the specified office of the Calculation Agent (subject to proof of ownership of such Credit Linked Notes in a form acceptable to the Calculation Agent), and will be notified as part of a notice of Potential Failure to Pay or a Repudiation/Moratorium Extension Notice or a Credit Event Notice (as the case may be) in respect of the relevant Reference Entity.

The Calculation Agent will make all calculations and determinations required to be made under this definition on the basis of Eligible Information.

Notwithstanding the above, in case of Basket Notes or Tranche Notes and when the Reference Portfolio is made up of the constituents of an index, the Successor determinations of the Calculation Agent will follow the relevant index source determinations (source as defined in the applicable Final Terms).

In calculating the percentages used to determine whether an entity qualifies as a Successor under paragraph (a)(1) to (7) (inclusive) above, if there is a Steps Plan, the Calculation Agent shall consider all related successions contemplated by such Steps Plan in aggregate as if forming part of a single succession.

(c) An entity may only be a Successor if:

(iii) where the Reference Entity is a Sovereign, such entity succeeded to the Relevant Obligations by way of a Sovereign Succession Event.

(d) For the purposes of this definition, "succeed" means, with respect to a Reference Entity and its Relevant Obligations, that an entity other than the Reference Entity (i) assumes or becomes liable for such Relevant Obligations whether by operation of law or pursuant to any agreement (including, with respect to a Reference Entity that is a Sovereign, any protocol, treaty, convention, accord, concord, entente, pact or other agreement) or (ii) issues Bonds or incurs Loans (the Exchange Bonds or Loans) that are exchanged for Relevant Obligations, and in either case the Reference Entity is not thereafter a direct obligor or a provider of a Relevant Guarantee with respect to such Relevant Obligations or such Exchange Bonds or Loans, as applicable. For the purposes of this definition, succeeded and succession shall be construed accordingly.

(e) In the case of an exchange offer, the determination required pursuant to paragraph (a) above shall be made on the basis of the outstanding principal balance of Relevant Obligations exchanged and not on the basis of the outstanding principal balance of the Exchange Bonds or Loans.

(f) If two or more entities (each, a Joint Potential Successor) jointly succeed to one or more Relevant Obligations (collectively, the Joint Relevant Obligations) either directly or as a provider of a Relevant Guarantee, then (i) if the Joint Relevant Obligation was a direct obligation of the relevant Reference Entity, it shall be treated as having been succeeded to by the Joint Potential Successor (or Joint Potential Successors, in equal parts) which succeeded to such Joint Relevant Obligation as direct obligor or obligors, or (ii) if the Joint Relevant Obligation was a Relevant Guarantee, it shall be treated as having been succeeded to by the Joint Potential Successor (or Joint Potential Successors, in equal parts) which succeeded to such Joint Relevant Obligation as guarantor or guarantors, if any, or otherwise by each Joint Potential Successor in equal parts.

Successor Resolution Request Date means, with respect to a notice to the DC Secretary, requesting that a Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee be convened to Resolve one or more Successors to a Reference Entity, the date, as publicly announced by the DC Secretary, that the relevant Credit Derivatives Determinations Committee Resolves to be the date on which such notice is effective.

If a succession event occurs in respect of the Reference Entity, the Calculation Agent may – in addition to the provisions of Condition 2 "Definitions" and acting in good faith – decide to either:

(A) replace the Reference Entity (i) by the Successor or (ii) in case of several Successors, by one, some or all of the Successors resulting from the succession event;

(B) substitute the Successor or Successors by one or several Similar Reference Entity(ies) (as defined in Condition 1.7.4);

(C) apply "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" as per Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(D) consider such succession event as an Early Redemption Event as defined in Condition 1.1.8.4 paragraph above, which will cause an early redemption of the Credit Linked Notes at an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions; in any case, it being understood that, in case of (A) or (B) above:

(a) such replacement or substitution shall affect only the provisions related to Reference Entity Spread; and

(b) the Calculation Agent will (x) calculate the corresponding adjustment, if any, to be made to the elements relating to a credit default swap on the relevant Reference Entity used to determine the Reference Entity Spread and any settlement or payment terms under the Credit Linked Notes, and/or adjust any other terms of the Credit Linked Notes as it determines appropriate to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Credit Linked Notes and (y) determine the effective date of that adjustment.

3.2.2 External Provider Event

On any day where the applicable Reference Entity Spread Method is the External Provider Method, upon the Issuer becoming aware that the External Provider Spread is no longer available or it is illegal or impossible (as determined by the Calculation Agent) for the Calculation Agent to use the External Provider Method, the Issuer will change the determination of the Reference Entity Spread to the Dealer Poll Method with immediate effect, and give notice of the same to the Calculation Agent and, in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices), to the Noteholders as soon as reasonably practicable.

3.2.3 Credit Index Event

If the Effective Credit Index Spread is no longer available or it is impossible (as determined by the Calculation Agent) for the Calculation Agent to use the Effective Credit Index Spread, the Issuer will replace the determination of the Effective Credit Index Spread by the weighted average of the Reference Entity Spread for all Reference Entities in the relevant Reference Portfolio with immediate effect, and give notice of the same to the Calculation Agent and, in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices), to the Noteholders as soon as reasonably practicable.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR INFLATION LINKED NOTES

The provisions of these Additional Terms and Conditions for Inflation Linked Notes apply if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Type of Structured Notes" is "Inflation Linked Notes".

1. DEFINITIONS

Closing Price means the level of the Inflation Index for a Reference Period which is relevant to the calculation of a payment under the Notes.

Fallback Bond means a bond, if any, selected by the Calculation Agent and issued by the government of the country to whose level of inflation the Inflation Index relates and which pays an interest or redemption amount which is calculated by reference to the Inflation Index, with a maturity date which falls on (a) the same day as the Maturity Date, (b) the next longest maturity after the Maturity Date, if there is no such bond maturing on the Maturity Date, or (c) the next shortest maturity before the Maturity Date, if no bond defined in (a) or (b) is selected by the Calculation Agent. If the Inflation Index relates to the level of inflation across the European Monetary Union, the Calculation Agent will select an inflation-linked bond that is a debt obligation of one of the governments (but not any government agency) of France, Italy, Germany or Spain and which pays an interest or redemption amount which is calculated by reference to the level of inflation in the European Monetary Union. In each case, the Calculation Agent will select the Fallback Bond from those inflation-linked bonds issued on or before the Issue Date and, if there is more than one inflation-linked bond maturing on the same date, the Fallback Bond shall be selected by the Calculation Agent from those bonds. If the Fallback Bond redeems the Calculation Agent will select a new Fallback Bond on the same basis, but selected from all eligible bonds in issue at the time the original Fallback Bond redeems (including any bond for which the redeemed bond is exchanged). For the avoidance of doubt, if no bond defined in (a), (b) or (c) above is selected by the Calculation Agent, there will be no Fallback Bond.

Hedge Positions means any purchase, sale, entry into or maintenance, by Societe Generale or any of its affiliates, of one or more (a) positions or contracts in securities, options, futures, derivatives, interest rate transactions or foreign exchange transactions, (b) securities lending/borrowing transactions, (c) any cash deposits or cash borrowing and/or (d) other instruments, arrangements, assets or liabilities howsoever described in order to hedge, individually or on a portfolio basis, the part of Societe Generale or any of its affiliates' obligations under the Notes.

Index Sponsor means the entity that publishes or announces (directly or through an agent) the level of the relevant Inflation Index on a regular basis.

Inflation Index means any inflation index specified as Underlying in the applicable Final Terms, subject to adjustment pursuant to the provisions of Condition 2.1 below.

Payment Date means any date on which a payment is due and payable pursuant to the terms of the Notes.

Reference Period means the time period for which the level of the Inflation Index was calculated and to which, as a result, such level of Inflation Index refers, regardless of when this level is published or announced. The time period may be, but is not limited to, a calendar year, a semester, a quarter or a month.

Substitute Index Level means an index level, determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with Condition 2.1(a) below.

Successor Index has the meaning given to it in Condition 2.2 below.

2. ADJUSTMENTS AND EVENTS

2.1 Delay of Publication

(a) If the Closing Price is not published or announced by the day that is five Business Days prior to the next following Payment Date under the Notes, the Calculation Agent will determine a Substitute Index Level (in place of such Closing Price) by using the following methodology:

(i) if applicable, the Calculation Agent shall take the same action to determine the Substitute Index Level for such Payment Date as that taken by the relevant calculation agent pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Fallback Bond;

(ii) if (i) above does not result in a Substitute Index Level for such Payment Date for any reason, then the Calculation Agent shall determine the Substitute Index Level as follows:

Substitute Index level = Base Level x (Latest Level / Reference Level)

Where:

Base Level means the level of the Inflation Index (excluding any "flash" estimates) published or announced by the Index Sponsor in respect of the time period which is 12 calendar months prior to the time period for which the Substitute Index Level is being determined;

Latest Level means the latest level of the Inflation Index (excluding any "flash" estimates) published or announced by the Index Sponsor prior to the time period in respect of which the Substitute Index Level is being calculated; and Reference Level means the level of the Inflation Index (excluding any "flash" estimates) published or announced by the Index Sponsor prior to the time period that is 12 calendar months prior to the time period referred to in "Latest Level" above.

(b) If a Closing Price is published or announced at any time after the day that is five Business Days prior to the next following Payment Date under the Notes, such Closing Price will not be used in any calculations. The Substitute Index Level so determined pursuant to the paragraph (a) above will be the definitive level for that Reference Period.

If the Calculation Agent determines a Substitute Index Level in accordance with this Condition 2.1, the Calculation Agent may make any adjustment or adjustments (without limitation) to (x) the Substitute Index Level determined in accordance with this Condition 2.1 and/or (y) any amount payable under the Notes and/or any other relevant term of the Notes, in each case, as the Calculation Agent deems necessary.

Provided however that:

- all references to the word "five" in (a) and (b) above shall be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System.

For the purposes of this Condition 2, Clearing System means the clearing system through which the Notes are cleared and settled, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

2.2 Cessation of Publication

If the Calculation Agent determines that the level of an Inflation Index is not calculated and announced by the Index Sponsor for two consecutive months and/or the Index Sponsor announces that it will no longer continue to publish or announce the Inflation Index and/or the Index Sponsor cancels the Inflation Index, then the Calculation Agent shall determine a successor index (a Successor Index) (in lieu of any previously applicable Inflation Index) for the purposes of the Notes as follows:

(i) if at any time, a successor index has been designated by the relevant calculation agent pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Fallback Bond, such successor index shall be designated a Successor Index for the purposes of all subsequent Payment Dates in relation to the Notes, notwithstanding that any other Successor Index may previously have been determined under paragraphs (ii), (iii) or (iv) below;

(ii) if a Successor Index has not been determined under paragraph (i) above, and a notice has been given or an announcement has been made by the Index Sponsor, specifying that the Inflation Index will be superseded by a replacement index specified by the Index Sponsor, and the Calculation Agent determines that such replacement index is calculated using the same or substantially similar formula or method of calculation as used in the calculation of the previously applicable Inflation Index, such replacement index shall be the Inflation Index for purposes of the Notes from the date that such replacement index comes into effect;

(iii) if a Successor Index has not been determined under paragraphs (i) or (ii) above, the Calculation Agent shall ask five leading independent dealers to state what the replacement index for the Inflation Index should be. If at least four responses are received, and of those responses, three or more leading independent dealers state the same index, such index will be deemed the "Successor Index". If three responses are received, and two or more leading independent dealers state the same index, such index will be deemed the "Successor Index". If fewer than three responses are received, the Calculation Agent will proceed to paragraph (iv) hereof;

(iv) if no Successor Index has been determined under paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) above by the fifth Business Day prior to the next following Payment Date under the Notes, the Calculation Agent will determine an appropriate alternative index for such date, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, and such index will be deemed the "Successor Index";

Provided however that:
- all references to the word "fifth" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System; and

(v) if the Calculation Agent determines that no alternative index is appropriate, the Calculation Agent shall:

(a) consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay to each Noteholder an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(b) apply "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" (as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Calculation Agent shall determine the date on which the Successor Index shall be deemed to replace the Inflation Index for the purposes of the Notes.

If a Successor Index is determined in accordance with this Condition 2.2, the Calculation Agent may make any adjustment or adjustments (without limitation) to any amount payable under the Notes and/or any other relevant term of the Notes as the Calculation Agent deems necessary.

2.3 Rebasing of the Inflation Index

If the Calculation Agent determines that the Inflation Index has been or will be rebased at any time, the Inflation Index as so rebased (the "Rebased Index") will be used for purposes of determining the Closing Price from the date of such rebasing; provided, however, that the Calculation Agent shall make such adjustments as are made by the calculation agent pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Fallback Bond, if any, to the level of the Rebased Index so that the Rebased Index levels reflect the same rate of inflation as the Inflation Index before it was rebased. If there is no Fallback Bond, the Calculation Agent shall make adjustments to the levels of the Rebased Index so that the Rebased Index levels reflect the same rate of inflation as the Inflation Index before it was rebased. Any such rebasing shall not affect any prior payments made under the Notes.

2.4 Material Modification Prior to Payment Date

If, on or prior to the day that is five Business Days prior to the next following Payment Date under the Notes, the Index Sponsor announces that it will make a material change to the Inflation Index, then the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, shall make any such adjustments to the Inflation Index consistent with adjustments made to the Fallback Bond, or, if there is no Fallback Bond, only those adjustments necessary for the modified Inflation Index to continue as the Inflation Index.

Provided however that:

- all references to the word "five" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System.

2.5 Manifest Error in Publication

If, within the earlier of (i) 30 days of publication, and (ii) the day that is five Business Days prior to the next following Payment Date under the Notes, the Calculation Agent determines that the Index Sponsor has corrected the level of the Inflation Index to remedy a manifest error in its original publication, the Calculation Agent may make any adjustment to any amount payable under the Notes and/or any other relevant term of the Notes as the Calculation Agent deems appropriate as a result of such correction and/or determine the amount (if any) that is payable as a result of that correction.

Provided however that:
- all references to the word "five" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System.

3. CHANGE IN LAW, HEDGING DISRUPTION, INCREASED COST OF HEDGING, HOLDING LIMIT EVENT AND CONSEQUENCES

Change in Law, Hedging Disruption, Increased Cost of Hedging and Holding Limit Event have the meanings given to them in the Additional Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

In case of the occurrence of a Change in Law, a Hedging Disruption, a Holding Limit Event or an Increased Cost of Hedging relating to an Inflation Index (the Affected Underlying), the Calculation Agent may apply the adjustments as specified in the Additional Terms and Conditions for Structured Notes.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR BOND LINKED NOTES

The provisions of these Additional Terms and Conditions for Bond Linked Notes apply if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause ("Type of Structured Notes" is "Bond Linked Notes", and (ii) "Bond Linked Notes Provisions" is stated as being "Applicable".

Bond Final Price means, in respect of a Bond, a quotation (expressed as a percentage of the Bond Notional Amount) obtained from Quotation Dealers in the manner provided below. The Calculation Agent will determine, based on the then current market practice, whether such quotations will include or exclude accrued but unpaid interest and all quotations will be obtained in accordance with this determination. The Calculation Agent will determine the Bond Final Price from the Full Quotations, the Weighted Average Quotation, the Partial Weighted Average Quotation or the Residual Quotation Amount (each as defined below). For the avoidance of doubt, the Bond Final Price, as determined by the Calculation Agent, is based on obtained Quotations, without any obligation by the Calculation Agent to actually realise any sale transaction in relation to such Quotations.

The Calculation Agent will require each Quotation Dealer to provide quotations to the extent reasonably practicable on the relevant day at approximately 11.00 a.m. London time or 11.00 a.m. New York time or 11.00 a.m. in any other leading market where the liquidity of such Bond may be better, as determined by the Calculation Agent, as the case may be. The Calculation Agent may on the First Quotation Day and if applicable, on the Second Quotation Day, acting in a commercially reasonable manner, determine whether to request (i) at least one Full Quotation and/or (ii) several firm bid quotations from Quotation Dealers in order to establish a Weighted Average Quotation.

To such end:

(a) if the Calculation Agent obtains at least one Full Quotation and/or one Weighted Average Quotation on the First Quotation Day, the Bond Final Price will be the highest Quotation of the Full Quotation(s) or Weighted Average Quotation(s) obtained (if any) by the Calculation Agent;

(b) if the Calculation Agent is unable to obtain at least one Full Quotation or to determine a Weighted Average Quotation on the First Quotation Day, the Calculation Agent will attempt to obtain at least one Full Quotation and/or one Weighted Average Quotation on the Second Quotation Day, and the Bond Final Price will be the highest Quotation of the Full Quotation(s) or Weighted Average Quotation(s) obtained (if any) by the Calculation Agent; or

(c) if the Calculation Agent obtains quotations for an aggregate amount lower than the Quotation Amount on the Second Quotation Day, then on the Third Quotation Day it will attempt to obtain several firm bid quotations from Quotation Dealers in order to establish a Partial Weighted Average Quotation in respect of an amount equal to the Residual Quotation Amount. If the Calculation Agent is unable to establish on the Third Quotation Day a Partial Weighted Average Quotation in respect of an amount equal to the Residual Quotation Amount, it will, until obtaining a Partial Weighted Average Quotation in respect of an amount equal to the Residual Quotation Amount, on each Quotation Day during the Auction Period, attempt to obtain several firm bid quotations from Quotation Dealers in order to establish a Partial Weighted Average Quotation in respect of an amount equal to the Residual Quotation Amount. For the avoidance of doubt, once a Partial Weighted Average Quotation is obtained on either the Third Quotation Day or on any Quotation Day in the Auction Period there will be no obligation on the Calculation Agent to seek a further Partial Weighted Average Quotation. The Bond Final Price will then be the weighted average of (i) the firm bid quotations obtained on the Second Quotation Day (if any) and (ii) the Partial Weighted Average Quotation (if any) for the portion equal to the Residual Quotation Amount and (iii) the value determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in a commercially reasonable manner and for the avoidance of doubt this value can be zero for any remaining amount for which no quotation was obtained.

(d) If an exchange has occurred, the determination as to whether one of the events described under paragraphs (a)(1) to (a)(5) above has occurred will be based on a comparison of the terms of the Bond immediately prior to such exchange and the terms of the resulting obligations immediately following such exchange.

(e) Unless Multiple Holder Obligation is specified as not applicable in the related Confirmation, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, the occurrence of, agreement to or announcement of any of the events described in paragraphs (a)(1) to (a)(5) above shall not be a Restructuring unless the Obligation in respect of any such events is a Multiple Holder Obligation.

or only in the case of Increased Cost of Hedging:

AA. deduct:

(i) from the Interest Amount(s) (if any) due under one Note on the Interest Payment Date(s) following the occurrence of the Increased Cost of Hedging, the amount of any new or any increase of, any tax, duty, expense or fee that triggered the occurrence of the Increased Cost of Hedging and that would be incurred by the Hypothetical Investor, in relation to the Intermediate Hypothetical Hedge Positions or Optional Hypothetical Hedge Positions or Hypothetical Hedge Positions hedging the payment obligation of the Issuer under the Notes and such amount to be apportioned pro rata amongst the outstanding Notes (the "Reduction Amount"); provided however that if on an Interest Payment Date on which a Reduction Amount shall be deducted from the Interest Amount, the Reduction Amount in respect of one Note is higher than such Interest Amount due under one Note (prior to the deduction of the Reduction Amount) on such Interest Payment Date, the Interest Amount shall be reduced to zero and the difference between the Reduction Amount and the Interest Amount (prior to the deduction of the Reduction Amount), shall be deducted from the Interest Amount(s) due on one or more of the following Interest Payment Date(s) (if any), and if a Reduction Amount has not been deducted in all or in part after the occurrence of the last Interest Payment Date under the Notes, the remaining Reduction Amount shall be deducted from the Optional Redemption Amount (if any), the Automatic Early Redemption Amount (if any), the Early Redemption Amount (if any) or the Final Redemption Amount whichever comes first (the result of such deduction being floored at zero); or

Upon the occurrence or the likely occurrence, as determined by the Calculation Agent, of any of the following events (each a Disruption Event) in respect of a Valuation Date (the Disrupted Day) and in respect of an ETP Issuer or ETP:

A. Calculation and/or Publication Disruption means the occurrence of an event, beyond the control of a Hypothetical Investor (including in case of any gate, deferral, suspension or other provisions in the ETP Documents permitting the ETP Issuer to delay or refuse subscription and/or redemption orders) which precludes the calculation and/or publication of the official ETP Value by the ETP Issuer (or the ETP advisor or agent generally in charge of calculating such official ETP Value); or

B. ETP Settlement Disruption means a failure by the ETP Issuer to pay in cash the full amount of the redemption proceeds on the date by which the ETP Issuer was scheduled to have paid such amount and which, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, makes it impossible or impracticable for the Calculation Agent to determine the Closing Price, including without limitation due to (a) the restriction on the amount or number of redemptions orders that the ETP Issuer (or the ETP advisor or agent generally in charge of accepting redemption orders) will accept in relation to a single date on which the ETP Issuer normally accepts redemption orders

(a gate), (b) the suspension for any reason of the subscription or redemption orders by the ETP Issuer (or the ETP advisor or agent generally in charge of accepting subscription and redemption orders);

C. ETP Determination Disruption Event means the occurrence of any event (beyond the control of a Hypothetical Investor) other than the events mentioned in "Calculation and/or Publication Disruption" in (A) above or "ETP Settlement Disruption" in (B) above affecting such ETP which, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, makes it impossible or impracticable for the Calculation Agent to determine the Closing Price, the Valuation Date, in respect of the ETP affected by such Disruption Event, shall be postponed to the immediately following Business Day (as specified to be applicable in relation to such Valuation Date in the applicable Final Terms) that is no longer affected by a Disruption Event for such affected ETP.

If a Disruption Event has occurred or is continuing on each of the five scheduled Business Days, following the Scheduled Valuation Date or if no Business Day, that is not affected by a Disruption Event has occurred at the latest on the thirty-fifth calendar day following the Scheduled Valuation Date, then the Calculation Agent may either:

X. (a) determine its good faith estimate of the ETP Value which shall be deemed to be the Closing Price in respect of such Valuation Date provided that if the Calculation Agent decides to make such determination, the Valuation Date shall occur no later than the fourth Business Day before the date of any payment to be made under the Notes on the basis of such determination (except in respect of Uncertificated Nordic Notes for which the determination shall be made pursuant to the provisions below"); or

(ii) only in case of ETP Settlement Disruption,

(a) consider such event as an Early Redemption Event and may decide to pay, in full or in part, the Early Redemption Amount by the delivery of the ETP in lieu of its obligations to pay the Early Redemption Amount in cash; or (b) if Liquidity Modification or ETP Settlement Disruption is continuing on the last Valuation Date and the Calculation Agent did not consider such event as an Early Redemption Event may decide to pay, in full or in part, the Final Redemption Amount by the delivery of the ETP in lieu of its obligations to pay the Final Redemption Amount in cash; or

Y. consider such Disruption Event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

Z. apply one of the following methods:

(a) "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions, or

(b) substitute the ETP affected by such Disruption Event with an ETP having an investment strategy and/or an economic pay-out similar to the investment strategy and/or the economic pay-out of the ETP affected by such Disruption Event (the New ETP) and adjust any relevant terms of the Notes to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Valuation Date or an Averaging Date (postponed as the case may be pursuant to the provisions above) shall occur not later than the fourth Business Day before the date of any payment to be made under the Notes on the basis of determinations made on such Valuation Date or Averaging Date; if a Valuation Date or an Averaging Date (postponed as the case may be pursuant to the provisions above) would fall after the fourth Business Day prior to the date of any payment to be made under the Notes on the basis of determinations made on such Valuation Date or Averaging Date, then that fourth Business Day shall be deemed the Valuation Date or Averaging Date and the Calculation Agent shall make, on that day the determinations described in (B) above at the latest as of the Valuation Time on such fourth Business Day and the good faith estimate of the value of the ETP so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price,

provided however that:

all references to the word "fourth" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System.

For the purposes of this Condition 3.3, Clearing System means the clearing system through which the Notes are cleared and settled, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

B. apply "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" as defined above.

$$PL(t) = (PL(t-1) + Perf(t-1,t) + Fin(t-1,t)) - ReplicationFeeCost(t) - TC(t-1,t)$$

$$IPL(t) = (PL(t-1) + Perf(t-1,t) + Fin(t-1,t)) - ReplicationFeeCost(t)$$

Where:

PL(0) means the initial level of the Portfolio as of Calculation Date (0), as specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if no such level is specified, the Specified Denomination.

ReplicationFeeCost(t) means (PL(t-1) + Perf(t-1,t) + Fin(t-1,t)) x CPC(t-1) x ACT(t-1,t) / TimeBasis

- Otherwise, if Crash Put Costs Calculation is not specified or is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms:

ReplicationFeeCost(t) = 0

Where

If Weight Reset is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and Calculation Date (t) is a Weight Reset Date:

TC (t-1,t) = Sum(k from 1 to TNPC(t-1,t)) (Abs(Q(k,t) - Q(k,t-1) x AdjustmentFactor(k,t,t-1)) x S(k,t) x PortfolioFX(k,t) x TCR(k,t))

Where:

Perf_Component(t-1,t) = Sum(k from 1 to NPC(t-1)) (Q(k,t-1) x (AdjustmentFactor(k,t,t-1) x PortfolioFX(k,t) x S(k,t) - PortfolioFX(k,t-1) x S(k,t-1) x (1 - RepoRate(k,t-1) x Act(t-1,t) / TimeBasis)))

And

And

Fin_ForexStrat(t-1,t) = Sum(k from 1 to NPC(t-1)) (FXRatio(k,t-1) x FXHedgeInd(k) x Q(k,t-1) x PortfolioFX(k,t-1) x S(k,t-1) x (IsFunded(k) x Rate(k,t-1) x Act(t-1,t) / TimeBasis - IsFunded(k) x ERate(k,t-1) x Act(t-1,t) / TimeBasis))

If Excess Return is not specified or is specified as not applicable in the applicable Final Terms:

If Portfolio Ccy Cash Positions Netting is not specified or is specified as not applicable in the Final Terms:

ERate(t-1) = RateLong(t-1)

If Q(k,t-1) ≥ 0 then: ERate(k,t-1) = RateLong(t-1)

If Q(k,t-1) < 0 then:

ERate(k,t-1) = RateShort(t-1)

Only if Portfolio Ccy Cash Positions Netting is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms:

If:

PL(t-1) – Sum(k from 1 to NPC(t-1)) ((FXRatio(k, t-1)) x (1 - FXHedgeInd(k)) x IsFunded(k) x Q(k,t-1) x PortfolioFX(k,t-1) x S(k,t-1)) ≥ 0

then:

ERate(t-1)= RateLong(t-1) and ERate(k, t-1) = RateLong(t-1)

Else:

ERate(t-1) = RateShort(t-1) and ERate(k, t-1) = RateShort(t-1)

Only if Excess Return is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms

If Q(k,t-1) ≥ 0 then

ERate(k,t-1) = RateLong(t-1)

If Q(k,t-1) < 0 then

ERate(k,t-1) = RateShort(t-1)

Each Rate(k,t-1) is determined in accordance with the following:

If Q(k,t-1) ≥ 0 then: Rate(k,t-1) = RateShort(k,t-1)

If Q(k,t-1) < 0 then: Rate(k,t-1) = RateLong(k,t-1)

2.4 Computation of the quantities Q(k,t)

For each Calculation Date (t) and Portfolio Component (k), and subject to any adjustment determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to a Portfolio Extraordinary Event or a Portfolio Disruption Event Q(k,t) shall be determined in accordance with the following formula:

- If Weight Reset is specified as applicable and Calculation Date (t) is a Weight Reset Date :

Where: ResetLag means the maximum between (i) 0 (zero) and (ii) the Reset Lag.

- Otherwise

Q(k,t) = Q(k,t-1) x AdjustmentFactor(k,t,t-1) x ReweightFactor(k,t)

Where:

unless specified otherwise in the applicable Final Terms:

Q(k,0) = PL(0) × InitialWeight(k) / (S(k,0) × PortfolioFX(k,0))

And

ReweightFactor(k,t) is determined as follows on each Calculation Date (t) and in respect of each Portfolio Component (k):

If Q(k,t-1) ≥ 0 then

ReweightFactor(k,t) = ReweightFactorLong(t)

If Q(k,t-1) < 0 then

ReweightFactor(k,t) = ReweightFactorShort(t)

ReweightFactorLong(t) is determined as follows on each Calculation Date (t):

If:

EffectiveGearingLong(t-Lag) > GearingSupLong

Or if:

EffectiveGearingLong(t-Lag) < GearingInfLong

Or if:

t is a Restriking Date

Or if:

Simultaneous Long and Short Restrikes is specified as Applicable in the applicable Final Terms

And:

Either :

EffectiveGearingShort(t-Lag) > GearingSupShort

Or :

EffectiveGearingShort(t-Lag) < GearingInfShort

Or :

EffectiveGearingLong(t-Lag) + EffectiveGearingShort(t-Lag) > GrossGearingSup

Then:

ReweightFactorLong(t) = TargetGearingLong(t) x 2 x (PL(t-1) + Perf(t-1,t) + Fin(t-1,t)) / (Sum(k from 1 to NPC(t-Lag)) ((Abs(Q(k,t-1)) + Q(k,t-1)) x AdjustmentFactor(k,t,t-1) x S(k,t) x PortfolioFX(k,t))

Else:

ReweightFactorLong(t)=1

For the avoidance of doubt, if neither GearingInfLong nor GearingSupLong nor Simultaneous Long and Short Restrikes is specified in the applicable Final Terms, then ReweightFactorLong(t) shall always be set to 1.

ReweightFactorShort(t) is determined as follows on each Calculation Date (t):

If:

EffectiveGearingShort(t-Lag) > GearingSupShort

Or if:

EffectiveGearingShort(t-Lag) < GearingInfShort

Or if:

t is a Restriking Date

Or if:

Simultaneous Long and Short Restrikes is specified as Applicable in the applicable Final Terms

And:

Either:

EffectiveGearingLong(t-Lag) > GearingSupLong

Or:

EffectiveGearingLong(t-Lag) < GearingInfLong

Or:

EffectiveGearingLong(t-Lag) + EffectiveGearingShort(t-Lag) > GrossGearingSup

Then:

ReweightFactorShort(t) = TargetGearingShort(t) x 2 x (PL(t-1) + Perf(t-1,t) + Fin(t-1,t)) / (Sum(k from 1 to NPC(t-Lag)) ((Abs(Q(k,t-1)) - Q(k,t-1)) x AdjustmentFactor(k,t,t-1) x S(k,t) x PortfolioFX(k,t))

Else:

(Sum(k from 1 to NPC(t-Lag)) ((Abs(Q(k,t-Lag)) - Q(k,t-Lag)) x S(k,t- Lag) x PortfolioFX(k,t-Lag)) / (2 x PL(t-Lag))

AdjustmentFactor(k,t,t') and DivBucket(t,t') are determined in accordance with the following on each Calculation Date (t), Calculation Date (t') and in respect of each Portfolio Component (k):

If Reinvestment Method is set to Individual Components or if no Reinvestment Method is specified in the applicable Final Terms:

AdjustmentFactorDaily(k,t) = 1 + (Sum(j from 1 to NPC(t-1)) (0.5*(Abs(Q(j,t-1)) + Sign(Q(k,t-1)) x Q(j,t-1)) x PortfolioFX(j,t-1) x DistRate(j,t) x PortfolioDist(j,t))) / (Sum(j from 1 to NPC(t-1)) (0.5*(Abs(Q(j,t-1)) + Sign(Q(k,t-1)) x Q(j,t-1)) x PortfolioFX(j,t-1) x S(j,t-1)))

And DivBucket(t,t') = 0

If Reinvestment Method is set to Cash Bucket in the applicable Final Terms:

AdjustmentFactor(k,t,t') = 1

And

If t=t':

DivBucket(t,t') = 0

Else:

DivBucket(t,t') = Sum(k from 1 to NPC(t-1)) ((Sum(ti from t'+1 to t)) (DistRate(k,ti) x PortfolioDist(k, ti) x Q(k, ti-1) x PortfolioFX(k, ti-1)))

If there are one or more Modification Proposal(s) affecting Portfolio Component (k) with a Rebalancing Date on Calculation Date (t):

Unless communicated by the Weighting Advisor in accordance with Condition 3.3, Q(k,t) is determined according with the below formula:

3.6 Changing the target exposures

3.6.1 The Weighting Advisor may on each Review Date propose to the Calculation Agent a modification to the target gearing percentages of the exposures.

The Weighting Advisor will be entitled to make modification proposals in relation to:

(i) the value of TargetGearingLong;

(ii) the value of TargetGearingShort;

(each a Target Exposure Modification Proposal, together the Target Exposure Modification Proposals) in accordance with the procedure described in Condition 3.7 (the Change in Target Gearings Procedure). It is understood that neither the Issuer nor the Calculation Agent will influence a Target Exposure Modification Proposal.

In addition, when submitting a Target Exposure Modification Proposal, the Weighting Advisor shall provide (i) all necessary details required to implement such Target Exposure Modification Proposal and (ii) the Target Exposure Modification Trigger(s) applicable to such Target Exposure Modification Proposal.

3.6.2 Under normal market conditions, the Calculation Agent shall implement the Target Exposure Modification Proposals relating to the Portfolio unless the Calculation Agent determines:

(i) the proposed Target Exposure Modification would breach or cause a breach of any provision of the Weighting Advisory Agreement, any applicable law, regulations or risk or compliance guidelines and policy of the Issuer or the Calculation Agent; or

(ii) the Weighting Advisor fails to comply with the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes; or

(iii) the information provided by the Weighting Advisor in relation to a proposed Target Exposure Modification is incomplete, in particular it does not include parameters which are necessary to implement the proposed Target Exposure Modification, including but not limited to the applicable Target Exposure Modification Trigger; or

(iv) the Issuer's or any of its affiliate's ability to hedge its exposure under the Notes would be materially affected by the implementation of the Target Exposure Modification Proposal; or

(v) a case of Force Majeure Event affecting the Notes, the Issuer, the Calculation Agent or the Weighting Advisor has occurred and is continuing.

Unless a Target Exposure Modification Proposal has been rejected by the Calculation Agent on the basis of one or more of the above grounds, the Calculation Agent shall then implement such Target Exposure Modification Proposal in accordance with the Change in Target Gearings Procedure without any liability of the Calculation Agent in relation to the opportunity of such Target Exposure Modification Proposal.

The following information shall be made available by the Calculation Agent on the Portfolio Publication Website:

- the values of the TargetGearingLong and TargetGearingShort; and

- the detail of each Target Exposure Modification Proposal including the applicable Target Exposure Modification Trigger.

3.7 Change in Target Gearings Procedure

Subject to the provision of Condition 3.6.2 above, the Calculation Agent shall on each Target Exposure Implementation Date make the Target Exposure Modification Proposal(s) to the Portfolio requested by the Weighting Advisor, provided the relevant request was received before the Communication Deadline on the Review Date. Any request received on a Review Date after the Communication Deadline shall be deemed to be received on the immediately subsequent Review Date.

3.8 Effect of Termination of Weighting Advisory Agreement

If the Weighting Advisory Agreement is terminated prior to the Maturity Date (or, in case of open-ended Notes, the last Optional Redemption Date), the Calculation Agent may:

(i) consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid, an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of the Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Condition (such paragraph (i) shall not apply to Notes to be listed on the Italian Exchange (Borsa Italiana S.p.A.));
(ii) apply "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions; or name a substitute Weighting Advisor (the "Substitute Weighting Advisor"), suitable to the Calculation Agent, that will take over the obligations of the existing Weighting Advisor, as soon as possible after the occurrence of the Termination of the Weighting Advisory Agreement and no later than one month after the Termination of the Weighting Advisory Agreement. If the substitute Weighting Advisory Agreement is not signed at the same time as the Weighting Advisory Agreement is terminated, the Portfolio Components will keep the same weightings as those on the date of Termination of the Weighting Advisory Agreement. If no such Substitute Weighting Advisor is named up to one month after the Termination of the Weighting Advisory Agreement, the Calculation Agent may apply either (i) or (ii) above.

4. CONSEQUENCES OF DISRUPTED DAYS

If any Valuation Date or Averaging Date specified in the applicable Final Terms (the Scheduled Valuation Date or the Scheduled Averaging Date) is a Disrupted Day for a Portfolio, the Calculation Agent shall determine that the Valuation Date or Averaging Date for such Portfolio shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Calculation Date that is not a Disrupted Day in respect of that Portfolio, unless each of the eight Scheduled Calculation Dates immediately following the Scheduled Valuation Date or Averaging Date is a Disrupted Day. In that case:

A. the eighth Scheduled Calculation Date shall be deemed to be the Valuation Date or Averaging Date for the Portfolio. If a Scheduled Averaging Date is a Disrupted Day, the Averaging Date shall be postponed pursuant to the provisions above to the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day provided it is not also a Scheduled Averaging Date; if on the eighth Scheduled Calculation Day following the Scheduled Averaging Date, a Scheduled Valuation Day that is not a Disrupted Day nor another Scheduled Averaging Date has not occurred, then that eighth Scheduled Valuation Day shall be deemed the Averaging Date (irrespective of whether that eighth Scheduled Calculation Day is also a Scheduled Averaging Date) or is a Disrupted Day and the Calculation Agent shall make on that day the determinations described in (B) below, and the good faith estimate of the level of the Portfolio so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price,

B. the Calculation Agent shall determine, its good faith estimate of the level of the Portfolio as of the Valuation Time on that eighth Scheduled Calculation Day and the good faith estimate of the level of the Portfolio so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price.

Provided however that,

(i) if any Valuation Date or Averaging Date is postponed as the case may be pursuant to the provisions above, the Calculation Agent shall determine to apply any of the following methods:

A. notwithstanding the foregoing, determine that the fourth Business Day before the date of any payment be deemed the Valuation Date or Averaging Date and the Calculation Agent shall determine the good faith estimate of the level of the Portfolio so calculated and the good faith estimate of the value or level of the Portfolio so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price and in that case, the payment date shall not be postponed; or

B. postpone any payment date related to such Averaging Date or Valuation Date (including, if applicable, the Maturity Date) until the fourth Business Day following the day the determinations described in (B) above or at the latest on the fourth Business Day following the date on which a Disruption Day is no longer subsisting. No interest or other amount shall be paid by the Issuer in respect of such postponement;

(ii) if the Portfolio is included in a Basket, the above provisions shall apply only to the Portfolio affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day and the Valuation Date or the Averaging Date for each Portfolio not affected by a Disrupted Day shall be the Scheduled Valuation Date or the Scheduled Averaging Date; and

(iii) all references to the word "fourth" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System.

For the purposes of this Condition 4, Clearing System means the clearing system through which the Notes are cleared and settled, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

5. ADJUSTMENTS, EVENTS, MONETISATION UNTIL THE MATURITY DATE, HEDGING DISRUPTION, INCREASED COST OF HEDGING, INCREASED COST OF BORROW, LOSS OF BORROW, CHANGE IN LAW CHINA CONNECT SHARE DISQUALIFICATION, CHINA CONNECT SERVICE TERMINATION, HOLDING LIMIT EVENTS AND CONSEQUENCES

5.1 Stop-Loss Event relating to a Portfolio

If, on any Calculation Date after the initial Valuation Date (excluded) and before the last Valuation Date (included), the Portfolio Level of a Portfolio is affected by a decrease of 80 per cent. or more of its Portfolio Level on the initial Valuation Date (the Affected Portfolio and the event, the Stop-Loss Event), then the Calculation Agent may decide to:
A. consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of the Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions (but such paragraph A. shall not apply to Notes to be listed on the Italian Stock Exchange (Borsa Italiana S.p.A.));

B. continue the Notes according to their terms.

5.2 Hedging Disruption, Increased Cost of Hedging, Increased Cost of Borrow, Loss of Borrow and consequences

Hedging Disruption means, in respect of Notes that have one or more Portfolio(s) as Underlying(s) that Societe Generale or any of its affiliates is unable, after using commercially reasonable efforts, to either (a) acquire, establish, re-establish, substitute, maintain, unwind or dispose of any transaction(s) or asset(s) it deems necessary to hedge the price risk of entering into and performing its obligations with respect to the Notes or the agreement entered into with Societe Generale or any of its affiliates by the Issuer in relation to the Notes; or (b) freely realize, recover, receive, repatriate, remit or transfer the proceeds of Hedge Positions as the case may be between accounts within the jurisdiction of the Hedge Positions (the Affected Jurisdiction) or from accounts within the Affected Jurisdiction to accounts outside of the Affected Jurisdiction.

In addition, for Shares traded through the China Connect Service, the definition of Hedging Disruption is completed by adding:

For the avoidance of doubt, "using commercially reasonable efforts" to hedge the risks with respect to the transaction(s) referred to in Hedging Disruption does not include the use of any quota granted to Societe Generale or its Affiliates under the Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor (QFII) and Renminbi Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor (RQFII) regimes.

Increased Cost of Hedging means, in respect of Notes that have one or more Portfolio(s) as Underlying(s), that Societe Generale or any of its affiliates would incur a materially increased (as compared with circumstances existing on the date(s) on which Societe Generale or any of its affiliates enters into the Hedge Positions in respect of the Notes) amount of tax, duty, expense or fee (other than brokerage commissions) or costs specified in these Additional Terms and Conditions, and the applicable Final Terms to (a) acquire, establish, re-establish, substitute, maintain, unwind or dispose of any transaction(s) or asset(s) it deems necessary to hedge the equity price risk of entering into and performing its obligations with respect to the Notes or any agreement entered into with Societe Generale or any of its affiliates by the Issuer with respect to the Notes or (b) freely realize, recover or remit the proceeds of its Hedge Positions.

Increased Cost of Borrow means, in respect of Notes that have one or more Portfolio(s) as Underlying(s), that Societe Generale or any of its affiliates would incur a materially increased (as compared with circumstances existing on the date(s) on which Societe Generale or any of its affiliates enters into the Hedge Positions in respect of the Notes) rate to borrow hedging instruments in respect of the Notes.

Loss of Borrow means, in respect of Notes that have one or more Portfolio(s) as Underlying(s), that Societe Generale or any of its affiliates is unable, after using commercially reasonable efforts, to borrow (or maintain a borrowing of) hedging instruments with respect to the Notes in an amount it deems necessary to hedge the equity price risk of entering into and performing its obligations with respect to the Notes or any agreement entered into with Societe Generale or any of its affiliates by the Issuer with respect to the Notes.

In case of the occurrence of a Hedging Disruption, an Increased Cost of Hedging, an Increased Cost of Borrow or a Loss of Borrow relating to a Portfolio (the Affected Underlying), the Calculation Agent may:

A. consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of the Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions (such paragraph (i) shall not apply to Notes to be listed on the Italian Exchange (Borsa Italiana S.p.A.));
B. apply the "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions, or; but only in the case of Increased Cost of Hedging; or

C. replace the Affected Underlying by a Similar Portfolio provided that when doing so, the Calculation Agent will make any relevant adjustment it determines appropriate to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes (subject to any taxes to be withhold or paid). In particular, the Calculation Agent may but shall be under no obligation to remove the Portfolio Component triggering the Hedging Disruption, Increased Cost of Hedging, Increased Cost of Borrow or Loss of Borrow and reinvest its proceeds into the other Portfolio Components,

and:
deduct:

(i) from the Interest Amount(s) (if any) due under one Note on the Interest Payment Date(s) following the occurrence of the Increased Cost of Hedging, the amount of any new or any increase of, any tax, duty, expense or fee that triggered the occurrence of the Increased Cost of Hedging incurred by Societe Generale or any of its affiliates, in relation to the Hedge Positions hedging the payment obligation of the Issuer under the Notes and such amount to be apportioned pro rata amongst the outstanding Notes (the "Reduction Amount"); provided however that if on an Interest Payment Date on which a Reduction Amount shall be deducted from the Interest Amount, the Reduction Amount in respect of one Note is higher than such Interest Amount due under one Note (prior to the deduction of the Reduction Amount) on such Interest Payment Date, the Interest Amount shall be reduced to zero and the difference between the Reduction Amount and the Interest Amount (prior to the deduction of the Reduction Amount), shall be deducted from the Interest Amount(s) due on one or more of the following Interest Payment Date(s) (if any), and if a Reduction Amount has not been deducted in all or in part after the occurrence of the last Interest Payment Date under the Notes, the remaining Reduction Amount shall be deducted from the Optional Redemption Amount (if any), the Automatic Early Redemption Amount (if any), the Early Redemption Amount (if any) or the Final Redemption Amount whichever comes first (the result of such deduction being floored at zero); or

(ii) in the absence of any Interest Amount in respect of the Notes, (a) from the Optional Redemption Amount (if any), the Automatic Early Redemption Amount (if any) or the Early Redemption Amount (if any) due under one Note on the Optional Redemption Date (if any), the Automatic Early Redemption Date (if any) or the payment date of the Early Redemption Amount (if any), whichever comes first, and (b) in the absence of any Optional Redemption Amount, Automatic Early Redemption Amount and Early Redemption Amount in respect of the Notes, from the Final Redemption Amount due under one Note on the Maturity Date, in each case after the occurrence of the Increased Cost of Hedging, the Reduction Amount (the result of such deduction being floored at zero).

Subparagraph A shall not apply to Notes to be listed on the Italian Stock Exchange (Borsa Italiana S.p.A.).

5.3 Change in Law and consequences

Change in Law means, with respect to Notes that have one or more Portfolio(s) as Underlying(s) that, on or after the first to occur of (a) the Issue Date and (b) the first Valuation Date of the Notes, due to :
(i) the change of any applicable law, regulation or rule existing on the Issue Date of the Notes;
(ii) the change in the interpretation of any applicable law, regulation or rule existing on the Issue Date of the Notes, by any court, tribunal, or regulatory authority or any other entity exercising executive, legislative, judicial, taxing, regulatory or administrative powers or functions of or pertaining to government including any additional or alternative court, tribunal, authority or entity (the "Relevant Authority/ies") or the implementation or application by the Relevant Authority(ies), of any applicable law, regulation or rule existing on the Issue Date of the Notes but in respect of which the manner of its implementation or application by the Relevant Authority(ies) was not known or unclear on the Issue Date,
(iii) the adoption, enactment, promulgation, execution or ratification of any applicable new law, regulation or rule,
(in each case including, without limitation, in relation to any existing or new law, regulation rule in respect of tax, solvency or capital requirements and, with respect to a Component Security only, any regulation, rule or procedure of any Exchange on which any Component Security is traded)

The Calculation Agent determines in good faith that ;
(a) (X) in respect of Underlyings, Component Security, Bonds or Reference Entities negotiated or located in AEJ Closed Markets, it will, or there is a substantial likelihood that it will, within the next 30 calendar days, but before the Maturity Date of the Note, become, or it has become illegal; and or
(Y) in respect of any other Underlying, it will or there is a substantial likelihood that it will, or it has become illegal, for Societe Generale or any of its affiliates or by a Hypothetical Investor, to hold, acquire, dispose of the Hedge Positions relating to the Notes or to maintain the agreement entered into with Societe Generale or any of its affiliates by the Issuer of the Notes relating to the Underlying and/or a Component Security and/or Reference Entity(ies) and/or Bond(s).; or

Where:

AEJ Closed Markets means People's Republic of China, India, Indonesia, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, Philippines, Taiwan, Thailand, Vietnam.

Upon the occurrence, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, on or prior to the last Valuation Date or the last Averaging Date of a Change in Law, the Calculation Agent will decide to:
A. consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid, an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of the Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions; or (such paragraph (i) shall not apply to Notes to be listed on the Italian Exchange (Borsa Italiana S.p.A.));
B. replace the Affected Underlying by a Similar Portfolio provided that when doing so, the Calculation Agent will make any relevant adjustment it determines appropriate to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes (subject to any taxes to be withhold or paid). In particular, the Calculation Agent may but shall be under no obligation to remove the Portfolio Component triggering the Change in Law and reinvest its proceeds into the other Portfolio Components; or

C. apply the "Monetisation until the Maturity Date " as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions.

5.4 China Connect Share Disqualification and China Connect Service Termination and consequences

In respect of Shares traded through the China Connect Service, the following paragraphs apply:

China Connect Share Disqualification means, on or after the Issue Date, the Shares cease to be accepted as "China Connect Securities" (as defined in the rules of the exchange of SEHK) for the purpose of the China Connect Service;

China Connect Service Termination means, on or after the Issue Date, the announcement by one or more of the Exchange, SEHK, the CSDCC, HKSCC or any regulatory authority with competent jurisdiction of a suspension or termination of the China Connect Service or a part thereof for any reason which materially affects the routing of orders in respect of, or holding of, the Shares through the China Connect Service and the Calculation Agent determines that there is a reasonable likelihood that such suspension or termination is not, or will not be, temporary, then upon the occurrence of such events, the Calculation Agent may elect, while China Connect Share Disqualification or China Connect Service Termination is continuing, to terminate the transaction(s), upon at least two Scheduled Trading Days' notice specifying the date of such termination, in which event the Calculation Agent will apply the Early Redemption.

5.5 Holding Limit Event

In case of the occurrence of a Holding Limit Event relating to a Portfolio Component (the Affected Underlying), the Calculation Agent may:
A. consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of the Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions (such paragraph (i) shall not apply to Notes to be listed on the Italian Exchange (Borsa Italiana S.p.A.));
B. apply the "Monetisation until the Maturity Date " as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

C. replace the Affected Underlying by a Similar Portfolio Component provided that when doing so, the Calculation Agent will make any relevant adjustment it determines appropriate to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes (subject to any taxes to be withhold or paid). In particular, the Calculation Agent may but shall be under no obligation to remove the Portfolio Component triggering the Holding Limit Event and reinvest its proceeds into the other Portfolio Components.

6. PORTFOLIO DISRUPTION EVENTS

6.1 Consequences of a Portfolio Disruption Event

For the purposes of this Condition:

Portfolio Disruption Event means a Basket Component Disruption Event or a Market Data Disruption Event, both as determined by the Calculation Agent.

Basket Component Disruption Event means an Equity Instrument Disruption Event, a Commodity Instrument Disruption Event, a Debt Instrument Disruption Event or a Derivatives Instrument Disruption Event.

If a Portfolio Disruption Event occurs on a Scheduled Calculation Date (a Disrupted Day), then the Calculation Agent shall not calculate the Portfolio Level on such Disrupted Day and the next Calculation Date for all Portfolio Components shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Calculation Date that is not a Disrupted Day for any Portfolio Component as determined by the Calculation Agent, unless each of the eight Scheduled Calculation Dates immediately following the initial Disrupted Day is also a Disrupted Day for any Portfolio Component, in which case:

(i) the eighth Scheduled Calculation Date following the initial Disrupted Day, and each Scheduled Calculation Date that is a Disrupted Day thereafter, shall be deemed to be a Calculation Date (each, a Disrupted Calculation Date), notwithstanding the existence of a Portfolio Disruption Event on such date and only for the purpose of determining the Portfolio Level; and

(ii) on each Disrupted Calculation Date, the Calculation Agent shall calculate the Portfolio Level in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating the Portfolio Level as set out in these Conditions provided that:

(a) if the Portfolio Disruption Event is a Basket Component Disruption Event in relation to one or more of the Basket Component(s) only (such Basket Component(s) the Affected Basket Component(s)):

(x) the level or price of the Affected Basket Component(s) shall be calculated using the level or price of such Affected Basket Component(s) last in effect prior to the occurrence of the relevant Basket Component Disruption Event; and
(y) the level of each of the Market Data as described in the definition of such Market Data on the relevant date(s) of determination shall be calculated as if no Portfolio Disruption Event existed;

(b) if the Portfolio Disruption Event is a Market Data Disruption Event in relation to one or more of the Market Data only (such Market Data the Affected Market Data):

(x) the level or price of each Basket Component as described in the definition of such Basket Component(s), on the relevant date(s) of determination shall be calculated as if no Portfolio Disruption Event existed; and
(y) the level of the Affected Market Data shall be determined in good faith using relevant market indicators on the relevant date(s) of determination; or

(c) if the Portfolio Disruption Event comprises both a Basket Component Disruption Event as well as a Market Data Disruption Event:

(x) the level or price of the Affected Basket Component(s) shall be calculated using the level or price of such Affected Basket Component last in effect prior to the occurrence of the relevant Basket Component Disruption Event; and
(y) the level of the Affected Market Data shall be determined in good faith using relevant market indicators on the relevant date(s) of determination.

For the avoidance of doubt, for the purpose of this Condition 6.1, any Portfolio Component(s) that are neither an Affected Basket Component, nor an Affected Market Data will be valued as of the Disrupted Calculation Date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Portfolio Disruption Event is continuing on any day falling on or after the first Disrupted Calculation Date, then the Calculation Agent may:

(a) apply "Monetisation until the Maturity Date" as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions; or Relevant Jurisdiction means, in respect of a Share, a Depositary Receipt or an Index, the relevant authorities in the jurisdiction of incorporation or organisation of the issuer of any component security.

2. CONSEQUENCES OF DISRUPTED DAYS

If any Valuation Date or Averaging Date specified in the applicable Final Terms (the Scheduled Valuation Date and the Scheduled Averaging Date respectively) is a Disrupted Day for a Share, a Depositary Receipt or an Index, the Calculation Agent shall:

determine that the Valuation Date or the Averaging Date for such Share, Depositary Receipt or Index shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day in respect of that Share, Depositary Receipt or Index, unless each of the eight Scheduled Trading Days immediately following the Scheduled Valuation Date or the Scheduled Averaging Date is also a Disrupted Day. In that case:

A. that eighth Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the Valuation Date or Averaging Date, for the Share, Depositary Receipt or Index. If a Scheduled Averaging Date is a Disrupted Day, the Averaging Date shall be postponed pursuant to the provisions above to the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day provided it is not also a Scheduled Averaging Date; if on the eighth Scheduled Trading Day following the Scheduled Averaging Date, a Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day nor another Scheduled Averaging Date has not occurred, then that eighth Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed the Averaging Date (irrespective of whether that eighth Scheduled Trading Day is also a Scheduled Averaging Date) or is a Disrupted Day and the Calculation Agent shall make on that day the determinations described in (B) below, and the good faith estimate of the value or level of the Share, Depositary Receipt or Index so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price,

B. the Calculation Agent shall determine, its good faith estimate of the value or level of the Share, Depositary Receipt or Index as of the Valuation Time on that eighth Scheduled Trading Day and the good faith estimate of the value or level of the Share, Depositary Receipt or Index so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price. In case of an Index, such determination by the Calculation Agent shall be made in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating the level of that Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of the first Disrupted Day using the Exchange traded or quoted price as of the Valuation Time on that eighth Scheduled Trading Day of each security or other component comprised in the Index (or if an event giving rise to a Disrupted Day has occurred in respect of the relevant security or other component on that eighth Scheduled Trading Day, its good faith estimate of the value of the relevant security or other component as of the Valuation Time on that eighth Scheduled Trading Day);

Provided however that,
(i) if any Valuation Date or Averaging Date is postponed as the case may be pursuant to the provisions above, the Calculation Agent shall determine to apply any of the following methods:

A. notwithstanding the foregoing, determine that the fourth Business Day before the date of any payment be deemed the Valuation Date or Averaging Date and the Calculation Agent shall determine the good faith estimate of the value or level of the Share, Depositary Receipt or Index and the good faith estimate of the value or level of the Share, Depositary Receipt or Index so calculated shall be deemed the Closing Price and in that case, the payment date shall not be postponed; or

B. postpone any payment date related to such Averaging Date or Valuation Date (including, if applicable, the Maturity Date) until the fourth Business Day following the day the determinations described in (B) above or at the latest on the fourth Business Day following the date on which a Disruption Day is no longer subsisting. No interest or other amount shall be paid by the Issuer in respect of such postponement;

(ii) if the Share, Depositary Receipt or Index is included in a Basket, the above provisions shall apply only to the Share, Depositary Receipt or Index affected by the occurrence of a Disrupted Day and the Valuation Date or the Averaging Date for each Share, Depositary Receipt or Index not affected by a Disrupted Day shall be the Scheduled Valuation Date or the Scheduled Averaging Date; and

3. ADJUSTMENTS AND EVENTS IN RELATION TO A SHARE OR A DEPOSITARY RECEIPT – CHANGE IN LAW, HEDGING DISRUPTION, HOLDING LIMIT EVENT, INCREASED COST OF HEDGING, INSOLVENCY FILING AND CONSEQUENCES, CHINA CONNECT SERVICE SHARE DISQUALIFICATION, CHINA CONNECT SERVICE TERMINATION AND CONSEQUENCES

3.1 Adjustment Events and extraordinary events

3.1.1 Potential Adjustment Events relating to Shares or Depositary Receipts

Potential Adjustment Event means, in relation to a Share or a Depositary Receipt, any of the following:

A. a subdivision, consolidation or reclassification of such Share or Deposited Securities (unless resulting in a Merger Event), including, for the avoidance of doubt, a stock split or reverse stock split, or a free distribution or dividend of any such Shares or Deposited Securities to existing holders by way of bonus, capitalisation or similar issue;

B. a distribution, issue or dividend to existing holders of (a) such Shares or Deposited Securities, (b) other share capital or securities granting the right to payment of dividends and/or the proceeds of liquidation of the Company equally or proportionately with such payments to holders of such Shares or Deposited Securities, (c) share capital, other securities of another issuer acquired or owned (directly or indirectly) by the Company as a result of a spin-off or other similar transaction, or (d) any other type of securities, rights or warrants or other assets, in any case for payment (in cash or otherwise) at less than the prevailing market price as determined by the Calculation Agent;

C. an extraordinary dividend as determined by the Calculation Agent;

D. a call by the Company in respect of Shares or Deposited Securities that are not fully paid;

E. a repurchase by the Company or any of its subsidiaries of Shares or Deposited Securities whether out of profits or capital and whether the consideration for such repurchase is cash, securities or otherwise;

F. an event that results in any shareholder rights being distributed or becoming separated from shares of common stock or other shares of the capital stock of the Company pursuant to a shareholder rights plan or arrangement directed against hostile takeovers that provides upon the occurrence of certain events for a distribution of preferred stock, warrants, debt instruments or stock rights at a price below their market value, as determined by the Calculation Agent provided that any adjustment effected as a result of such an event shall be readjusted upon any redemption of such rights; or

G. any other event having, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the Shares or the Depositary Receipt.

If a Potential Adjustment Event (as defined in this Condition 3.1.1) occurs affecting the Share or Depositary Receipts (the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipts) the dividend of which is used to determine the amounts due under Notes indexed on Dividends, then the Calculation Agent will, subject to the provisions of the last paragraph of the definition of "Dividend" in Condition 1 above, adjust any terms of the Notes, it determines appropriate, in order to take into account the economic effect on the Notes of such event.

Subject as described in the paragraph above, following the occurrence of any Potential Adjustment Event as defined above, the Calculation Agent will, as soon as reasonably practicable after it becomes aware of such event determine whether such Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect:

(i) on the theoretical value of the Share and, if so, will (a) calculate the corresponding adjustment, if any, to be made to the elements relating to the relevant Share used to determine any settlement or payment terms under the Notes and/or adjust any other terms of the Notes as it determines appropriate to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes and (b) determine the effective date of that adjustment; or

(ii) on the Deposited Securities that affects the theoretical value of the Depositary Receipts, provided that an event that has a diluting or concentrative effect on the Deposited Securities will affect the theoretical value of the Depositary Receipts unless (and to the extent that) the Company or the Depositary, pursuant to its authority (if any) under the Deposit Agreement, elects to adjust the number of the Deposited Securities that are represented by each Depositary Receipt such that the price of the Depositary Receipts will not be affected by any such event (as determined by the Calculation Agent), in which case the Calculation Agent will make no adjustment. If the Company or the Depositary elects not to adjust the number of Deposited Securities that are represented by a Depositary Receipt or makes an adjustment that the Calculation Agent determines not to have been adequate, then the Calculation Agent may make the necessary adjustment to the elements relating to the Depositary Receipt used to determine any settlement or payment terms under the Notes and/or any other terms of the Notes as it determines appropriate to preserve the economic equivalent of the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes (subject to any Local Taxes to be withhold or paid) and determine the effective date of that adjustment. The Depositary may also have the ability pursuant to the Deposit Agreement to make adjustments in respect of the Depositary Receipts for share distributions, rights distributions, cash distributions and distributions other than shares, rights and cash. Upon any such adjustment by the Depositary, the Calculation Agent may make the necessary adjustments as the Calculation Agent deems appropriate to account for such event.

In its determinations of the existence and extent of any dilutive or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the Shares or on the Deposited Securities that affects the theoretical value of the Depositary Receipts of any Potential Adjustment Event, and any related adjustments to the terms of the Notes, the Calculation Agent shall take into account (i) any amounts of Local Taxes that would, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, be withheld from or paid or otherwise incurred by an Offshore Investor in connection with such Potential Adjustment Event and, in respect of Shares traded through the China Connect Service only, (ii) any requirement, adjustment and/or limitation that may be imposed by the China Connect Service or any action or inaction by any one or more of the Exchange, SEHK, CSDCC and HKSCC in relation to such Potential Adjustment Event.

The Calculation Agent may (but need not) determine the appropriate adjustment by reference to the adjustment in respect of such Potential Adjustment Event made by a Related Exchange to options on the Share or on the Deposited Securities traded on such Related Exchange.

Definitions applicable to this Condition:

Offshore Investor means a holder of Shares or Deposited Securities who is an institutional investor not resident in the country in which the Company has been incorporated or in which the Exchange, on which the Share (or the Deposited Securities) is (are) listed is located (the Local Jurisdiction), for the purposes of the tax laws and regulations of the Local Jurisdiction and, for the avoidance of doubt, whose jurisdiction of residence (a) shall be determined by the Calculation Agent and (b) may be the jurisdiction of Societe Generale or any of its affiliates.

3.1.2 Extraordinary Events relating to Shares or Depositary Receipts and consequences

A. Upon the occurrence, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, on or prior to the last Valuation Date or the last Averaging Date of the opening of an Offering Period relating to a Merger Event, a De-merger Event, a Tender Offer, a De-listing Event, an Insolvency or a Nationalisation, in respect of (i) the Company or issuance of Shares by the Company, as applicable (an Affected Share) or (ii) a Depositary Receipt (an Affected Depositary Receipt), then during such Offering Period, the Calculation Agent may decide to apply Method of Substitution with respect to the Affected Share or Affected Depositary Receipt as the case may be.

B. If the Calculation Agent decides not to apply Method of Substitution during the Offering Period with respect to the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt, then:

(a) in respect of a Merger Event (or a Tender Offer as the case may be), from the Merger Date (or the Tender Offer Date as the case may be), and/or upon consummation of the Merger Event (or the Tender Offer as the case may be), until the sixtieth Business Day thereafter, the Calculation Agent shall apply in relation to Share-for-Share, Share-for-Other and Share-for-Combined, either:

(x) Calculation Agent Adjustment and/or

(y) Method of Substitution

(b) in the case of a Merger Event affecting two Shares or two Depositary Receipts comprised in a Basket, the Calculation Agent will either:

(x) continue with the share or the Depositary Receipt resulting from the Merger Event and in order to maintain the original number of companies in the Basket, a Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt (as applicable) will be elected and included in the Basket;

(y) substitute both Shares or Depositary Receipts with two Substitute Shares or Substitute Depositary Receipt selected as described in the Method of Substitution;

(c) in respect of a De-merger Event, from the De-merger Date, and/or upon consummation of the De-merger Event, until the sixtieth Business Day thereafter, the Calculation Agent will either:

(x) replace the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt with the shares or depositary receipts of the successor companies;

(y) substitute one or more share(s) or depositary receipt(s) resulting from such De-merger Event pursuant to the Method of Substitution;

it being understood that, in the case of a Basket, the Calculation Agent shall maintain the initial number of companies in the Basket and that in the case where the Calculation Agent has elected to substitute the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt with several shares or depositary receipts resulting from such De-merger Event, such shares or depositary receipts shall be placed in a sub-basket and considered as one component of the Basket;

(d) in respect of a De-listing Event or a Nationalisation, from the effective date of such event, until the sixtieth Business Day thereafter, the Calculation Agent may apply the Method of Substitution;

(e) in respect of an Insolvency, the Calculation Agent will decide either:

(x) that the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt will be substituted pursuant to the Method of Substitution;

(y) that the value of the relevant component in the formula used to determine the amount to be paid or whether a condition has occurred, if any, as described in the applicable Final Terms, representing the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt will be accounted by the Calculation Agent for its fair market value determined at any time as from the date of occurrence of such Insolvency until the last Valuation Date or the last Averaging Date. The determination of the fair market value shall depend upon the liquidity of the market and the trading conditions relating to the Share or the Depositary Receipt affected at the time of calculation;

(f) In each case as set out in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) above, if the Calculation Agent has not (x) applied the adjustment described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) above; or (y) if in the case of paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) above, no share or depositary receipt meets the criteria as set out in the Method of Substitution, then the Calculation Agent may either:

(x) apply Condition 6.5 “Monetisation until the Maturity Date” of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(y) consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes. In that case, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the relevant Notes and pay to each Noteholder, as soon as possible after the occurrence of any of the events described in (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e), an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

C. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Calculation Agent shall use its reasonable endeavours at all times to maintain the original number of companies in the Basket as Companies hereunder.

Definitions applicable to this Condition :

Calculation Agent Adjustment means that, in respect of a Merger Event (or a Tender Offer as the case may be), the Calculation Agent shall, on or after the relevant Merger Date (or the Tender Offer Date as the case may be), (A) make such adjustment to the exercise, settlement, payment or any other terms of the Note as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Note of such Merger Event (or such Tender Offer as the case may be) (provided that no adjustments will be made to account solely for changes in volatility, expected dividends, stock loan rate or liquidity relevant to the Shares or the Depositary Receipt or to the Note), which may, but need not, be determined by reference to the adjustment(s) made in respect of such Merger Event (or such Tender Offer as the case may be) by an options exchange to options on the relevant Shares or Depositary Receipts traded on such options exchange and (B) determine the effective date of that adjustment.

Combined Consideration means New Shares in combination with Other Consideration.

De-listing Event means, in respect of a Share or a Depositary Receipt, that such Share or Depositary Receipt (or Deposited Securities related to such Depositary Receipt): (a) ceases to be listed, traded or publicly quoted on the relevant Exchange or listing compartment of the relevant Exchange (for any reason other than a Merger Event or a Tender Offer) and is not immediately re-listed, re-traded or re-quoted on an exchange or quotation system located in the same country as the Exchange (or where the Exchange is within the European Union, in any Member State of the European Union) or (b) has its listing, trading or public quotation maintained in inappropriate conditions in the opinion of the Calculation Agent (such conditions to include, without limitation, a lack of liquidity or the disappearance of the relevant futures and/or option contract of the relevant Share or Depositary Receipt (or Deposited Securities related to such Depositary Receipt)).

De-merger Event means, in respect of any Share or Depositary Receipt, that the Company relevant to such Share or Depositary Receipt is affected by a de-merger including, without limitation, a spin off, scission or any operation of a similar nature.

De-merger Date means the date on which a De-merger Event becomes effective.

Early Redemption means that there will be an early redemption of the Notes on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

Fixing Period means the period subject to a maximum of ten Exchange Business Days, which shall expire no later than 90 Business Days following the Merger Date, the De-merger Date, the Tender Offer Date or the effective date of the De-listing Event, Nationalisation or Insolvency during which:

A. Societe Generale or any of its affiliates sells the Affected Shares or the Affected Depositary Receipts, the New Shares and/or the Other Consideration, (as the case may be), on the basis of the weighted average of the closing prices of the relevant assets traded by Societe Generale or any of its affiliates with regards to the relevant Notes, as observed during such Fixing Period; and

B. the proceeds of such sale are re-invested in the Substitute Shares, Substitute Depositary Receipt and/or New Shares accordingly during the said Fixing Period on the basis of the weighted average of the closing prices of such Substitute Shares, Substitute Depositary Receipt and/or New Shares traded by Societe Generale or any of its affiliates with regards to the relevant Notes, as observed during such Fixing Period.

Insolvency means, in respect of a Company, voluntary or involuntary liquidation, bankruptcy, insolvency, dissolution or winding-up of, or any analogous proceeding affecting, such Company, as determined by the Calculation Agent.

Merger Date means, in respect of a Share or the Deposited Securities related to a Depositary Receipt, the date upon which holders of the necessary number of the relevant Shares or Deposited Securities (other than, in the case of a takeover offer, Shares or Deposited Securities owned or controlled by the offeror) to constitute a Merger Event have agreed or have irrevocably become obliged to transfer their Shares or Deposited Securities.

Merger Event means, in respect of any Share or Depositary Receipt:

A. any reclassification or change of such Share or Deposited Securities (including the change of currency reference of such Share or Deposited Securities) that results in a transfer of or an irrevocable commitment to transfer all of such outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities to another entity or person;

B. any consolidation, amalgamation, merger or binding share exchange of the relevant Company with or into another entity (other than a consolidation, amalgamation or merger in which such Company is the continuing entity and which does not result in a reclassification or change of all of the outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities):

C. other take-over offer, tender offer, exchange offer, solicitation, proposal or other event by any entity or person to purchase or otherwise obtain one hundred per cent. of the outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities that results in a transfer of or an irrevocable commitment to transfer all or part of such Shares or Deposited Securities (other than any of such Shares or Deposited Securities owned or controlled by the offeror); or

D. any consolidation, amalgamation, merger or binding share exchange of the relevant Company or its subsidiaries with or into another entity in which such Company is the continuing entity and which does not result in a reclassification or change of all of the outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities but results in the outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities (other than Shares or Deposited Securities owned or controlled by such other entity) immediately prior to such event collectively representing less than 50 per cent. of the outstanding Shares or Deposited Securities immediately following such event.

Method of Substitution means that in the case of a Merger Event, De-merger Event, Tender Offer, De-listing Event, Nationalisation or Insolvency (regardless of the consideration to be received), in respect of an Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt, the Calculation Agent may consider that the Affected Share, the Affected Depositary Receipt, the New Shares and/or, all or part of the Other Consideration (as the case may be) is/are converted into cash and that the proceeds will be reinvested either (a) into a new share or a new depositary receipt of the same economic sector or into a share or a depositary receipt issued by a company of a similar international standing or creditworthiness as the Company related to the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt (the Substitute Share or the Substitute Depositary Receipt, as the case may be) or (b) in the case of Combined Consideration into New Shares. In the event of Other Consideration to be received in cash, in the future, the Calculation Agent may consider that the cash to be received in the future is discounted in order to immediately re-invest the proceeds then procured in accordance with (a) and (b) above.

The sale of the Affected Share, the Affected Depositary Receipt, the New Shares and/or the Other Consideration shall be deemed to take place during the Fixing Period. The Substitute Share or the Substitute Depositary Receipt, as the case may be, and the company issuing such Substitute Share or, in the case of a Substitute Depositary Receipt, the company issuing the Deposited Securities will be deemed a Share or a Depositary Receipt and the Company respectively, and the Calculation Agent will adjust any relevant terms of the Notes.

For information purposes, it is understood that in all cases described herein where a Share or a Depositary Receipt is substituted, on any date "t", with a Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt, the value of the relevant component in the formula used to determine the amount to be paid as described in the applicable Final Terms, shall not be affected by the substitution on such date "t" in respect of the Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt and would mean the closing price of such Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt on the relevant Exchange on the date "t" is weighted by an appropriate linking coefficient so that it is equal to the closing price of the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt on such date "t".

Nationalisation means that all the Shares or the Deposited Securities or all or substantially all of the assets of a Company are nationalised, expropriated or are otherwise required to be transferred to any governmental agency, authority, entity or instrumentality thereof.

New Shares means shares or depositary receipts (whether of the offeror or a third party) that are listed or quoted on a recognised exchange involved in the application of Method of Substitution or Calculation Agent Adjustment as determined by the Calculation Agent.

Offering Period means the period from and including the date on which the Tender Offer, the Merger Event, the De-listing Event, the De-merger Event, the Insolvency or the Nationalisation is publicly and officially announced to but excluding the Merger Date or the De-merger Date, the Tender Offer Date or the effective date of the De-listing Event, the Insolvency or the Nationalisation.

Other Consideration means cash and/or any securities (other than New Shares) or assets (whether of the offeror or a third party).

Share-for-Combined means, in respect of a Merger Event or Tender Offer, that the consideration for the relevant Shares or Depositary Receipts consists of Combined Consideration.

Share-for-Other means, in respect of a Merger Event or Tender Offer, that the consideration for the relevant Shares or Depositary Receipts consists solely of Other Consideration.

Share-for-Share means, in respect of a Merger Event or Tender Offer, that the consideration for the relevant Shares or Depositary Receipts consists (or, at the option of the holder of such Shares or Depositary Receipts, may consist) solely of New Shares.

Tender Offer means, in respect of any Share or Depositary Receipt, a take-over offer, tender offer, exchange offer, solicitation, proposal or other event by any entity or person that results in such entity or person purchasing or otherwise obtaining or having the right to obtain, by conversion or other means, greater than ten per cent. and less than one hundred per cent. of the outstanding voting shares of the Company, as determined by the Calculation Agent based upon the making of filings with governmental or self-regulatory agencies or such other information as the Calculation Agent deems relevant.

Tender Offer Date means, in respect of a Share or a Depositary Receipt, the date on which voting shares in the amount of the applicable percentage threshold are actually purchased or otherwise obtained (as determined by the Calculation Agent).

3.1.3 Stop-Loss Event

Unless "Stop-Loss Event" is specified as "Not applicable" in the applicable Final Terms, if on any Exchange Business Day between the initial Valuation Date (excluded) and the last Valuation Date (included), the Closing Price of a Share or a Depositary Receipt is affected by a decrease of 80 per cent. or more of its Closing Price on the initial Valuation Date (the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt and the event, the Stop-Loss Event), then:

A. the Calculation Agent may decide to substitute the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt by a new share or depositary receipt issued by a company of a similar international standing or creditworthiness as the Company related to the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt (the Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt, as the case may be) and will adjust any relevant terms of the Notes accordingly; or

B. the Calculation Agent may decide to continue with the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt; or

C. if the Calculation Agent has neither retained any Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt nor decided to continue with the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt, the Calculation Agent may either:

(a) apply Condition 6.5 “Monetisation until the Maturity Date” of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(b) consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes. In that case, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay to each Noteholder, as soon as possible after the occurrence of the Stop-Loss Event an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

For information purposes, it is understood that in all cases described herein where a Share or a Depositary Receipt is substituted, on any date "t", with a Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt, the value of the relevant component in the formula used to determine the amount to be paid as described in the applicable Final Terms, shall not be affected by the substitution on such date "t" in respect of the Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt and would mean that the closing price of such Substitute Share or Substitute Depositary Receipt on the relevant Exchange on the date "t" is weighted by an appropriate linking coefficient so that it is equal to the closing price of the Affected Share or the Affected Depositary Receipt on such date "t".

In the event that any price or level of a Share or a Depositary Receipt published on the Exchange which is used for any calculation or determination made under the Notes is subsequently corrected and the correction is published and made available to the public by the Exchange after the original publication but no later than four Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (or any payment date(s) determined in the applicable Final Terms), the Calculation Agent will determine the amount that is payable as a result of that correction, and, to the extent necessary, will adjust the terms of the Notes to account for such correction, provided however that, all references to the word "four" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System.

3.2 China Connect Share Disqualification and China Connect Service Termination and consequences

In respect of Shares traded through the China Connect Service, the following paragraphs apply:

China Connect Share Disqualification means, on or after the Issue Date, the Shares cease to be accepted as "China Connect Securities" (as defined in the rules of the exchange of SEHK) for the purpose of the China Connect Service;

China Connect Service Termination means, on or after the Issue Date, the announcement by one or more of the Exchange, SEHK, the CSDCC, HKSCC or any regulatory authority with competent jurisdiction of a suspension or termination of the China Connect Service or a part thereof for any reason which materially affects the routing of orders in respect of, or holding of, the Shares through the China Connect Service and the Calculation Agent determines that there is a reasonable likelihood that such suspension or termination is not, or will not be, temporary, then upon the occurrence of such events, the Calculation Agent may elect, while China Connect Share Disqualification or China Connect Service Termination is continuing, to terminate the transaction(s) upon at least two Scheduled Trading Days' notice specifying the date of such termination, in which event the Calculation Agent will consider this event as an event triggering the early redemption of the Notes (hereafter an “Early Redemption Event”). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay or deliver, as the case may be, as soon as possible after the occurrence of the Early Redemption Event, an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

4. ADJUSTMENTS AND EVENTS IN RELATION TO AN INDEX – CHANGE IN LAW, HEDGING DISRUPTION, HOLDING LIMIT EVENT, INCREASED COST OF HEDGING, AND CONSEQUENCES

4.1 Adjustments in relation to an Index

A. If an Index is:

(a) not calculated and announced by the relevant Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent as the case may be, but is calculated and announced by a successor sponsor (the Successor Index Sponsor) or a successor calculation agent (the Successor Index Calculation Agent)), in each case acceptable to the Calculation Agent; or

(b) replaced by a successor index (the Successor Index) using, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, the same or a substantially similar formula for, and method of, calculation as used in the calculation of that Index;

then the Index will be deemed to be the index so calculated and announced by the relevant Successor Index Sponsor or Successor Index Calculation Agent or that Successor Index (as the case may be).

B. If, in the determination of the Calculation Agent:

(a) on or prior to a Valuation Date or an Averaging Date, the relevant Index Sponsor (or if applicable the Successor Index Sponsor) makes a material change in the formula for, or the method of calculating, that Index or in any other way materially modifies that Index (other than a modification prescribed in that formula or method to maintain that Index in the event of changes in constituent securities and capitalisation and other routine events (an Index Modification). For the avoidance of doubt, the following events do not constitute "routine events" : a sub-division (split) of the level of the Index or a consolidation (reverse split) of the level of the Index, or any other event linked to either the performance or the level of the Index);

(b) on or prior to any Valuation Date or Averaging Date, the relevant Index Sponsor (or, if applicable, the relevant Successor Index Sponsor) or the Index Calculation Agent (or the Successor Index Calculation Agent) as the case may be, fails to calculate and publish the level of the Index and such failure is likely to have a material impact on the hedge of Societe Generale or one of its affiliates in connection with the Notes (an Index Disruption); or

then the Calculation Agent shall either:

(x) calculate the relevant formula used to determine an amount to be paid or whether a condition has occurred, if any, as described in the applicable Final Terms using, in lieu of a published level for the Index, the level of that Index as at the Valuation Time on the relevant Valuation Date or Averaging Date, as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating that Index last in effect prior to that Index Adjustment Event, but using only those securities that comprised that Index immediately prior to that Index Adjustment Event (other than those securities that have since ceased to be listed on any relevant Exchange); or

(y) replace the Index by a new index provided that such index is (a) representative of the same economic or geographic sector (as the case may be), and (b) to the extent possible, representative of shares listed on one or more Exchanges of one or more OECD countries.

If the Calculation Agent has not retained (x) and if in (y) no index meeting the criteria (a) and (b) can be selected by the Calculation Agent, then the Calculation Agent may either:

(i) apply Monetisation until the Maturity Date as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(ii) consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay or deliver, as the case may be, as soon as possible after the occurrence of the Early Redemption Event, an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

4.2 Stop-Loss Event in relation to an Index

Unless “Stop-Loss Event” is specified as “Not applicable” in the applicable Final Terms, if on an Exchange Business Day after the initial Valuation Date (excluded) and before the last Valuation Date (included), the Closing Price of an Index is affected by a decrease of 80 per cent. or more of its Closing Price on the initial Valuation Date (the Affected Index and the event, the Stop-Loss Event), then:

A. the Calculation Agent may decide to substitute the Affected Index by a new index representative of the same economic or geographic sector (as the case may be), and to the extent possible, representative of shares listed on one or more Exchanges of one or more OECD countries (the Substitute Index) and will adjust any relevant terms of the Notes accordingly; or

B. the Calculation Agent may decide to continue with the Affected Index; or

C. if the Calculation Agent has neither retained any Substitute Index nor decided to continue with the Affected Index, the Calculation Agent may either:

(a) apply Monetisation until the Maturity Date as defined in Condition 6.5 of the General Terms and Conditions; or

(b) consider such event as an event triggering an Early Redemption Event. Where Stop-Loss Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and pay or deliver, as the case may be, as soon as possible after the occurrence of the Stop-Loss Event, an amount equal to the Early Redemption Amount on the basis of Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

4.3 Correction of the Closing Price in relation to an Index

In the event that any price or level published on the Exchange or by the Index Sponsor and which is used for any calculation or determination made under the Notes is subsequently corrected and the correction is published and made available to the public by the Exchange or the Index Sponsor after the original publication but no later than four Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (or any payment date(s) determined in the applicable Final Terms), the Calculation Agent will determine the amount that is payable as a result of that correction, and, to the extent necessary, will adjust the terms of the Notes to account for such correction, provided however that, all references to the word "four" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System.

5. EXTRAORDINARY EVENTS RELATING TO DIVIDENDS

5.1 Failure to Publish

5.1.1 Failure to Publish

In respect of an Index, if during the Dividend Period the Index Sponsor fails (for whatever reason including without limitation, a Market Disruption Event) to calculate and publish (i) the Official Number or (ii) the Official Index Divisor, then the Calculation Agent shall determine the Official Number or the Official Index Divisor (as the case may be).

In making any such determination, the Calculation Agent may (but shall not be obliged to) make reference to the formula for and method of calculating the Official Number or the Official Index Divisor (as the case may be) last in effect prior to the failure by the Index Sponsor to make the relevant calculation or publication.

5.1.2 Corrections

In respect of an Index, in the event that an Official Index Divisor or Official Number calculated and published by the Index Sponsor (or determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to the provisions of Condition 5.1.1 above) and utilized for any calculation or determination made in respect of the Notes is subsequently corrected (or, where there has been a Failure to Publish, published by the Index Sponsor) and the correction is published (or, where there has been a Failure to Publish, publication is made) by the Index Sponsor within five Scheduled Trading Days after the original publication, the Calculation Agent will adjust the Dividend, as required, to take into account such correction, provided that such correction or subsequent publication occurs no later than four Business Days prior to the Maturity Date (or any payment date(s) determined in the applicable Final Terms),

provided however that:

- all references to the word "fourth" above may be deemed to be a reference to another time limit as determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to rules applicable to the relevant Clearing System, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

5.2 Dividend Recovery

In respect of a Share or a Depositary Receipt or in respect of each Share or Depositary Receipt comprising an Index, if (a) the amount actually paid or delivered by an issuer to holders of record of the relevant Share or Depositary Receipt in respect of any Dividend declared by such issuer to holders of record of such Share or Depositary Receipt (a Declared Dividend) is not equal to such Declared Dividend (a Dividend Mismatch Event); or (b) such issuer fails to make any payment or delivery in respect of such Declared Dividend by the third Business Day following the relevant due date, then the Calculation Agent may (but shall not be obliged to) determine: (i) any appropriate adjustment or repayment to be made to account for such Dividend Mismatch Event or non-payment or non-delivery of the Declared Dividend, as the case may be, (ii) the date any such repayment should be made, and (iii) any interest on any amount subsequently due under the Notes.

Copies of the relevant Pledge Agreement for the Standard Collateral Structure and the Security Agency Agreement are available for inspection during normal business hours at the head office of SG Issuer and at the specified office of each of the Paying Agents (see section "General Information" of this Base Prospectus).

In case of a failure by the Security Agent to enforce the Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure within a 20 Collateral Business Day period of having become bound to do so, the Representative of the Masse of the Noteholders will be entitled to enforce directly the terms of the Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure on behalf of the Noteholders.

2.2 Tripartite Collateral Structure

If the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms, the following provisions will apply:

2.2.1 Description of the Pledge Agreement with respect to the Tripartite Collateral Structure

Each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms will benefit from a pledge agreement which will be governed by the Belgian Financial Collateral Law and the Belgian MAS Law, concluded between the Issuer as pledgor (the Pledgor) and the Security Trustee or the Security Agent as pledgee (the Pledgee), creating a first ranking right of pledge over the Collateral Assets contained in the relevant collateral accounts held by the Issuer with the Collateral Custodian (such accounts together being referred to as the Collateral Accounts) in favour of (a) in the case of French Law Notes, the Security Agent acting for itself and as security agent and agent (mandataire) of the Representative of the Masse and of the other Secured Parties in accordance with Article 3 of the Belgian MAS Law, Article 5 of the Belgian Financial Collateral Law and the Tripartite Security Agency Agreement or (b) in the case of English Law Notes, the Security Trustee acting for itself, the Noteholders and the Secured Parties (each a Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure). Where a Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure relates to a Multiple Series Collateral Pool, the same may be amended from time to time by an Extension Notice to extend the benefit of the pledge agreement to other Series or Tranches of Secured Notes that are intended to be secured by the same Multiple Series Collateral Pool.

2.2.2 Description of the Security Trustee and the Security Agent

2.2.2.1 Appointment of the Security Trustee in the case of English Law Notes

Only one Tripartite Security Trust Deed shall be entered into in relation to each Multiple Series Collateral Pool.

Under the Terms of such Tripartite Security Trust Deed:

(a) the Issuer will covenant with and undertake to the Security Trustee (for its own account and as Security Trustee for the other Secured Parties) that it will duly and punctually pay or discharge its obligations in respect of the English Law Notes to which the Tripartite Security Trust Deed relates and under the Collateral Transaction Documents (the Obligations) and that it will punctually pay to the Security Trustee amounts equal to and in the same currency as any Obligations as and when they fall due for payment, so that the Security Trustee will be the obligee of such covenant and may claim performance of such covenant in its own name and not only as agent, representative or trustee acting on behalf of the Secured Parties; and

(b) the Security Trustee will covenant that it will exercise its rights under the Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure on behalf of and as trustee for the Secured Parties and will declare a trust in favour of the Noteholders and the other relevant Secured Parties over the rights granted to it under the Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure.

2.2.2.2 Appointment of a Security Agent in the case of French Law Notes

In relation to each Series of French Law Notes secured pursuant to a Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure, BNY Mellon Corporate Trustee Services Limited or any substitute or replacement entity thereof, (the Security Agent) is appointed by (i) the Representative of the Masse of the Noteholders pursuant to the second paragraph of Article L.228-53 of the French Code de Commerce, Articles 1984 et. seq of the French Code civil, Article 3 of the Belgian MAS Law and Article 5 of the Belgian Financial Collateral Law, and (ii) by the other Secured Parties pursuant to Articles 1984 et seq of the French Code civil, Article 3 of the Belgian MAS Law and Article 5 of the Belgian Financial Collateral Law, and in each case pursuant to such the Tripartite Security Agency Agreement (as defined below) and the relevant Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure, as agent (mandataire) and as security agent on behalf of the relevant Masse of the Noteholders and the Other Secured Parties, in order to create, take the benefit of, manage, release and enforce the relevant Security Interests created under the relevant Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure and perform the duties of the Security Agent set out in these Additional Terms and Conditions in each case for the benefit of the Masse of the Noteholders pursuant to Article L.228-77 of the French Code de commerce and of the other Secured Parties.

The Issuer, the Representative of the Masse of the Noteholders and the Security Agent will enter into a security agency agreement governed by French law (the Tripartite Security Agency Agreement), pursuant to which the Security Agent will be appointed by the Representative of the Masse of the Noteholders acting as principal (mandant) on the basis of Article L.228-53 of the French Code de commerce and within the framework of Article L.228-77 of the French Code de commerce, to act as agent (mandataire) and as security agent in accordance with Article 3 of the Belgian MAS Law and Article 5 of the Belgian Financial Collateral Law in relation to each Series of Secured Notes which are French Law Notes and in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms.

By acquiring and holding Secured Notes which are French Law Notes secured pursuant to a Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure, Noteholders of a Series of such Notes will be deemed to agree and accept the appointment of the Security Agent by the Representative of the Masse as agent and as security agent of the Representative of the Masse of the Noteholders and of the other Secured Parties in respect thereof and will be deemed to have notice of the provisions of the relevant Pledge Agreement with respect to the Tripartite Collateral Structure and the Tripartite Security Agency Agreement. By agreeing to fulfil their respective roles in accordance with these Additional Terms and Conditions for Secured Notes, the other Secured Parties will have agreed to and accepted the appointment of the Security Agent as agent and security agent on their behalf. Copies of the relevant Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure and the Tripartite Security Agency Agreement are available for inspection during normal business hours at the head office of SG Issuer and at the specified office of each of the Paying Agents (see section "General Information" of this Base Prospectus).

In case of a failure by the Security Agent to enforce the Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure within a 20 Collateral Business Day period of having become bound to do so, the Representative of the Masse of the Noteholders will be entitled to enforce directly the terms of the Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure on behalf of the Noteholders.

2.2.3 Description of the Collateral Arrangements

2.2.3.1 Framework Agreement

Pursuant to the terms of the Framework Agreement between the Issuer and BNY Belgium, BNY Belgium has agreed to act as collateral manager in respect of each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms (in such capacity, the Collateral Manager) and to act as collateral custodian in respect of each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms (in such capacity, the Collateral Custodian).

2.2.3.2 Collateral Management Master Agreement Service Module

Pursuant to the terms of the Collateral Management Master Agreement Service Module to the Framework Agreement (the Collateral Management Service Module), the Collateral Manager shall, on each Collateral Test Date, calculate the Collateral Value and verify that the Collateral Test is satisfied, and perform such other tasks and duties as are set out in these Additional Terms and Conditions.

2.2.3.3 Collateral Custodian Service Module

2.2.3.4 Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agency Agreement

The Issuer has appointed BNY London or any successor thereto as collateral monitoring agent (the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent) in relation to all Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms, pursuant to the terms of a collateral monitoring agency agreement between the Issuer and the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent (the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agency Agreement). The Issuer has appointed Societe Generale or any successor thereto as tripartite collateral agent (the Tripartite Collateral Agent) in relation to all Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms, pursuant to the terms of the tripartite collateral agency agreement between, inter alia, the Issuer and the Tripartite Collateral Agent (the Tripartite Collateral Agency Agreement). The Tripartite Collateral Agent or, if applicable, any sub-agent of, or any other entity appointed by the Securities Valuation Agent shall, for each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms perform such tasks as are set out in these Additional Terms and Conditions, including:

(a) on the Issue Date and on each Collateral Test Date thereafter, calculate the relevant Secured Note Market Value applicable to such Series of Secured Notes;

(b) on the Issue Date and on each Collateral Test Date thereafter, calculate the Required Collateral Value in relation to such Series of Secured Notes; and

(c) notify the Issuer of the number of Waived Notes.

2.2.3.6 Tripartite Disposal Agency Agreement

The Issuer has appointed BNY London or any successor thereto as disposal agent (the Disposal Agent) in relation to all Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms, pursuant to the terms of a tripartite disposal agency agreement between, inter alia, the Issuer and the Disposal Agent (the Tripartite Disposal Agency Agreement). The Disposal Agent shall undertake the duties set out in the Disposal Agency Agreement in respect of the relevant Secured Notes. As such, it may dispose of all or some of the Collateral Assets on behalf of and only when instructed to do so by the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as applicable. Following receipt of a Collateral Enforcement Notice, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent will enforce the relevant Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure relating to the relevant Collateral Pool and instruct the Disposal Agent to liquidate or realize the Collateral Assets, each in accordance with the terms of the Disposal Agency Agreement, Condition 4 of these Additional Terms and Conditions and the applicable Final Terms.

2.2.3.7 Tripartite Substitute Paying Agency Agreement

The Issuer has appointed The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch or any successor thereto as substitute paying agent (the Substitute Paying Agent) in relation to all Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms, pursuant to the terms of a tripartite substitute paying agency agreement between the Issuer, the Security Agent, the Security Trustee and the Substitute Paying Agent (the Tripartite Substitute Paying Agency Agreement) The Substitute Paying Agent shall act as agent of the Security Trustee and the Security Agent for the purposes of assisting with the payment of any Collateral Enforcement Proceeds Share or the Delivery of any Collateral Assets Entitlement to Noteholders (if so requested by the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be), communicating notices to Noteholders on behalf of the Security Trustee and the Security Agent, as the case may be, and performing any other obligations as set out in these Additional Terms and Conditions.

2.2.3.8 Calculation and determination

In relation to each issue of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms, the Collateral Manager acts solely as agent of the Issuer, and does not assume any obligation or duty to, or any relationship of agency or trust for or with, the Noteholders.
All calculations and determinations made in respect of such Secured Notes by the Collateral Manager shall (save in the case of manifest error) be final, conclusive and binding on the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Noteholders and the Security Trustee or the Security Agent.
The Collateral Manager may, with the consent of the Issuer, delegate any of its obligations and functions to a third party as provided for in the Collateral Management Service Module, as applicable.

2.3 Description of the Collateral Assets

2.3.1 Assets held in a Collateral Account and delivered to the Collateral Custodian are referred to as Collateral Assets. All Collateral Assets pledged pursuant to the relevant Pledge Agreement are referred to as a Collateral Pool.

Collateral Assets contained in a Collateral Pool may comprise:

(a) cash;
(b) debt securities (including, but not limited to, government bonds, corporate bonds, covered bonds and asset backed securities);
(c) equity securities, shares, units or interests in a fund; and/or
(d) any other negotiable financial instruments in book entry-form.

In order to be included in the calculation of the Collateral Value, Collateral Assets must satisfy the Eligibility Criteria specified in the applicable Final Terms. Collateral Assets satisfying the relevant Eligibility Criteria are referred to as Eligible Collateral Assets.

The Eligibility Criteria specified in the applicable Final Terms may include limitations on the type of Collateral Assets that may be held, the maturity of the Collateral Assets, the liquidity of the Collateral Assets, requirements regarding the jurisdiction of the obligor of the Collateral Assets or its guarantor or the credit rating of the obligor of the Collateral Assets or its guarantor and/or any other limitations, restrictions and/or requirements concerning the Collateral Assets.

In addition to the Eligibility Criteria, the applicable Final Terms will set out the collateral rules which must be satisfied in order for the Collateral Test to be satisfied (the Collateral Rules). The Collateral Rules may include requirements relating to the diversification of types of Eligible Collateral Assets, the concentration of the Eligible Collateral Assets, the geographical location of the Eligible Collateral Assets or the currency of the Eligible Collateral Assets which may be held in a Collateral Pool and/or any other limitations, restrictions and/or requirements concerning the Eligible Collateral Assets contained in the relevant Collateral Pool as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms. For the avoidance of doubt, the Collateral Rules relating to a particular Collateral Pool will be satisfied to the extent that Eligible Collateral Assets with a Collateral Value at least equal to the Required Collateral Value together satisfy the Collateral Rules.

2.3.2 Delegation

2.3.2.1 Delegation to the Collateral Agent

In respect of each Series of Secured Notes where the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer may, pursuant to the terms of the Collateral Agency Agreement, delegate to the Collateral Agent the role of managing each Collateral Pool to comply with the requirements of these Additional Terms and Conditions (including, but not limited to, compliance with Conditions 3.3, 3.4 and 3.5).

2.3.2.2 Delegation to the Collateral Manager

In respect of each Series of Secured Notes where the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer has delegated the role of managing each Collateral Pool to comply with the requirements of these Additional Terms and Conditions (including, but not limited to, compliance with Conditions 3.3 and 3.4) to the Collateral Manager pursuant to the terms of the Collateral Management Service Module.

2.4 Type of Collateral Pool

A Collateral Pool may be either a Single Series Collateral Pool or a Multiple Series Collateral Pool, each as further defined below.

2.4.1 Single Series Collateral Pool

Where the applicable Final Terms in respect of a Series of Secured Notes specify that the Type of Collateral Pool is "Single Series Collateral Pool", such Series of Secured Notes will be the only Series of Secured Notes to be secured by the relevant Collateral Pool (a Single Series Collateral Pool).

2.4.2 Multiple Series Collateral Pool

Where the applicable Final Terms in respect of a Series of Secured Notes specify that the Type of Collateral Pool is "Multiple Series Collateral Pool", such Series of Secured Notes may be secured by a Collateral Pool which secures one or more Series of Secured Notes (a Multiple Series Collateral Pool).

Each Series of Secured Notes secured pursuant to a Multiple Series Collateral Pool must (i) be subject to the same governing law, (ii) be subject to the same method of distribution of Collateral Assets following enforcement of the relevant Pledge Agreement (i.e. exclusively either subject to "Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets" or not subject to "Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets"), (iii) be subject to the same Eligibility Criteria and Collateral Rules, (iv) be subject to the same Haircut value(s) for each type or class of Eligible Collateral Assets, and (v) have the same Collateral Test Dates.

In such a scenario, following enforcement of the relevant Pledge Agreement, all Series of Secured Notes secured on such Collateral Pool would share in the distribution of the proceeds of realisation of the Collateral Assets constituting such Collateral Pool or Notes or, where "Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in the delivery of the Collateral Assets contained in such Collateral Pool, in accordance with the formula set out in Condition 4.5 below or, where "Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in Condition 4.7 below.

Noteholders acquiring and holding Secured Notes in relation to a Multiple Series Collateral Pool will be deemed to acknowledge, accept and agree to the rights of existing and future Noteholders of different Series of Secured Notes to share rateably in the security created over the Collateral Assets in the Multiple Series Collateral Pool.

2.5 Segregation between Collateral Pools, Limited Recourse and Non-Petition

2.5.1 Limited Recourse against the Issuer

By acquiring and holding Secured Notes, Noteholders will be deemed to acknowledge and agree that the obligations of the Issuer to the Noteholders are limited in recourse to the Collateral Assets contained in the relevant Collateral Pool securing such Series of Secured Notes both in the case of a Single Series Collateral Pool and a Multiple Series Collateral Pool.

If:

(a) the Security Interests created over the relevant Collateral Assets have been enforced in accordance with the relevant Pledge Agreement and the relevant Conditions and all amounts available from such enforcement have been applied to the payment and discharge of the relevant secured liabilities in accordance with, the provisions of the relevant Pledge Agreement and these Additional Terms and Conditions; and

(b) there are no relevant Collateral Assets remaining in the relevant Collateral Pool which are capable of being realised or otherwise converted into cash; and

(c) there are insufficient amounts available from the realisation of the relevant Collateral Assets in the relevant Collateral Pool to pay in full, in accordance with the provisions of the relevant Pledge Agreement and the Additional Terms and Conditions, all amounts owed by the Issuer to the Secured Parties under the relevant secured liabilities related to such Collateral Pool (including payments of principal, premium (if any) and interest), then the Noteholders of such Secured Notes (and the Security Agent or the Security Trustee on their behalf) shall have no further claim against the Issuer in respect of any amounts owed to them which remain unpaid (including, for the avoidance of doubt, payments of principal, premium (if any) and/or interest in respect of the Secured Notes).For the avoidance of doubt, in such a scenario, Noteholders will continue to be able to claim under the terms of the Guarantee against the Guarantor for any unpaid amounts, subject to the terms of such Guarantee.

2.5.2 Segregation between Collateral Pools

No Noteholder shall be entitled to have recourse to the Collateral Assets contained in a Collateral Pool other than the Collateral Pool which secures the Notes held by such Secured Noteholder.

2.5.3 Non-petition

By acquiring and holding Secured Notes, Noteholders will be deemed to acknowledge and agree that no Noteholder shall be entitled to take any steps or initiate proceedings to procure the winding-up, administration or liquidation (or any other analogous proceeding) of the Issuer.

2.6 Hedging of Issuer's obligations

The Issuer may hedge its obligations in relation to a Series of Secured Notes in a number of different ways, including by entering into repurchase agreements (Repurchase Agreements) or swap agreements (Swap Agreements) or any other agreements (any Repurchase Agreement, Swap Agreement or any other such agreement being a Hedging Agreement) with a counterparty which may be Societe Generale or an affiliate of Societe Generale or such other entities as the Issuer deems appropriate from time to time (each such entity being a Counterparty). Such transactions may also include provisions for the transfer to the Issuer of assets which may be treated as Collateral Assets by the Issuer and used to fulfil its obligations in relation to the Secured Notes. Where such Hedging Agreements provide for the transfer of assets to the Issuer, such transfer shall be made with full transfer of ownership.

A Swap Agreement may be evidenced by a 2002 ISDA Master Agreement and Schedule together with the confirmation entered into by the Issuer and the Counterparty in respect of the relevant Series of Secured Notes. If the Counterparty's obligations under the Swap Agreement are to be collateralised, the Swap Agreement may be supplemented by a 1995 ISDA Credit Support Annex (Bilateral Form - Transfer).

A Repurchase Agreement may be substantially in the form of a 2000 TBMA/ISMA Global Master Repurchase Agreement, a "Convention Cadre FBF relative aux opérations de pensions livrées", each as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, or any other agreement having a similar effect.

2.7 Collateral Disruption Events

If a Collateral Disruption Event has occurred in relation to one or more Series of Secured Notes, the Issuer may in its sole and absolute discretion redeem or cancel, as applicable, all of the relevant Secured Notes at the Early Redemption Amount following the occurrence of a Collateral Disruption Event as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

The occurrence of a Collateral Disruption Event will not constitute an Event of Default.

3. COLLATERALISATION OF SECURED NOTES

3.1 Valuation of Collateral and Secured Notes

In order to ensure that a Series of Secured Notes is collateralised in accordance with its terms, the Collateral Value of a given Collateral Pool and the Required Collateral Value in respect of each Series of Secured Notes secured by such Collateral Pool will each be tested on the Issue Date of such Series of Secured Notes and on each Collateral Test Date as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

3.1.1 Valuation of Collateral

(A) If the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure"

In relation to each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure", on the Issue Date of such Series of Secured Notes and on each Collateral Test Date thereafter the Collateral Agent will determine the Collateral Value on the basis of such valuation method or methods as the Collateral Agent may determine acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.

In relation to each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure", and except if the applicable Final Terms specify that "Collateral Valuation at Nominal Value" is as "applicable", the collateral value means the aggregate market value as of the relevant Valuation Point expressed in the Collateral Valuation Currency, of all Eligible Collateral Assets forming part of the relevant Collateral Pool as at such Valuation Point, in each case taking into account any Haircut applied in relation thereto (the Collateral Value).

If the applicable Final Terms specify that "Collateral Valuation at Nominal Value" is applicable, the Collateral Value shall be deemed to be equal to the aggregate nominal value of all Eligible Collateral Assets forming part of the relevant Collateral Pool (after taking into account any Haircut applied in relation thereto, as further described below) (the Collateral Valuation at Nominal Value) and "Collateral Value" shall be construed accordingly throughout these Additional Terms and Conditions.

Where the relevant currency of denomination of a Collateral Asset is other than the Collateral Valuation Currency, the Collateral Agent shall convert the value of such Collateral Asset at the relevant spot exchange rate.

If Predetermined Collateral Valuation Currency Rate of Exchange is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant spot exchange rate shall be the predetermined rate specified as such in the applicable Final Terms (the Predetermined Collateral Valuation Currency Rate of Exchange).

Except if Predetermined Collateral Valuation Currency Rate of Exchange is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant spot exchange rate shall be the rate displayed on the Collateral Valuation Currency Screen Page at the Collateral Valuation Currency Specified Time or, if no such Collateral Valuation Currency Screen Page is specified in the applicable Final Terms or such Collateral Valuation Currency Screen Page is not available, the relevant spot rate shall be the rate determined by the Collateral Agent in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.

In performing its calculations as described in Condition 3.5.1 below, the Collateral Monitoring Agent will use the same method of valuation of the Collateral Assets and, as the case may be, the relevant Haircut value(s) specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(B) If the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure"

In relation to each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure", on the Issue Date of such Series of Secured Notes and on each Collateral Test Date thereafter the Collateral Manager will determine the Collateral Value in accordance with the Collateral Manager's rules and procedures in force at that time and taking into account any relevant elections made by the Issuer in that respect.

In relation to each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure", the collateral value means the aggregate market value of all Collateral Assets forming part of the relevant Collateral Pool as determined by the Collateral Manager by applying such valuation method(s) or currency conversion(s) as the Collateral Manager may determine acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, in each case taking into account any elections made by the Issuer in that respect and any Haircuts applied in relation thereto (the Collateral Value).

In performing its calculations as described in Condition 3.5.2 below, the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent will use the Collateral Value as calculated by the Collateral Manager.

3.1.2 Valuation of Secured Notes

If the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure", the Securities Valuation Agent will on each Collateral Test Date for each Series of Secured Notes in relation to which MV Collateralisation, Min (MV, NV) Collateralisation or Max (MV, NV) Collateralisation is applicable as specified in the applicable Final Terms, calculate the market value applicable to each Secured Note of such Series of Secured Notes as of the Valuation Point on the basis of such valuation method as the Securities Valuation Agent may, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and in accordance with the terms of the Securities Valuation Agency Agreement, determine (the Secured Note Market Value). The Securities Valuation Agent will provide the Secured Market Note Value so calculated to the Collateral Agent and the Collateral Monitoring Agent.

If the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure", the Tripartite Collateral Agent will on each Collateral Test Date for each Series of Secured Notes in relation to which "MV Collateralisation", "Min (MV, NV) Collateralisation" or "Max (MV, NV) Collateralisation" is applicable as specified in the applicable Final Terms calculate the Secured Note Market Value as of the Valuation Point on the basis of such valuation method as the Tripartite Collateral Agent may, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and in accordance with the terms of the Tripartite Collateral Agency Agreement, determine.

When "NV Collateralisation" is specified as being the Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the value of the Secured Notes shall be deemed to be equal to the aggregate nominal value of the Secured Notes.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Secured Note Market Value determined by the Securities Valuation Agent (in the Standard Collateral Structure) or the Tripartite Collateral Agent (in the Tripartite Collateral Structure) may differ from the Market Value determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions and from the price proposed, as the case may be, by Societe Generale or any of its affiliates or any other entities acting as market maker on the secondary market for a Note.

3.2 Waiver of Rights to Collateral Assets

If "Waiver of Rights" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, certain Noteholders intending to hold Secured Notes (including but not limited to, in their capacity as a market maker) may waive their rights by written notice to receive the proceeds of realisation of the Collateral Assets securing such Series of Secured Notes, (or where Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets is specified as applicable in the applicable final terms, delivery of the Collateral Assets) following the enforcement of the relevant Pledge Agreement (any such Secured Notes being Waived Notes).

Holders of Waived Notes are deemed to waive their rights to give written notice to the Issuer and the Guarantor that the Waived Notes are immediately due and repayable at their Early Redemption Amount on the occurrence of an Event of Default following the delivery of a Required Collateral Default Notice (as described below). As a consequence, when calculating the Required Collateral Value in accordance with the provisions described below, the Collateral Agent and the Collateral Monitoring Agent (in the Standard Collateral Structure), or the Tripartite Collateral Agent (in the Tripartite Collateral Structure) shall only take into account the Secured Notes that have not been subject to such waiver (any such Notes being Non-Waived Notes).

Each holder of Waived Notes shall be required to (i) inform by written notice and, upon request from the Collateral Agent or the Tripartite Collateral Agent (as applicable), provide evidence to the Collateral Agent (in the Standard Collateral Structure) or the Tripartite Collateral Agent (in the Tripartite Collateral Structure) of the number of Waived Notes that it holds on the Issue Date and on each Collateral Test Date and (ii) notify the Collateral Agent (in the Standard Collateral Structure) or the Tripartite Collateral Agent (in the Tripartite Collateral Structure) following any transfer of Waived Notes. The Collateral Business Day following a notification of transfer will be deemed to be a Collateral Test Date and the Collateral Agent (in the Standard Collateral Structure) or the Tripartite Collateral Agent (in the Tripartite Collateral Structure) shall notify the Issuer and, where relevant, the Collateral Monitoring Agent of the same. Notwithstanding the above, all Secured Notes held by Societe Generale or one or more of its affiliates, including but not limited to, in its capacity as market maker, will be deemed to be Waived Notes, unless otherwise notified in writing by Societe Generale or one or more of its affiliates to the Collateral Agent (in the Standard Collateral Structure) or to the Tripartite Collateral Agent (in the Tripartite Collateral Structure).

None of the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Collateral Agent, the Tripartite Collateral Agent, the Collateral Monitoring Agent, the Collateral Manager, the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent or the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, shall be responsible for any incorrect, inaccurate or incomplete information relating to the number of Waived Notes relating to any one or more Series of Secured Notes that may have been provided to the Collateral Agent or to the Tripartite Collateral Agent by or on behalf of any holder of Waived Notes and none of the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Collateral Agent, the Tripartite Collateral Agent, the Collateral Monitoring Agent, the Collateral Manager, the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent, or the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, shall be under any duty to verify or otherwise confirm the number of Waived Notes so held.

3.3 Required Collateral Value

The Collateral Value and the Secured Note Market Value will be used in order to calculate the Required Collateral Value of Eligible Collateral Assets which must be held in a Collateral Account to secure one or more Series of Secured Notes.

3.3.1 Required Collateral Value with respect to the Standard Collateral Structure

In relation to each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure", the required collateral value will be calculated by the Collateral Agent on the Issue Date and on each relevant Collateral Test Date in accordance with this Condition 3.3.1 (the amount so calculated being the Required Collateral Value).

Except if the Type of Collateralisation is specified as "NV Collateralisation" in the applicable Final Terms, the Collateral Agent will be required to use the Secured Note Market Value determined by the Securities Valuation Agent in determining the Required Collateral Value.

A. Single Series Collateral Pool:

In relation to a Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Pool is specified as "Single Series Collateral Pool" in the relevant Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value will be determined by the Collateral Agent as follows:

(i) where "MV Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the product of (a) the Collateralisation Percentage, (b) the Secured Note Market Value and (c) the number of Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(ii) where "NV Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the product of (a) the Collateralisation Percentage and (b) the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(iii) where "Min (MV, NV) Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the lower of:

(a) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage, (2) the Secured Note Market Value and (3) the number of Non-Waived Notes in such Series of Secured Notes; or

(b) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage and (2) the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(iv) where "Max (MV, NV) Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the greater of:

(a) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage, (2) the Secured Note Market Value and (3) the number value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series; or

(b) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage and (2) the specified proportion of the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series.

B. Multiple Series Collateral Pool:

In relation to a Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Pool is specified as "Multiple Series Collateral Pool" in the relevant Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value will be determined by the Collateral Agent as follows:

(i) where "MV Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the sum of the amounts calculated in respect of each Series of Secured Notes secured by the same Multiple Series Collateral Pool, as follows: the product of (a) the Collateralisation Percentage, (b) the Secured Note Market Value and (c) the number of Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(ii) where "NV Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the sum of the amounts calculated in respect of each Series of Secured Notes secured by the same Multiple Series Collateral Pool, as follows the product of (a) the Collateralisation Percentage and (b) the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(iii) where "Min (MV, NV) Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the sum of the lower of the amounts calculated in respect of each Series of Secured Notes secured by the same Multiple Series Collateral Pool, as follows:

(a) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage, (2) the Secured Note Market Value and (3) the number value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series; or

(b) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage and (2) the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(iv) where "Max (MV, NV) Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the sum of the greater of the amounts calculated in respect of each Series of Secured Notes secured by the same Multiple Series Collateral Pool, as follows:

(a) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage, (2) the Secured Note Market Value and (3) the number of Non-Waived Notes in such Series of Secured Notes; or

(b) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage and (2) the specified proportion of the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series.

C. Conversion in case Specified Currency is not the Collateral Valuation Currency

In determining the Required Collateral Value, where the Specified Currency of any Secured Note is other than the Collateral Valuation Currency, the Collateral Agent shall convert the Secured Note Market Value and/or the nominal value, as the case may be, of such Secured Note at the relevant spot exchange rate, in accordance with Condition 3.1.1(A).

D. Collateralisation Percentage

The collateralisation percentage relating to a Series of Secured Notes will be specified in the applicable Final Terms and may be a fixed percentage or a percentage determined by applying a predetermined formula or a variable percentage (the Collateralisation Percentage).

In the case of variable Collateralisation Percentage:

- the Collateralisation Percentage will be specified as "Variable Collateralisation" in the applicable Final Terms;

- the Collateralisation Percentage at the Issue Date shall be specified in the applicable Final Terms (the Initial Collateralisation Percentage), and subsequently the Collateralisation Percentage may be varied from time to time during the term of the Secured Notes in accordance with the provisions and procedures set out in the applicable Final Terms, which may foresee a variation of the Collateralisation Percentage (a) following the occurrence of a trigger event, (b) at the option of the Collateral Agent, or (c) otherwise as set out in the applicable Final Terms.

Where the Collateralisation Percentage is specified as "Variable Collateralisation" and is initially set at 0% in the applicable Final Terms, it means that on the Issue Date no Collateral Asset shall be deposited in the Collateral Account. The Collateralisation Percentage may then be varied from time to time in accordance with the procedures set out in the applicable Final Terms.

The Collateralisation Percentage may be subject to a floor equal to or greater than 0% (a Variable Collateralisation Floor), as specified in the applicable Final Terms; in such case Collateralisation Percentage shall not be varied to a percentage less than the applicable Variable Collateralisation Floor.

3.3.2 Required Collateral Value with respect to the Tripartite Collateral Structure

In relation to each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure", the required collateral value will be calculated by the Tripartite Collateral Agent on behalf of the Issuer on the Issue Date and on each relevant Collateral Test Date in accordance with this Condition 3.3.2 (the amount so calculated being the Required Collateral Value). The Tripartite Collateral Agent will notify the Required Collateral Value so calculated to the Collateral Manager and to the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent. In performing its calculations as described in Condition 3.5.2 below, the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent will use the Required Collateral Value as calculated by the Tripartite Collateral Agent.

Except if the Type of Collateralisation is specified as "NV Collateralisation" in the applicable Final Terms, the Tripartite Collateral Agent will use the Secured Note Market Value as determined by it pursuant to Condition 3.1.2 when determining the Required Collateral Value.

A. Single Series Collateral Pool:

In relation to a Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Pool is specified as "Single Series Collateral Pool" in the relevant Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value will be determined by the Tripartite Collateral Agent as follows:

(i) where "MV Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the product of (a) the Collateralisation Percentage, (b) the Secured Note Market Value and (c) the number of Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(ii) where "NV Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the product of (a) the Collateralisation Percentage and (b) the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(iii) where "Min (MV, NV) Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the lower of:

(a) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage, (2) the Secured Note Market Value and (3) the number of Non-Waived Notes in such Series of Secured Notes; or

(b) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage and (2) the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(iv) where "Max (MV, NV) Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the greater of:

(a) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage, (2) the Secured Note Market Value and (3) the number value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series; or

(b) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage and (2) the specified proportion of the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series.

B. Multiple Series Collateral Pool

In relation to a Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Pool is specified as "Multiple Series Collateral Pool" in the relevant Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value will be calculated by the Tripartite Collateral Agent as follows:

(i) where "MV Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the sum of the amounts calculated in respect of each Series of Secured Notes secured by the same Multiple Series Collateral Pool as follows: the product of (a) the Collateralisation Percentage, (b) the Secured Note Market Value and (c) the number of Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(ii) where "NV Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms relating to a Series of Secured Notes, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the sum of the amounts calculated in respect of each Series of Secured Notes secured by the same Multiple Series Collateral Pool as follows the product of (a) the Collateralisation Percentage and (b) the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(iii) where "Min (MV, NV) Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms relating to a Series of Secured Notes, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the sum of the lower of the amount calculated in respect of each Series of Secured Notes secured by the same Multiple Series Collateral Pool as follows:

(a) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage, (2) the Secured Note Market Value and (3) the number value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series;

(b) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage and (2) the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series; or

(iv) where "Max (MV, NV) Collateralisation" is specified as being the applicable Type of Collateralisation in the applicable Final Terms relating to a Series of Secured Notes, the Required Collateral Value in respect of such Series of Secured Notes shall be equal to the sum of the greater of the amount calculated in respect of each Series of Secured Notes secured by the same Multiple Series Collateral Pool as follows:

(a) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage, (2) the Secured Note Market Value and (3) the number of Non-Waived Notes in such Series of Secured Notes or;

(b) the product of (1) the Collateralisation Percentage and (2) the specified proportion of the total aggregate nominal value of the Non-Waived Notes of such Series.

C. Conversion in case Specified Currency is not the Collateral Valuation Currency

In determining the Required Collateral Value, where the Specified Currency of any Secured Note is other than the Collateral Valuation Currency, the Tripartite Collateral Agent shall convert the Secured Note Market Value and/or the nominal value, as the case may be, of such Secured Note at the relevant spot exchange rate.

D. Collateralisation Percentage

The collateralisation percentage relating to a Series of Secured Notes will be specified in the applicable Final Terms and may be a fixed percentage or a percentage determined by applying a predetermined formula or a variable percentage (the Collateralisation Percentage).

In the case of variable Collateralisation Percentage:

- the Collateralisation Percentage will be specified as "Variable Collateralisation" in the applicable Final Terms;

- the Collateralisation Percentage at the Issue Date shall be specified in the applicable Final Terms (the Initial Collateralisation Percentage), and subsequently the Collateralisation Percentage may be varied from time to time during the term of the Secured Notes in accordance with the provisions and procedures set out in the applicable Final Terms, which may foresee a variation of the Collateralisation Percentage (a) following the occurrence of a trigger event, (b) at the option of the Tripartite Collateral Agent, or (c) otherwise as set out in the applicable Final Terms.

Where the Collateralisation Percentage is specified as "Variable Collateralisation" and is initially set at 0% in the applicable Final Terms, it means that on the Issue Date no Collateral Asset shall be deposited in the Collateral Account. The Collateralisation Percentage may then be varied from time to time in accordance with the procedures set out in the applicable Final Terms.

Where the Collateralisation Percentage is specified as "Variable Collateralisation", the Collateralisation Percentage may be subject to a floor equal to or greater than 0% (a Variable Collateralisation Floor), as specified in the applicable Final Terms; in such case Collateralisation Percentage shall not be varied to a percentage less than the applicable Variable Collateralisation Floor.

3.4 Adjustments to Collateral Pool and Collateral Test Notice

3.4.1 Adjustments to Collateral Pool and Collateral Test Notice with respect to the Standard Collateral Structure

On each Collateral Test Date relating to a relevant Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure", the Collateral Agent will determine whether (i) the Collateral Rules applicable to the relevant Collateral Pool are satisfied and (ii) the Collateral Value in respect of the relevant Collateral pool is greater than or equal to 97 per cent of the Required Collateral Value for such Collateral Pool (taking into account any Haircut value(s) to be applied to the Collateral Assets and the aggregate value of any Waived Notes) (limbs (i) and (ii) above being referred to as the Collateral Test).

When determining whether the Collateral Test is satisfied:

- Eligible Assets for which instructions for the transfer to the relevant Collateral Account have been provided on or before such Collateral Test Date will be included; and

- Collateral Assets for which instructions for the removal from the relevant Collateral Account have been provided on or before such Collateral Test Date will be excluded, for the purposes of such determination.

If on a Collateral Test Date, after having performed the Collateral Test, the Collateral Agent determines that:

- the Collateral Test is not satisfied for a specific Collateral Pool, the Collateral Agent will on behalf of the Issuer select the type and quantity of Eligible Assets to be deposited in the relevant Collateral Account (or will select existing Collateral Assets to be replaced with other Eligible Assets), in order that after such adjustment the Collateral Test will be satisfied; or

- the Collateral Test is satisfied for a specific Collateral Pool and, if on such date, the Collateral Value in respect of such Collateral Pool is greater than the Required Collateral Value, the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Issuer, shall be entitled to select Collateral Assets to be removed from the Collateral Account (or shall be entitled to select existing Collateral Assets to be replaced with other assets), provided that after such adjustment the Collateral Test continues to be satisfied.

If the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Issuer intends to make any adjustments to the Collateral Assets held in a Collateral Pool in accordance with this Condition 3.4.1, the Collateral Agent will send or cause to be sent a notice to the Collateral Monitoring Agent and the Collateral Custodian (copied to the Issuer and the Guarantor, as the case may be) on the relevant Collateral Test Date specifying any such intended adjustments to be made to such particular Collateral Pool (including inter alia the type and quantity of any Eligible Assets to be deposited and/or Collateral Assets to be removed) (the Collateral Test Notice).

3.4.2 Adjustments to the Collateral Pool and Collateral Notice with respect to the Tripartite Collateral Structure

On each Collateral Test Date relating to a relevant Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure", the Collateral Manager will determine whether the Collateral Value in respect of the relevant Collateral Pool is greater than or equal to the Required Collateral Value for such Collateral Pool (taking into account the Collateral Rules applicable to the relevant Collateral Pool and any Haircut value(s) to be applied to the Collateral Assets and the aggregate value of any Waived Notes) (such determination hereinafter being referred to as the Collateral Test).

When determining whether the Collateral Test is satisfied:

- Eligible Assets for which instructions for the transfer to the relevant Collateral Account have been provided on or before such Collateral Test Date will be included; and

- Collateral Assets for which instructions for the removal from the relevant Collateral Account have been provided on or before such Collateral Test Date will be excluded, for the purposes of such determination.

If on a Collateral Test Date, after having performed the Collateral Test, the Collateral Manager determines that:

- the Collateral Test is not satisfied for a specific Collateral Pool, the Collateral Manager will arrange for additional Eligible Assets to be transferred to the relevant Collateral Account (or will replace existing Collateral Assets with other Eligible Assets), in order that after such adjustment the Collateral Test will be satisfied; or

- the Collateral Test is satisfied for a specific Collateral Pool and, if on such date, the Collateral Value in respect of such Collateral Pool is greater than the Required Collateral Value, the Collateral Manager shall be entitled to remove Collateral Assets from the Collateral Account (or shall be entitled to replace existing Collateral Assets with other assets), provided that after such adjustment the Collateral Test continues to be satisfied. , it being understood that the Collateral Managershall only be able to arrange for the transfer of additional Eligible Assets to the relevant Collateral Account or to substitute existing Collateral Assets with other Eligible Assets to the extent that there are Eligible Assets available on the relevant Collateral Giver's Account.

If on a Collateral Test Date, after having performed the Collateral Test, the Collateral Manager determines that the Collateral Test is not satisfied for a specific Collateral Pool and the Collateral Manager not able to arrange for (a) the transfer of additional Eligible Assets to the relevant Collateral Account or (b) the substitution of existing Collateral Assets with other Eligible Assets, such that after such adjustment the Collateral Test will be satisfied, the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent shall notify the Issuer thereof.

3.5 Verification of Collateral Test

3.5.1 Verification by Collateral Monitoring Agent with respect to Standard Collateral Structure

If the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms, if on the relevant Collateral Test Date, a Collateral Test Notice has been delivered by the Collateral Agent and the Collateral Monitoring Agent determines that the Collateral Test will not be satisfied (including after taking into account any adjustments specified in such Collateral Test Notice), then the Collateral Monitoring Agent shall, on the Collateral Business Day immediately following the relevant Collateral Test Date, notify the Collateral Agent in writing providing details of why it considers that the Collateral Test is or will not be satisfied (such notice being hereafter referred to as a Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice).

Following receipt of a Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice, the Collateral Agent will determine whether it is in agreement with the contents of the Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice.

Should the Collateral Agent agree with the contents of a Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice, the Collateral Agent shall on the Collateral Business Day immediately following receipt of a Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice send or cause to be sent a revised Collateral Test Notice (a First Level Revised Collateral Test Notice) to the Collateral Monitoring Agent and the Collateral Custodian (copied to the Issuer and the Guarantor, as the case may be) specifying the adjustments to be made to the Collateral Pool (including inter alia the type and quantity of any Eligible Assets to be deposited and/or Collateral Assets to be removed) as agreed between the Collateral Agent and the Collateral Monitoring Agent such that the Collateral Test will be satisfied. The First Level Revised Collateral Test Notice shall be prepared in the same way and shall provide the same information as is required to be included in a Collateral Test Notice.

If the Collateral Agent disputes the contents of a Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice, it shall, on the Collateral Business Day immediately following receipt of a Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice, notify the Collateral Monitoring Agent of such dispute in writing (a Dispute Notice) and the Collateral Monitoring Agent and the Collateral Agent shall consult with each other in good faith in an attempt to resolve the dispute.

If the Collateral Agent and the Collateral Monitoring Agent manage to resolve the dispute by the second Collateral Business Day following delivery of the Dispute Notice, the Collateral Agent shall send or cause to be sent a revised Collateral Test Notice to the Collateral Monitoring Agent (a Second Level Revised Collateral Test Notice) and the Collateral Custodian (copied to the Issuer and the Guarantor, as the case may be) specifying the adjustments to be made to the Collateral Pool (including inter alia the type and quantity of any Eligible Assets to be deposited and/or Collateral Assets to be removed) as agreed between the Collateral Agent and the Collateral Monitoring Agent such that the Collateral Test will be satisfied. This Second Level Revised Collateral Test Notice shall be prepared in the same way and shall provide the same information as is required to be included in a Collateral Test Notice.

If the Collateral Agent and the Collateral Monitoring Agent fail to resolve the dispute by the second Collateral Business Day following delivery of the Dispute Notice, then the Collateral Agent (on behalf of the Issuer) shall notify the Collateral Monitoring Agent in writing (such notice being a Dispute Resolution Procedure Notice) that it will commence the dispute resolution procedure to determine the adjustments (if any) to be made to the Collateral Pool (the Collateral Test Dispute Resolution Procedure):

(i) utilizing any calculations, rules or criteria which the Collateral Agent and the Collateral Monitoring Agent have agreed are not in dispute;

(ii) if such dispute relates to the satisfaction of the Eligibility Criteria or the Collateral Rules, appointing an independent third person (acting as an expert and not as an arbitrator) selected by the Collateral Agent and approved by the Collateral Monitoring Agent (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld) to determine whether such Eligibility Criteria and Collateral Rules are satisfied with the determination of any such person being final and binding upon the Collateral Agent and the Collateral Monitoring Agent; and

(iii) calculating the value of those Collateral Assets the value of which is in dispute by using reasonable endeavours to seek four actual, firm and executable quotations at mid-market for such Collateral Assets with contract sizes approximately equal to the value of such Collateral Assets from leading dealers in assets of the type of the Collateral Assets who are committed to trade with the Issuer or the Counterparty, which may include Societe Generale, as selected by the Collateral Agent acting in a commercially reasonable manner, and taking the weighted average of those obtained; provided that if four quotations are not available for a particular Collateral Asset, then fewer than four quotations may be used for that Collateral Asset, and if no quotations are available for a particular Collateral Asset, then the Collateral Agent's original calculations will be used for the Collateral Asset.

Following the conclusion of a Collateral Test Dispute Resolution Procedure, the Collateral Agent shall send a notice to the Collateral Monitoring Agent and the Collateral Custodian (copied to the Issuer and the Guarantor, as the case may be), providing the same information as is required to be included in a Collateral Test Notice, containing the Collateral Value, the Required Collateral Value and any adjustments to be made to the Collateral Pool such that the Collateral Test will be satisfied, in each case determined in accordance with the Collateral Test Dispute Resolution Procedure, as soon as possible but in any event not later than the 30th Collateral Business Day following the delivery of the Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice (the Post Dispute Collateral Test Notice). A Post Dispute Collateral Test Notice issued following the conclusion of a Collateral Test Dispute Resolution Procedure shall be binding on the Collateral Agent and the Collateral Monitoring Agent and shall not be subject to further verification by the Collateral Monitoring Agent.

For the avoidance of doubt, the determination of the Collateral Value, the Required Collateral Value and the adjustments to be made to a Collateral Pool in accordance with the Collateral Test Dispute Resolution Procedure will not constitute an Event of Default.

3.5.2 Verification by the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent with respect to the Tripartite Collateral Structure

On the Issue Date and on each Collateral Test Date in relation to each Series of Secured Notes the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent shall verify that the Collateral Test is satisfied in respect of the Collateral Pool securing such Series of Secured Notes.

If on a Collateral Test Date the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent determines that in its reasonable opinion the Collateral Test will not be satisfied (including after taking into account any adjustments to be made on such Collateral Test Date by the Collateral Manager), then the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent shall at the latest on the immediately following Collateral Business Day (unless such non-compliance with the Collateral Test has in the meantime been cured) notify the Collateral Manager in writing providing details of why it considers that the Collateral Test is not be satisfied (such notice being hereafter referred to as a Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice).

If the Collateral Manager disagrees with the determination of the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent, the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent shall consult with the Collateral Manager in good faith and attempt to agree as soon as reasonably practicable following the delivery of a Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice on the necessary adjustments to be made to the relevant Collateral Pool in order to ensure that the Collateral Test will be satisfied in the reasonable opinion of both the Collateral Manager and the Collateral Monitoring Agent.

3.6 Required Settlement Period

3.6.1 Required Settlement Period with respect to adjustments to a Collateral Pool in the Standard Collateral Structure

In relation to each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure", the required period for the settlement of transactions relating to adjustments to be made to a Collateral Pool by the Collateral Agent in accordance with a Collateral Test Notice, First Level Revised Collateral Test Notice, Second Level Revised Collateral Test Notice or Post Dispute Collateral Test Notice, as applicable (such period the Required Settlement Period) shall be ten (10) Collateral Business Days following delivery of a Collateral Test Notice or, where such Collateral Test Notice is followed by a Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice, ten (10) Collateral Business Days following delivery of the First Level Revised Collateral Test Notice, Second Level Revised Collateral Test Notice or Post Dispute Collateral Test Notice, as applicable; provided however that this ten (10) Collateral Business Day period may be extended up to a maximum additional period of sixty (60) Collateral Business Days (i) if the adjustments to be made to the Collateral Pool have not been settled as a result of an event beyond the control of the Collateral Agent, the Collateral Monitoring Agent and the Issuer (including, but not limited to, as a result of a failure or inability of the relevant clearing system to clear the relevant Eligible Assets or Collateral Assets), (an External Event) or (ii) in relation to Eligible Assets or Collateral Assets for which the regular settlement period is greater than ten (10) Collateral Business Days under normal market conditions ((i) and (ii) being referred to as a Collateral Settlement Disruption).

During the above additional sixty (60) Collateral Business Day period, the Collateral Agent may propose the replacement of the affected Eligible Assets or Collateral Assets by other Eligible Assets or Collateral Assets complying with the Collateral Rules and the Eligibility Criteria, or propose any other relevant measures so that the Collateral Test be satisfied.

If at the end of the sixty (60) Collateral Business Day period (i) the External Event(s) continue(s) to exist or (ii) the Eligible Assets or Collateral Assets for which the regular settlement period is greater than ten (10) Collateral Business Days under normal market conditions have not been settled, this shall constitute a Collateral Disruption Event.

3.6.2 Required Settlement Period with respect to adjustments to a Collateral Pool in the Tripartite Collateral Structure

In relation to each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure", transactions relating to adjustments to be made to a Collateral Pool by the Collateral Manager will be settled on the same Collateral Business Day (such period the Required Settlement Period) on which such adjustments are initiated by the Collateral Manager provided however that the Required Settlement Period may be extended up to a maximum additional period of 60 Collateral Business Days (i) if the adjustments to be made to the Collateral Pool have not been settled as a result of an event beyond the control of the Collateral Manager or the Issuer (including, but not limited to, as a result of a failure or inability of the relevant clearing system to clear the relevant Eligible Assets or Collateral Assets), (an External Event) or (ii) in relation to Eligible Assets or Collateral Assets the regular settlement period of which under normal market conditions does not allow for intraday settlement ((i) and (ii) being referred to as a Collateral Settlement Disruption).

If a Collateral Settlement Disruption has occurred, the Collateral Manager may during the extended Required Settlement Period substitute any of the affected Eligible Assets or Collateral Assets by other Eligible Assets or propose any other relevant measures so that the Collateral Test be satisfied. If at the end of the extended Required Settlement Period the Collateral Settlement Disruption continues, this shall constitute a Collateral Disruption Event.

3.7 Collateral Substitution

3.7.1 Collateral Substitution in the Standard Collateral Structure

In relation to each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure", if "Collateral Substitution" is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer (or the Collateral Agent on its behalf) may withdraw and/or replace Collateral Assets from any Collateral Account provided that following such adjustment the Collateral Test continues to be satisfied. The Issuer (or the Collateral Agent on its behalf) will send or cause to be sent a Collateral Test Notice to the Collateral Monitoring Agent where relevant and the Collateral Custodian (copied to the Issuer and the Guarantor, as the case may be) specifying the adjustments to be made to the Collateral Pool in accordance with Condition 3.7. The Collateral Business Day immediately following the day on which such Collateral Test Notice is given by the Issuer (or the Collateral Agent on its behalf) for the substitution of Collateral Assets as described above will be deemed to be a Collateral Test Date.

3.7.2 Collateral Substitution in the Tripartite Collateral Structure

In relation to each Series of Secured Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure", on any Collateral Business Day, the Collateral Manager may withdraw and replace Collateral Assets from any Collateral Account with other Eligible Assets provided that following such adjustment the Collateral Test continues to be satisfied (or, if the Collateral Test was not satisfied immediately prior to such substitution, provided that such non-compliance with the Collateral Test is not increased).

3.8 Notification of settlement failure in the respect of the Standard Collateral Structure

In relation to each Collateral Account which is held with BNY Luxembourg as Collateral Custodian, the Collateral Custodian shall notify the Issuer, the Collateral Agent and the Collateral Monitoring Agent if the settlement of any transfer of Eligible Assets or Collateral Assets has not completed within the common market practice timeframe for settlement of the type of Eligible Assets or Collateral Assets being so transferred. For the avoidance of doubt, such notification shall be taken into account when assessing whether settlement has occurred during the Required Settlement Period described above.

4. DEFAULT, ENFORCEMENT AND REALISATION

4.1 Events of Default

In accordance with Condition 9 of the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes, the Secured Notes will be subject to:

(i) the same Events of Default as are applicable to Notes which are not Secured Notes, and

(ii) an additional Event of Default if the Collateral Monitoring Agent or the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent (as applicable) delivers a Required Collateral Default Notice in relation to a Collateral Pool securing such Secured Notes, meaning that a Required Collateral Default has occurred.

(A) If the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure"

Required Collateral Default means that with respect to a Collateral Pool:

(1) following receipt of a Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice which indicates that the Collateral Test is not satisfied (or will not be satisfied after taking into account any adjustments specified in a Collateral Test Notice):

(a) no First Level Revised Collateral Test Notice or Dispute Notice has been sent; or

(b) no Second Level Revised Collateral Test Notice or Dispute Resolution Procedure Notice has been sent; or

(c) no Post Dispute Collateral Test Notice has been sent, in each case on or before the fifth Collateral Business Day following the date on which the Collateral Agent had the obligation to send such notice to the Collateral Monitoring Agent; or

(2) the Issuer or the Collateral Agent (on behalf of the Issuer) fails to deliver the additional necessary Eligible Assets within the Required Settlement Period and such failure results in the Collateral Test not being satisfied for five (5) consecutive Collateral Business Days following the end of such Required Settlement Period (when determining whether the Collateral Test has been satisfied for the purpose of this Condition, only Collateral Assets which have actually been transferred to the relevant Collateral Account shall be taken into account).

Following the occurrence of a Required Collateral Default, the Collateral Monitoring Agent shall send, as soon as reasonably practicable and in any case within two Collateral Business Days, a notice to the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Collateral Agent, the Collateral Custodian or the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, specifying that a Required Collateral Default has occurred (the Required Collateral Default Notice).

Upon receipt of such Required Collateral Default Notice, the Issuer or failing which the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as applicable, shall give notice in accordance with Condition 13 of the General Terms and Conditions, as soon as reasonably practicable to all relevant Noteholders.

Following the occurrence of an Event of Default in relation to a Series of Secured Notes, a Noteholder (or the Representative of the Masse in the case of French Law Notes acting pursuant to the request of a Noteholder may give written notice to the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, that the Notes held by such Noteholder (or by a Noteholder represented by the Representative of the Masse in the case of French Law Notes) are immediately due and repayable at their Early Redemption Amount (as defined in the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes) (the delivery of such a notice being hereafter referred to as a Secured Note Acceleration Event).

If a Secured Note Acceleration Event occurs in relation to one or more Secured Notes (such Notes being Accelerated Secured Notes), all Secured Notes which are secured by the same Collateral Pool as the one securing such Accelerated Secured Noteholder(s) will also become immediately due and repayable at their Early Redemption Amount. This applies both in the case of a Single Series Collateral Pool and in the case of a Multiple Series Collateral Pool.

Following the occurrence of a Secured Note Acceleration Event, the Issuer or failing which the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, shall give notice in accordance with Condition 13 of the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes, as soon as reasonably practicable, to all relevant Noteholders of one or more Secured Notes which are secured by the same Collateral Pool as such Noteholders.

(B) If the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure"

Required Collateral Default means that with respect to a Collateral Pool:

(1) the Collateral Manager and the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent have failed to agree on or before the thirty-five (35) Collateral Business Day following the delivery of a Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent Notice (the Collateral Test Dispute Period) on the necessary adjustments to the relevant Collateral Pool to ensure that the Collateral Test is satisfied and, in the reasonable opinion of the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent, the Collateral Test remains unsatisfied at the end of the Collateral Test Dispute Period; or

(2) on a Collateral Test Date, the Collateral Test is not satisfied and the Issuer or the Collateral Manager (on behalf of the Issuer) fails to deliver the necessary Eligible Assets to the relevant Collateral Pool within a period of ten (10) Collateral Business Days following the relevant Collateral Test Date (the Shortfall Cure Period) and such failure results in the Collateral Test not being satisfied for five (5) consecutive Collateral Business Days following the end of the Shortfall Cure Period, it being understood that the Shortfall Cure Period shall be extended up to a maximum of sixty (60) Collateral Business Days if and for as long the failure by the Issuer or the Collateral Manager on its behalf to deliver the necessary Eligible Assets to the relevant Collateral Account results from the occurrence of a Collateral Settlement Disruption) (when determining whether the Collateral Test has been satisfied for the purpose of this Condition, only Collateral Assets which have actually been transferred to the relevant Collateral Account shall be taken into account).

Following the occurrence of a Required Collateral Default, the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent shall send, as soon as reasonably practicable and in any case within two Collateral Business Days, a notice to the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Tripartite Collateral Agent, the Collateral Custodian, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent,, as the case may be, specifying that a Required Collateral Default has occurred (the Required Collateral Default Notice).

Upon receipt of such Required Collateral Default Notice, the Issuer or failing which the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as applicable, shall give notice in accordance with Condition 13 of the General Terms and Conditions, as soon as reasonably practicable, to all relevant Noteholders.

Following the occurrence of an Event of Default in relation to a Series of Secured Notes, a Noteholder (or the Representative of the Masse in the case of French Law Notes acting pursuant to the request of a Noteholder) may give written notice to the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, that the Notes held by such Noteholder (or by a Noteholder represented by the Representative of the Masse in the case of French Law Notes) are immediately due and repayable at their Early Redemption Amount (as defined in the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes) (the delivery of such a notice being hereafter referred to as a Secured Note Acceleration Event).
If a Secured Note Acceleration Event occurs in relation to one or more Secured Notes (such Notes being Accelerated Secured Notes), all Secured Notes which are secured by the same Collateral Pool as the one securing such Accelerated Secured Note(s) will also become immediately due and repayable at their Early Redemption Amount. This applies both in the case of a Single Series Collateral Pool and in the case of a Multiple Series Collateral Pool.

Following the occurrence of a Secured Note Acceleration Event, the Issuer or failing which the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, shall give notice in accordance with Condition 13 of the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes, as soon as reasonably practicable to all relevant Noteholders of one or more Secured Notes which are secured by the same Collateral Pool as such Noteholders.

4.2 Enforcement and Realisation of Collateral Assets

Following the occurrence of a Secured Note Acceleration Event in relation to a Secured Note, the Pledge Agreement relating to the Collateral Pool securing such Series of Secured Notes will not become immediately enforceable, but instead Noteholders whose Notes have become immediately due and repayable in accordance with Condition 4.1 will initially be entitled to claim for any outstanding amounts due to them under the terms of the Guarantee.

If the amounts due to the Noteholders of a Series of Secured Notes in relation to which a Secured Note Acceleration Event has occurred have not been paid within a period of three (3) Collateral Business Days following notification to Noteholders of the occurrence of such Secured Note Acceleration Event, any Noteholder of such Series (or the Representative of the Masse in the case of French Law Notes acting pursuant to the request of a holder of Notes of such Series) will be entitled to send a notice in writing to the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, requesting that the relevant Pledge Agreement be enforced in accordance with the terms thereof (a Collateral Enforcement Notice).

Although the Pledge Agreement relating to a particular Collateral Pool may only be enforced following the occurrence of a Secured Note Acceleration Event and after a claim has been made by (or on behalf of) the relevant Noteholders against the Guarantor under the Guarantee, the security provided pursuant to the relevant Pledge Agreement remains security granted by the Issuer in relation to the Issuer's payment obligations under the Secured Notes and does not secure the payment obligations of the Guarantor under the Guarantee.

The Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, shall, following receipt of a Collateral Enforcement Notice, promptly give notice of the same to the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Collateral Agent or the Collateral Manager (as applicable), the Collateral Custodian and the other Noteholders whose Notes are secured on the Collateral Pool in relation to which such Collateral Enforcement Notice relates.

Upon receipt of a Collateral Enforcement Notice, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, will enforce the relevant Pledge Agreement relating to the relevant Collateral Pool in accordance with the terms thereof and these Additional Terms and Conditions (as completed by the applicable Final Terms) and will:

(i) give instructions to the Disposal Agent to liquidate or realise the Collateral Assets in each Collateral Pool which secures a Series of Secured Notes in accordance with Condition 4.4 and subsequently distribute the relevant Collateral Enforcement Proceeds Share to relevant Noteholders in accordance with Condition 4.5 or

(ii) where (a) Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, or (b) "Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets " is not specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, but only in relation to any Collateral Assets qualifying as Non-Realised Collateral Assets, arrange for delivery of the relevant Collateral Assets Entitlement to the relevant Noteholders in accordance with Condition 4.7, in each case after payment of any amounts payable to the Secured Parties ranking prior to the holders of the Non-Waived Notes in accordance with the Order of Priority, (such amounts to be paid either out of the proceeds of such liquidation or realisation of Collateral Assets or out of the proceeds transferred by the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 4.7).

4.3 Enforcement and Realisation by Noteholders

No Noteholder or the Representative of the Masse in the case of French Law Notes shall be entitled to enforce a Pledge Agreement or to proceed directly against the Issuer to enforce the other provisions of a Pledge Agreement unless the Security Trustee or the Security Agent having become bound to enforce or proceed, fails to do so within a reasonable time and such failure is continuing or if the Security Trustee or the Security Agent is prevented from enforcing a Pledge Agreement by any court order.

4.4 Method of realisation of Collateral Assets

Subject as may otherwise be provided for in these Additional Terms and Conditions or the applicable Final Terms, the Security Trustee, the Security Agent, as the case may be or the Disposal Agent acting on their behalf may sell the Collateral Assets in one single tranche or in smaller tranches as it considers appropriate in order to attempt reasonably to maximise the proceeds from such sale. The Security Trustee, the Security Agent, as the case may be, or the Disposal Agent acting on their behalf may affect sales of the Collateral Assets (i) on any securities exchange or quotation service on which the Collateral Assets may be listed or quoted, (ii) on the over-the-counter market or (iii) in transactions otherwise than on such exchanges or on the over-the counter market.

In general, the Security Trustee and the Security Agent shall be able to exercise any right regarding the realisation of the Collateral Assets in accordance with (i) the relevant Pledge Agreement and (ii) (a) where the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Standard Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms, in accordance with article 11 of the Collateral Act 2005, or (b) where the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms, in accordance with the Belgian Financial Collateral Law and the Belgian MAS Law, including but not limited to the appropriation of the Collateral Assets at their appropriation value as determined in the relevant Pledge Agreement.

Where the Security Trustee, the Security Agent, as the case may be or the Disposal Agent acting on their behalf is required or requested to dispose of any Collateral Assets other than on any securities exchange or quotation service on which the Collateral Assets may be listed or quoted then:

(a) the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, or the Disposal Agent acting on their behalf shall seek firm bid quotations from at least three independent dealers in assets similar in nature to the relevant Collateral Assets (and, for such purpose, it may seek quotations in respect of such Collateral Assets in their entirety or in respect of designated tranches thereof, as it considers appropriate in order to maximise the proceeds of the sale of such Collateral Assets);

(b) for the purposes of obtaining the quotations referred to in (a) above, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, or the Disposal Agent acting on their behalf may itself provide a bid in respect of the relevant Collateral Assets or any tranche thereof; and

(c) the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, or the Disposal Agent acting on their behalf shall be authorised to accept in respect of each relevant tranche or, as applicable, the entirety of the relevant Collateral Assets the highest quotation so obtained (which may be a quotation from the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be,or the Disposal Agent acting on their behalf (and when providing such quotations themselves, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, or the Disposal Agent shall act in a commercially reasonable manner).

4.5 Application and distribution of proceeds of enforcement

Unless "Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in connection with the enforcement of a Pledge Agreement, after the realisation and liquidation in full of all the Collateral Assets in a Collateral Pool in accordance with Condition 4.4, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent shall use the proceeds of such realisation and liquidation of the Collateral Assets to make payment of any amounts payable to the Secured Parties ranking prior to the holders of Non-Waived Notes in accordance with the Order of Priority specified in the applicable Final Terms.

The net proceeds of realisation of, or enforcement with respect to, the Collateral Assets in a Collateral Pool following payment of all amounts payable to the Secured Parties ranking prior to the holders of Non-Waived Notes in accordance with the Order of Priority specified in the applicable Final Terms, constitutes the Collateral Enforcement Proceeds from which, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent shall determine the Collateral Enforcement Proceeds Share in respect of each Secured Note and shall notify such amounts to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 of the General Terms and Conditions, as applicable.

The Security Trustee or the Security Agent will determine the Collateral Enforcement Proceeds Share in respect of a Series of Secured Notes, by calculating the pro rata share of the Aggregate Collateral Enforcement Proceeds Share attributable to each Secured Note in such Series of Secured Notes.

Where:

Aggregate Collateral Enforcement Proceeds Share means, in respect of a Series of Secured Notes, the product of the Collateral Ratio applicable to such Series of Secured Notes and the Collateral Enforcement Proceeds in respect of the Collateral Pool which secures such Series of Secured Notes.

Collateral Ratio means, in respect of a Series of Secured Notes, the amount (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Final Required Collateral Value applicable to such Series of Secured Notes divided by the Pool Aggregate Final Required Collateral Value applicable to the Collateral Pool which secures such Series of Secured Notes. In case of Single Series Collateral Pool the Collateral Ratio shall be 100 per cent and therefore the Aggregate Collateral Enforcement Proceeds Shares is equal to the Collateral Enforcement Proceeds in respect of such Collateral Pool.

Final Required Collateral Value means the Required Collateral Value for a Series of Secured Notes as calculated by the Collateral Monitoring Agent or the Tripartite Collateral Agent (as applicable) at the Collateral Test Date immediately preceding the delivery of a Collateral Enforcement Notice.

Pool Aggregate Final Required Collateral Value means, in respect of a Multiple Series Collateral Pool, the aggregate of the Final Required Collateral Value of each Series of Secured Notes which is secured by such Collateral Pool. Subject as provided below, the remaining proceeds from the realisation of the Collateral Assets in a Collateral Pool will then be applied in meeting the claims of Noteholders under the Secured Notes which are secured by the relevant Collateral Pool (taking into account any amounts which have been paid to Noteholders by the Guarantor pursuant to the terms of the Guarantee) pro rata to the Collateral Enforcement Proceeds Share of each such Secured Note.

Such claim will be adjusted in accordance with the following rules:

- If the Collateral Enforcement Proceeds Share for a particular Secured Note is greater than the difference between (A) the amount due to such Noteholder, by the Issuer in respect of the Notes, or by the Guarantor under the terms of the Guarantee and (B) any amounts which have been paid to such Noteholder by the Issuer or the Guarantor in respect of this particular Secured Note, (the positive difference, if any, between (A) and (B)being the Owed Amount), then such excess amount will not be distributed to such Noteholder but will be distributed to the Secured Parties ranking after the holders of Non-Waived Notes, and the balance (if any) remaining after such distribution will be returned to the Issuer in accordance with the Order of Priority specified in the applicable Final Terms;

- otherwise, if the Collateral Enforcement Proceeds Share for a particular Secured Note is lower than, the Owed Amount then, in accordance with Condition 2.6.1, such Noteholder shall not be entitled to any further recourse against the Issuer any part of the Owed Amount remaining unpaid after enforcement of the relevant Security Interests and distribution of the proceeds thereof in accordance with this Condition 4.5, it being understood that the Noteholder may claim for the payment of such unpaid amounts from the Guarantor under the terms of the Guarantee.

Order of Priority means the order specified in the applicable Final Terms following which the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, shall apply moneys received following enforcement of the relevant Pledge Agreement in accordance with Condition 4. The Order of Priority may be the Standard Order of Priority (as defined below) or any alternative order between item (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) below, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

(a) payment or satisfaction of all Liabilities incurred by or payable by the Issuer or Guarantor, in relation to the relevant Secured Notes, to the Security Trustee or the Security Agent (as the case may be) or the Representative of the Masse or, where applicable, the Disposal Agent and/or Substitute Paying Agent (which shall include any taxes required to be paid, the costs of realising any security (including the distribution of enforcement proceeds and/or, where Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets is applicable, Delivery of the Collateral Assets Entitlement to the Noteholders of the related Secured Notes) and the remuneration of the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, or, where applicable, the Disposal Agent and/or Substitute Paying Agent);

(b) payment of any amounts due to be paid or reimbursed to the Collateral Manager, the Collateral Custodian, and the Collateral Monitoring Agent or to the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agent (as applicable) by the Issuer;

(c) payment of any amounts due to holders of Non-Waived Notes in accordance with Condition 4.5;

(d) pro rata payment of any amounts owed to the creditors (if any) whose claims have arisen as a result of the creation, operation or liquidation of the Collateral Assets (save to the extent that the claims of any such creditor fall within paragraphs (a) to (c) above; and;

(e) payment of the balance (if any) to the Issuer;

the Standard Order of Priority means that the Order of Priority shall follow the order (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) specified above.

4.6 Inability to realise Collateral Assets

If the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, or the Disposal Agent acting on their behalf is unable to sell the Collateral Assets on any securities exchange or quotation service on which the Collateral Assets may be listed or quoted or obtain the three quotations required for the sale of one or more Collateral Assets, in each case pursuant to Condition 4.4, for a period of one year from the date of the relevant Secured Note Acceleration Event (such Collateral Assets being Non-Realised Collateral Assets), then in lieu of cash settlement of such Non-Realised Collateral Assets and notwithstanding any other provision hereof, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be,shall be entitled to Deliver, or procure the Delivery of, such Non-Realised Collateral Assets to the relevant Noteholders in accordance with Condition 4.7 and the Order of Priority specified in the applicable Final Terms.

If Delivery of any Non-Realised Collateral Assets is not possible due to the occurrence of a Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets Disruption Event (as defined below) that is continuing for a period of more than 20 Collateral Business Days, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, or the Disposal Agent on their behalf, shall be entitled to either (i) sell such Non-Realised Collateral Assets by accepting the first available price for such Non-Realised Collateral Assets or (ii) Deliver such Non-Realised Collateral Assets if Delivery subsequently becomes possible.

A Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets Disruption Event means any event beyond the control of the Issuer, the Collateral Agent, the Collateral Custodian, the Substitute Paying Agent, the Disposal Agent, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as applicable, as a result of which the relevant Clearing System (as defined in the applicable Final Terms) cannot Deliver some or all of the Collateral Assets Entitlement required to be delivered pursuant to the terms of these Additional Terms and Conditions.

4.7 Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets

Where "Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets" is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms, it means that upon enforcement of a Pledge Agreement, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, will not sell, or cause to be sold, the Collateral Assets (unless there is a Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets Disruption Event and except in order to pay any amounts payable to the Secured Parties ranking prior to the holders of Non-Waived Notes in accordance with the Order of Priority specified in the applicable Final Terms) but will instead appropriate the Collateral Assets and deliver or cause to be delivered the Collateral Assets Entitlement to each Noteholder in the manner set out in this Condition 4.7. In such case, following enforcement of a Pledge Agreement, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, will determine the Collateral Assets Entitlement in respect of each Secured Note and shall notify such amounts to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 of the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes, as applicable.

Where:

Collateral Assets Entitlement means, for each Non-Waived Note in a Series of Secured Notes Collateral Assets with a value (based on the market valuations of such assets by the Collateral Agent or the Collateral Manager on the Collateral Test Date immediately preceding the delivery of the Collateral Enforcement Notice) equal to (a) the product of (i) the Collateral Ratio applicable to such Series of Secured Notes and (ii) the Final Collateral Value in respect of the Collateral Pool which secures such Series of Secured Notes divided by (b) the number of Non-Waived Notes of such Series of Secured Notes;

Final Collateral Value means the Collateral Value determined by the Collateral Agent or the Collateral Manager on the Collateral Test Date immediately preceding the delivery of a Collateral Enforcement Notice less any amounts payable to the Secured Parties ranking prior to the holders of Non-Waived Notes in accordance with the Order of Priority specified in the applicable Final Terms;

Subject as provided below, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, will either:

- realise and liquidate sufficient Collateral Assets in accordance with Condition 4.4, to ensure payment of any amounts payable to the Secured Parties ranking prior to the holders of Non-Waived Notes in accordance with the Order of Priority specified in the applicable Final Terms, or

- upon transfer of sufficient funds by the Noteholders, pay any such amount payable to the Secured Parties ranking prior to the holders of Non-Waived Notes in accordance with the Order of Priority specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Following such payment, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, as the case may be, will notify Noteholders of the relevant Collateral Delivery Date and will Deliver the Collateral Assets Entitlement to the Noteholders of the Secured Notes secured by the relevant Collateral Pool in accordance with the method of transfer of Collateral Assets specified in the applicable Final Terms, subject to the following provisions:

- If the market value of the Collateral Assets contained in a Collateral Assets Entitlement (based on the valuations of the market value of such assets by the Collateral Agent or the Collateral Manager on the Collateral Test Date immediately preceding the delivery of the Collateral Enforcement Notice) for a particular Secured Note is greater than the Owed Amount then assets from the Collateral Assets Entitlement for a value equal to such excess amount will be liquidated and the proceeds thereof will then be distributed to the Secured Parties ranking after the holders of Non-Waived Notes in accordance with the Order of Priority specified in the applicable Final Terms; and any Collateral Assets Entitlements remaining after such distribution will be returned to the Issuer in accordance with the Order of Priority specified in the applicable Final Terms;

- otherwise, when the market value of the Collateral Assets contained in a Collateral Assets Entitlement (based on the valuations of the market value of such assets by the Collateral Monitoring Agent and the Collateral Manager on the Collateral Test Date immediately preceding the delivery of the Collateral Enforcement Notice) for a particular Secured Note is lower than the Owed Amount, then, in accordance with Condition 2.5.1 such Noteholder shall not be entitled to any further recourse against the Issuer for such shortfall amount, but may claim any payment of such shortfall amount from the Guarantor under the terms of the Guarantee.

4.8 Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets Disruption Event

4.8.1 If, in the opinion of the Substitute Paying Agent, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent, Delivery of all or some of the Collateral Assets forming part of the Collateral Assets Entitlement using the method of Delivery specified in the applicable Final Terms, or such other commercially reasonable manner as the Substitute Paying Agent, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent has determined, is not practicable by reason of a Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets Disruption Event having occurred and continuing on any Collateral Delivery Date, then such Collateral Delivery Date shall be postponed to the first following Collateral Business Day in respect of which there is no such Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets Disruption Event, provided that the Substitute Paying Agent or the Security Trustee , the Security Agent may elect to Deliver the Collateral Assets forming part of the Collateral Assets Entitlement in such other commercially reasonable manner as it may select and in such event the Collateral Delivery Date shall be such day as the Substitute Paying Agent, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent deems appropriate in connection with Delivery of the Collateral Assets forming part of the Collateral Assets Entitlement.

For the avoidance of doubt, where a Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets Disruption Event affects some but not all of the Collateral Assets forming part of the Collateral Assets Entitlement due to be delivered to a Noteholder, the Collateral Delivery Date for those Collateral Assets forming part of the Collateral Assets Entitlement which are able to be Delivered will be the Collateral Delivery Date on which such Collateral Assets are delivered.

4.8.2 If a Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets Disruption Event occurs and is continuing for a period of more than 20 Collateral Business Days (or such other period specified in the applicable Final Terms), then in lieu of physical settlement and notwithstanding any other provision hereof, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent or the Disposal Agent acting on their behalf, shall sell or realise the assets they are unable to deliver (the Undeliverable Collateral Assets) and deliver the proceeds thereof to Noteholders in the manner set out in Conditions 4.4 and 4.5.

4.8.3 If the Security Trustee, the Security Agent or the Disposal Agent acting on their behalf is unable to either (i) sell the Collateral Assets on any securities exchange or quotation service on which the Collateral Assets may be listed or quoted or obtain the three quotations required for the sale of the Collateral Assets, in each case pursuant to Condition 4.4 or (ii) Deliver such Collateral Assets due to the continuation of a Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets Disruption Event, for a period of one year from the date of the relevant Secured Note Acceleration Event, the Security Trustee, the Security Agent or the Disposal Agent shall be entitled to accept the first available price for such Collateral Assets.

The Security Trustee or the Security Agent or the Substitute Paying Agent on their behalf, shall give notice as soon as practicable to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 of the General Terms and Conditions of the Notes, as applicable, that a Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets Disruption Event has occurred. No Noteholder shall be entitled to any payment in respect of the relevant Secured Notes in the event of any delay in the Delivery of the Collateral Assets forming part of the Collateral Assets Entitlement due to the occurrence of a Physical Delivery of Collateral Assets Disruption Event and no liability in respect thereof shall attach to the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Disposal Agent, the Security Trustee or the Security Agent.

4.9 Liability of the Security Trustee and the Security Agent

Neither the Security Trustee nor the Security Agent will, in the absence of negligence, fraud and wilful misconduct, have any liability as to the consequence of any enforcement or realisation action and neither will have regard to the effect of such action on individual Noteholders.

5. REPLACEMENT OF PROGRAMME PARTIES

Each of the Collateral Agency Agreement, the Collateral Monitoring Agency Agreement, the Collateral Custodian Agreement, the Tripartite Collateral Monitoring Agreement, the Securities Valuation Agency Agreement, the Disposal Agency Agreement, the Substitute Paying Agency Agreement and the Security Agency Agreement and each relevant Pledge Agreement and Security Trust Deed contain, or will contain, provisions for the termination of such agreement and, as the case may be, the removal or replacement of the role of the relevant Collateral Arrangement Party appointed thereunder. Any such termination, removal and/or replacement will be effected in accordance with the provisions of such agreements and these Additional Terms and Conditions and may be effected without the consent of Noteholders. No such termination or removal shall be effective until a replacement entity has been appointed. The Issuer shall be required to give notice to Noteholders of any such termination, removal and/or replacement in accordance with Condition 13 of the General Terms and Conditions, as applicable.

If either the Framework Agreement, the Collateral Management Service Module or the Collateral Custodian Service Module is terminated, not at the initiative of the Issuer, prior to the Maturity Date (or, in case of Open-ended Notes, the last Optional Redemption Date) of a Secured Note, the Calculation Agent may then appoint a suitable successor to the party terminating such agreement. If the substitute Framework Agreement and/or Collateral Management Service Module and/or Collateral Custodian Service Module are not effective on the date on which the termination of the Framework Agreement and/or the Collateral Management Service Module and/or Collateral Custodian Service Module becomes effective, the Collateral Manager and/or the Collateral Custodian shall continue to perform their duties until a suitable successor can be duly appointed. If, after commercially reasonable endeavours, no such successor can be appointed up to three years after the notice of termination has been given of the relevant agreement, the Calculation Agent may then consider such event as an event triggering an early redemption of the Notes (hereafter, an Early Redemption Event). Where an Early Redemption Event occurs, the Issuer shall terminate its obligations under the Notes and shall pay or cause to be paid, an Early Redemption Amount on the basis of the Market Value as defined in Condition 6.3 of the General Terms and Conditions.

The replacement of the Collateral Custodian may only be effected when certain conditions relating to the substitute Collateral Custodian are fulfilled. Such conditions include, but are not limited to a requirement that: (i) the substitute Collateral Custodian is incorporated in an Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) member country, (ii) the substitute Collateral Custodian is a fully licensed credit institution in the European Union (EU), (iii) in the reasonable opinion of the Issuer and the Arranger, the substitute Collateral Custodian is able to act as Collateral Custodian and fulfil the obligations and duties expressed to be binding on it pursuant to the terms of the Collateral Custodian Agreement and (iv) the substitute Collateral Custodian is chosen from a pre-established list of entities (including Citi, HSBC, JP Morgan, Northern Trust, RBC Dexia Investor Services, BP2S, State Street or Wells Fargo & Company Inc) or otherwise is a custodial entity of similar repute and good standing.

6. SWITCH OF THE COLLATERAL STRUCTURE AT THE OPTION OF THE ISSUER

If the applicable Final Terms specify that Type of Collateral Structure is "Standard Collateral Structure", the Issuer shall have the right to switch the Collateral Structure from the Standard Collateral Structure to the Tripartite Collateral Structure, as described below.

The Issuer may, by giving 2 Business Days' prior notice (which shall be irrevocable) to the Noteholders (in accordance with Condition 13), to the relevant Collateral Arrangement Parties, and to the other Secured Parties (such notice being a "Switch Notice"), change the Type of Collateral Structure of a Series of Secured Notes from "Standard Collateral Structure" to "Tripartite Collateral Structure" without requiring the consent of the Noteholders or any other Secured Parties (such a unilateral amendment of the Type of Collateral Structure, a "Switch", and the Series of Secured Notes of which the Type of Collateral Structure is amended, the "Switched Notes"). The Switch Notice to be delivered by the Issuer shall specify the time and date on which the switch shall become effective, which will need to be a Collateral Business Day (the "Switch Effective Time") and the Collateral Pool by which the Switched Notes will be secured following the Switch (the "New Collateral Pool").

The Switch shall automatically become effective at the Switch Effective Time, provided that before the Switch Effective Time:

(a) (i) the Issuer shall have opened a new Collateral Account with BNY Belgium as Collateral Custodian and have created a first-ranking right of pledge for the benefit of the Secured Parties in respect of such Switched Notes by entering into a Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure in relation to such Collateral Account and, in the case of English Law Notes, a Tripartite Security Trust Deed, and the Issuer shall have transferred (or have procured the transfer of) Eligible Collateral Assets having a Collateral Value at least equal to the last Required Collateral Value calculated prior to the Switch Effective Time in respect of the Switched Notes to the Collateral Account; or

(ii) if the Switched Notes will be secured by a Collateral Account holding a Multiple Series Collateral Pool in respect of which the Issuer has already entered into entered into a Pledge Agreement for the Tripartite Collateral Structure and provided that the Switched Notes are capable of being secured by the relevant Multiple Series Collateral Pool, the Issuer shall have delivered an Extension Notice to the relevant Pledgee in respect of such Multiple Series Collateral Pool and the relevant Pledgee shall have confirmed its agreement to extend the benefit of the existing security interest over the Multiple Series Collateral Pool to the Switched Notes and the Secured Parties thereunder, and the Issuer shall have transferred (or have procured the transfer of) an amount of Eligible Collateral Assets which, in the reasonable opinion of the Issuer, will ensure that the Collateral Test shall remain satisfied in respect of the relevant Multiple Series Collateral Pool immediately following the Switch; and

(b) the Issuer shall have given any requisite notices and shall have taken all necessary steps to perfect and render effective the first-ranking right of pledge created in accordance with (a)(i) above or extended in accordance with (a)(ii) above as against the Collateral Custodian and any relevant third parties.

When the Switch has taken place in accordance with the foregoing:

(a) as from the Switch Effective Time, the Switched Notes will automatically and by operation of law constitute a Series of Notes in respect of which the Type of Collateral Structure is specified as "Tripartite Collateral Structure" in the applicable Final Terms and all references in the Conditions of the Switched Notes to a "Collateral Pool" shall henceforth be construed as referring to the New Collateral Pool; and

(b) the Issuer and the Pledgee under the Pledge Agreement for the Standard Collateral Structure previously entered into in relation to the Switched Notes will promptly take all necessary steps to arrange for the full or partial release (as applicable) of the security interest created under such Pledge Agreement for the Standard Collateral Structure.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR PREFERENCE SHARE LINKED NOTES

The provisions of these Additional Terms and Conditions for Preference Share Linked Notes apply if the applicable Final Terms specify that the clause "Type of Structured Notes" is stated as being "Preference Share Linked Notes".

Global Multiasset Strategy EUR Index
(EUR – Excess Return)

Index Rules

Version as of April 24th, 2018

Index Rules Summary

1.1 Index Description

The Global Multiasset Strategy EUR Index (the "Index") is a rules-based index that tracks the performance of a systematic basket of multi-asset Indices (each a "Basket Component", together the "Underlying Basket") based on rolling futures, with a volatility control mechanism. Specifically, the Index employs an algorithmic and rules-based strategy that maximizes the expected return of the Underlying Basket under volatility and weights constraints. The Index adjusts its exposure to the Underlying Basket in order to maintain its volatility close to a pre-defined target level of 6%. The exposure of the Index to the Underlying Basket can reach a maximum of 150% of the level of the Index. The Index is calculated net of a fee of 2% per annum, accrued daily.

The Index is calculated and published by S&P Opco, LLC (a subsidiary of S&P Dow Jones Indices LLC) (the "Index Calculation Agent") and is sponsored by Société Générale (the "Index Sponsor").

Main Characteristics

Bloomberg ticker:	IND1GMAS <Index>
Type of Return:	Excess Return
Calculation Frequency:	Daily
Publication Time:	End of Day
Index Launch Date:	01/03/2018
Currency:	EUR
Fees and Costs:	As specified under the "Index Fees and Costs" section below

Index Asset Class:	Multi-Asset
Index Components:	Underlying SGI Indices and Market Data

1.2 Mechanism

1.2.1 Index Composition

The Index is composed of a basket of multiasset Indices, each replicating a rolling position on futures, where the weightings assigned to each of the Basket Components are determined on a quarterly basis in accordance with a methodology described under 1.2.2 below. The Basket Components are described in Appendix 1.

The Basket Components will each be foreign exchange daily hedged into EUR.

In order to keep the risks associated with the Index under a certain limit, the Index also includes a volatility control mechanism, where the exposure of the Index to the Underlying Basket varies on a daily basis in accordance with input parameters described under 1.2.3 below.

1.2.2 Composition and Monthly Review of the Underlying Basket

The composition of and allocations within the Underlying Basket are reviewed on a quarterly basis according to a systematic optimization that aims at maximizing the one-year expected return of the Underlying Basket under the following volatility and weights constraints:

- The Underlying Basket volatility should be less than or equal to 6%
- Each Basket Component weight should be less than or equal to 30%
- A maximum weight is also set per asset class as per the table in Appendix 2

The resulting weightings are applied to the Basket Components so as to determine the composition of the Underlying Basket.

1.2.3 Daily "Vol Target" Mechanism

The Index is constructed pursuant to a daily volatility target process where the deemed exposure of the Index to the Underlying Basket (the "Exposure") is based on a formula using the following input parameters:

(i) the short term historical volatility of the Underlying Basket;
(ii) a target volatility of 6%; and
(iii) the historical volatility of the Index itself;

so that, in most cases:
- when the short-term historical volatility of the Underlying Basket exceeds 6%, the Exposure will generally be less than 100% (subject to a minimum Exposure of 0%);
- when the short-term historical volatility of the Underlying Basket falls below 6%, the Exposure will generally be greater than 100% (subject to a maximum leveraged Exposure of 150%).

1.3 Index Fees and Costs

The Index is calculated net of the following fees and costs:

These fixed costs correspond to costs that would be incurred by a Hypothetical Replicating Party replicating long positions in the Basket Components for purposes of replicating the strategy of the Underlying Basket. $$\frac{IHV(t)}{126}^2$$

$$TV$$

Where $\alpha(t)=\mathrm{Min}(N(t_{ib},t),126)$

b) For any Calculation Date on or before the Index Launch Date ($t \leq t_{IB}+2$) :

$$VAF(t)=1$$

2.13 Determination of the Exposure "E(t)":

The Exposure is, in respect of Calculation Date (t), determined as follows:

2.14 Determination of the Aggregate Transaction Cost, "TC(t)":

The Aggregate Transaction Cost in respect of a Calculation Date (t) is determined as follows: For any Calculation Date

$t \geq t_{IB}$:

With, 0

$$TC(t_{IB}) = \sum_{i=1}^{11} C_i \times ABS\left(IL(t_{IB}) \times E(t_{IB}) \times W(i,t_{RR}(t_{IB})-3) \times \frac{UBL(t_{RR}(t_{IB})-3)}{UBL(t_{IB})} \times \frac{BCLEUR(t_{IB})}{BCLEUR(t_{RR}(t_{IB})-3)}\right)$$

3 Determination of the Basket Components Weights

3.1 Weights Allocation

On each Review Date, the Index Calculation Agent will determine the Basket Component weights by solving the following optimization problem:

$$W(t) = \begin{pmatrix} W(1,t) \\ \cdots \\ W(N,t) \end{pmatrix} = \operatorname{argmax} X^T \mu(t)$$

Under the constraints:

$$\begin{cases} X(i) \leq 30\% \ \ for\ i = 1, \ldots, 11 \\ X(i) \geq 0\% \ \ for\ i = 1, \ldots, 11 \\ \sum_{i=1}^{4} X(i) \leq 100\% \\ \sum_{i=5}^{7} X(i) \leq 30\% \\ \sum_{i=8}^{11} X(i) \leq 60\% \\ \sqrt{X^T \sum(t) X} \leq 6\% \\ \sum_{i=1}^{11} X(i) = 100\% \end{cases}$$

Where:

$\mu(t)$ is the 240 Calculation Dates historical return vector on Calculation Date t:

$$\mu(t) = \begin{pmatrix} \mu(1,t) \\ \cdots \\ \mu(N,t) \end{pmatrix}$$

with,

$$\mu(i,t) = \frac{BCLEUR(i,t)}{BCLEUR(i,t-240)} - 1$$ and $\sum(t)$ is the 240 Calculation Dates historical covariance matrix Calculation Date t:

1.2.2 Composition and Annual Review of the Underlying Basket

The following process is put in place to construct the composition of the Underlying Basket that could potentially benefit from the European Commission's Green Deal:

3. Review of the Underlying Basket Components Weights

3.1 Underlying Basket Components

The Underlying Basket Components are determined by the Equity Research Department of Société Générale in accordance with the following principle:

I. The following four policy areas from the European Commission's Green Dea are identified as most beneficial for European companies:

(i) Clean Energy;
(ii) Sustainable Mobility;
(iii) Building and Renovation;
(iv) Circular Economy.

II. The following European subsectors are identified as those that could benefit most from the potential investments made by the above four policy areas:

(i) Clean Energy: Renewable Energy Generation, Wind Energy Equipment, Electrification;
(ii) Sustainable Mobility: Rail, Electric Vehicles, Hydrogen, Biofuel;
(iii) Building and Renovation: Climate Proofing, Energy Efficiency;
(iv) Circular Economy: Recycling / Waste Management, Reusable and Recycling Packaging

For the avoidance of doubt, such subsectors will be reassessed during each annual review and may be updated if deemed necessary by the Equity Research Department of Société Générale.

III. Companies belonging to the above sectors are identified;

IV. The stocks with a 3-month average daily trading volume less than 5 million euros or companies with a market capitalization lower than 500 million euro are excluded;

V. The stocks with poor environmental score, i.e. companies in the third tier of the environmental score are excluded. Companies with no score remains in the composition for the avoidance of doubt.

VI. The companies with less than 20% revenue exposure to Europe are excluded.

The backtest period of the Index is 2 years before the Index Launch Date. The Underlying Basket as of the Index Launch Date shall be used for backtest purpose.

3.2 Weighting Determination and Rebalancing

3.2.1 Annual Review and Rebalancing

The Equity Research Department of Société Générale intends to review the above principles at the Annual Review Date of each year, and the composition of the Underlying Basket will be updated accordingly. Such updates shall be published on the SGI website https://sgi.sgmarkets.com/.

Following the annual review of the Index, the rebalancing will occur on 5 consecutive Annual Rebalancing Dates consequently. The Target Weight of each Underlying Basket Component is determined such that the Underlying Basket is equally weighted.

In respect of a Calculation Date (t) that is the Nth Rebalancing Date and Underlying Basket Component (i), the Underlying Basket Component Weight is determined as follows:

$$W^{N}(i,t) = TW(i, t_{REV-1}(t)) +$$

$$N \times (TW(i, t_{REV}(t)) - TW(i, t_{REV-1}(t))) \quad 5$$

Such Underlying Basket Component Weights shall be implemented on the close of the relevant Annual Rebalancing Date and effective on the open of the immediately following Calculation Date.

3.2.2 Monthly Rebalancing

On each of the Monthly Rebalancing Date, the Underlying Basket will be rebalanced to equally weighted on the close the Monthly Rebalancing Date and effective on the open of the immediately following Calculation Date.

3.2.1 Annual Review, Exceptional Review, and Rebalancing

The Equity Research Department of Société Générale intends to review the above principles at the Annual Review Date of each year, and from time to time, exceptionally in-between, and the composition of the Underlying Basket will be updated accordingly. Such updates shall be published on the SGI website https://sgi.sgmarkets.com/.

Following the annual or exceptional review of the Index, the rebalancing will occur on 5 consecutive Annual Rebalancing Dates or Exceptional Rebalancing Dates consequently. The Target Weight of each Underlying Basket Component is determined such that the Underlying Basket is equally weighted.

In respect of a Calculation Date (t) that is the N[th] Rebalancing Date and Underlying Basket Component (i), the Underlying Basket Component Weight is determined as follows:

$$W^N(i,t) = TW(i, t_{REV-1}(t)) + \frac{N \times (TW(i, t_{REV}(t)) - TW(i, t_{REV-1}(t)))}{5}$$

Such Underlying Basket Component Weights shall be implemented on the close of the relevant Annual Rebalancing Date or Exceptional Rebalancing Date as the case may be, and effective on the open of the immediately following Calculation Date.

3.2.2 Monthly Rebalancing

On each of the Monthly Rebalancing Date, the Underlying Basket will be rebalanced to restore the equally weighted allocation on the close the Monthly Rebalancing Date with effect on the open of the immediately following Calculation Date.

3.2.3 Extraordinary Rebalancing

An extraordinary rebalancing can be triggered following an SG Groupe Policy Extraordinary Event, in order to remove Underlying Basket Component in breach of SG Group Policies.

"SG Groupe Policy Extraordinary Event" and "SG Group Policies" shall have the meaning in the SGI Global Methodology.

3. Review, Rebalancing and Calculation of the Index Level

3.1. Index Universe

The Index Universe corresponds to any Share of a Company belonging to the AI and Robotics sector, pursuant to the AI & Robotics Business Industry Classification independently administered and maintained by the Equity Research Department of Société Générale and available on the website: https://www.sgmarkets.com/

3.2. Index Review and Rebalancing

The review of the allocation is performed by the Index Sponsor on each Review Date (t_{RW}) based on a systematic model as described below.

3.2.1. Determination of the Eligible Basket Components

In respect of a Review Date (t_{RW}), an Eligible Basket Component is a Share that meets the below criteria:

(i) belong to the Universe as of the Review Date (t_{RW}); and
(ii) having its Eligible Basket Component Turnover greater than the Minimum Turnover on such date.
(iii) if the share is traded on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, the share should be eligible to trade in the Shanghai Stock Exchange (SSE) and the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong (SEHK) Stock Connect program (SSE-SEHK Stock Connect). Only the share tradable via the SSE-SEHK Stock Connect should be kept.
(iv) if the share is traded on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange, the share should be eligible to trade in the Shenzhen Stock Exchange (SZSE) and the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong (SEHK) Stock Connect program (SZSE-SEHK Stock Connect). Only the share tradable via the SSE-SEHK Stock Connect should be kept.
(v) if the share has its Bloomberg field "CNTRY_OF_INCORPORATION" (ID: DX650) equals to "IN" should not be kept.

3.2.2. Determination of the Basket Components

In respect of a Review Date (t_{RW}), the Index Sponsor will select the top 150 ranked Eligible Basket Components in terms of Eligible Basket Components Final Score as determined below. For the avoidance of doubt, any Eligible Basket Component having less than two Eligible Basket Component Scores will be excluded from the Index.

The new allocation will be implemented on the following Rebalancing Dates based on the Basket Component Weights as determined by the Index Calculation Agent on Section 3.2.6.

3.2.3. Determination of the Eligible Basket Component Final Score, "Final Score$_i(t_{RW})$"

The Eligible Basket Component Final Score, in respect of a Review Date (t_{RW}) and an Eligible Basket Component (i), is calculated by the Index Sponsor, according to the following formula:

$$Final\ Score_i(t_{RW}) = \frac{Ind(\sum_{k=1}^{3} Exist(Score_i(k, t_{RW})) > 1)}{\sum_{k=1}^{3} Exist(Score_i(k, t_{RW}))} \times \sum_{k=1}^{3} Smoothed\ Score_i(k, t_{RW}) \times Exist\ (Score_i(k, t_{RW}))$$

Where,

$$Exist(Score_i(k, t_{RW})) = \begin{cases} 1, & if\ Score_i(k, t_{RW})\ is\ available \\ 0, & Otherwise \end{cases}$$

$$Ind\ Cond = \begin{cases} 1, & Cond = True \\ 0, & Cond = False \end{cases}$$

And,

$$Smoothed\ Score_i(k, t_{RW}) = Norm\ Dist\ (ZScore_i(k, t_{RW}))$$

Where,

Norm Dist is the standard cumulative normal distribution function (i.e. with a mean equal to zero and a variance equal to one).

3.2.4. Determination of the Eligible Basket Component Z-Score, "ZScore$_i$(k,t_{RW})"

The Eligible Basket Component Z-Score, in respect of a Review Date (t_{RW}) and an Eligible Basket Component (i), is calculated by the Index Sponsor, according to the following formula:

$$ZScore_i(k, t_{RW}) = \frac{Score_i(k, t_{RW}) - Mean(Score(k, t_{RW}))}{Std\ Dev(Score(k, t_{RW}))}$$

Where,

$$Mean(Score(k, t_{RW})) = \frac{1}{N(k, t_{RW})} \times \sum_{i=1}^{N(k,t_{RW})} Score_i(k, t_{RW})$$

And,

$$Std\ Dev(Score(k, t_{RW})) = \sqrt{\frac{1}{N(k,t_{RW})} \times \sum_{i=1}^{N(k,t_{RW})} [Score_i(k, t_{RW})$$

$) - Mean(Score(k, t$

RW

$\frac{}{N(k, t_{RW}) - 1}$

$i=1$ i RW

RW

3.2.5. Determination of the Basket Components Target Weight, "$TW_i(t_{RW})$"

The Basket Component Target Weight, in respect of a Review Date (t_{RW}) and a Basket Component (i), is calculated by the Index Sponsor, according to the following formula:

$TW_i(t_{RW}$

$) = \frac{\omega_i(t_{RW})}{\sum^{150} \omega\ (t\quad)}$

$k=1$ k RW

Where,

$$\omega_i(t_{RW}) = \begin{cases} Score\ Weight_i(t_{RW}), & ADV_i(t_{RW}) > ADV_{Threshold}(t_{RW}) \\ Min[Score\ Weight\ (t\quad), ADV\ Weight\ (t\quad)], & Otherwise \end{cases}$$

RW i RW

$$Score\ Weight\ (t\quad) = \frac{Final\ Score_i(t_{RW})}{\sum^{150} Final\ Score\ (t\quad)}$$

$k=1$ k RW

i RW

$$ADV\ Weight\ (t\quad) = \frac{WF_i(t_{RW})}{\sum^{150} WF\ (t\quad)}$$

$k=1$ k RW

i RW

And,

$$WF_i(t_{RW}) = \begin{cases} 1, & ADV_i(t_{RW}) > ADV_{Threshold}(t_{RW}) \\ \frac{ADV_i(t_{RW})}{ADV_{Threshold}(t_{RW})}, & Otherwise \end{cases}$$

3.2.6. Determination of the Basket Components Weight, "$W_i(t_R)$"

The Basket Component Weight, in respect of a Rebalancing Date (t_R) and a Basket Component (i), is calculated by the Index Calculation Agent, according to the following formula:

(i) If the Basket Component (i) will exit the Index :

$W^{temp}(t\ ) = W^{Eff}\ (t$ $) \times (1 - \frac{N(t_{REB}, t_R) + 1}{5})$

i REB

i R

(ii) If the Basket Component (i) will enter into the Index :

$$W_R^{temp}(t\ ) = \frac{N(t_{REB}, t_R) + 1}{5} \times TW\ (t\quad)$$

i i RW

(iii) If the Basket Component (i) remains in the Index:

$W^{temp}(t\ ) = W\ (t$

$$) + \frac{N(t_{REB}, t_R) + 1}{5} \times (TW(t) - W(t))$$

$i \quad REB \qquad\qquad i \quad REB \qquad\qquad i \quad R \qquad\qquad i \quad RW$

Finally, we apply the following constraint on the computed weights.

We define :

$$SumWeights_CXGRP(t_R) = \sum_{j \in CXGRP} W^{temp}(t_R)_j$$

And,

$$SumWeights_Not_CXGRP(t_R) = \sum_{j \notin CXGRP} W^{temp}(t_R)_j$$

If $SumWeights_CXGRP(t_R) > 15\%$ then :

We set :

$$W^{Eff}(t_R) = \frac{0.15 \times W_i^{temp}(t_R)}{SumWeights_CXGRP(t_R)}, \forall i \in CXGRP$$

and,

$$W^{Eff}(t) = W^{temp}(t) \times [1 + \frac{SumWeights\ CXGRP(t_R) - 0.15}{SumWeights_Not_CXGRP(t)}], \forall i \notin CXGRP$$

$i \quad R \qquad\qquad i \quad R \qquad\qquad R$

Else :

We set for all Basket Components (i) :

$$W_i^{Eff}(t_R) = W_i^{temp}(t_R)$$

3.3. Index Level Calculation

The Index Level shall be calculated and adjusted by the Index Calculation Agent pursuant to the Standard Formula provided in Solactive Index Guideline.

The withholding tax applicable to dividends is determined pursuant to the reference Index Calculation Agent reference table "Withholding Tax Rates" as amended from time to time thereafter, available from the Index Calculation Agent website at http://www.solactive.com/.

Index Rules

Version as of Dec 1st, 2019

1. Index Rules Summary

1.1 Index Description

The SGI Optimised Portfolio Enhanced Risk Allocation Index (the "Index") is a rules-based index that tracks the performance of a systematic basket of multi-asset Indices (each a "Basket Component", together the "Underlying Basket") based on rolling futures, with a volatility control mechanism. Specifically, the Index employs an algorithmic and rules-based strategy that aims to create a diversified portfolio, while a momentum-based selection restricts the investable universe. The Index adjusts its exposure to the Underlying Basket in order to maintain its volatility close to a pre-defined target level of 4%.

The Index is calculated and published by Compass (the "Index Calculation Agent") and is sponsored by Société Générale (the "Index Sponsor").

1.2 Mechanism

1.2.1 Index Composition

The Index is composed of a basket of multi-asset Indices, each replicating a rolling position on futures, where the weightings assigned to each of the Basket Components are determined on a monthly basis in accordance with a methodology described under 1.2.2 below. The Basket Components are described in Appendix 1. The Basket Components will each be foreign exchange daily hedged into USD.

In order to keep the risk associated with the Index under a certain limit, the Index also includes a volatility control mechanism, where the exposure of the Index to the Underlying Basket varies on a daily basis in accordance with input parameters described under 1.2.3 below.

1.2.2 Composition and Monthly Review of the Underlying Basket

The composition of and allocations within the Underlying Basket are reviewed on a monthly basis according to a momentum filter which selects up to 9 but no less than 4 underlyings out of the universe, followed by a systematic risk allocation algorithm that aims at creating a diversified Underlying Basket. The systematic risk allocation algorithm applies optimization technique to allow selected underlying components achieving equal risk contribution to the portfolio.

The resulting weightings are applied to the Basket Components so as to determine the composition of the Underlying Basket.

1.2.3 Daily "Vol Target" Mechanism

The Index is constructed pursuant to a daily volatility target process where the deemed exposure of the Index to the Underlying Basket (the "Exposure") is based on a formula using the following input parameters:

(i) a target volatility of 4%;
(ii) the historical volatility of the Underlying Basket;
(iii) the historical volatility of the Index Level

so that, in most cases:
- when the historical volatility of the index level exceeds 4%, the Exposure will generally be less than 100%;
- when the historical volatility of the index level falls below 4%, the Exposure will generally be greater than 100%.

1.3 Index Fees and Costs

The Index is calculated net of the following fees and costs:

Fixed Replication Costs:	As per Appendix 1 under RC_i. These fixed costs correspond to costs that would be incurred by a Hypothetical Replicating Party replicating long positions in the Basket Components for purposes of replicating the strategy of the Underlying Basket. These costs are fixed and applied on a daily and accrued basis on the level or price of the Basket Components.
Fixed Transaction Costs:	As per Appendix 1 under C_i. These fixed costs correspond to the execution costs incurred by a Hypothetical Replicating Party related to the deemed purchase or liquidation of Basket Components pursuant to changes in allocations and rebalancings that impact the Index Level upon such reallocations and rebalancing.
Structuring Fee:	0.40% p.a.. This fee is expressed as a percentage of the Index Level and reflects the Index Sponsor's compensation for structuring the Index.

1.4 SGI Global Methodology

The Index is computed and maintained pursuant to these Index Rules which incorporate by reference the SGI Indices Global Methodology (version dated 25 November 2019, as supplemented, amended and restated or replaced from time to time, the "SGI Global Methodology"). The SGI Global Methodology is published on the SGI website under the link "SGI Cross Asset Methodology" at https://sgi.sgmarkets.com. These Index Rules should be read together with the SGI Global Methodology.

Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the SGI Global Methodology.

In the event of any inconsistency between the SGI Global Methodology and the Index Rules, for purposes of the Index, the Index Rules will prevail.

The SGI Global Methodology notably includes important events applicable in respect of the Index Components selected in section 1.1 above.

The SGI Global Methodology shall be reviewed at least annually and is expected to be updated and revised from time to time where necessary or desirable, pursuant to legal developments and for the purpose of enhanced disclosure and technical improvement. The Index Sponsor may also act in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner to amend the SGI Global Methodology in order to cure ambiguities, errors and omissions thereunder. SGI Global Methodology subsequently updated and revised shall be (i) approved in accordance with the Index Sponsor's internal index procedures, (ii) announced under the heading "News" on the SGI website https://sgi.sgmarkets.com and (iii) published in full on such SGI website under the link "SGI Cross Asset Methodology"; upon such publication, the updated SGI Global Methodology shall apply to the Index and these Index Rules.

1.5 Technical Rectification of Index Rules

The Index Rules may be amended from time to time, consistent with the economic strategy of the Index, by the Index Sponsor acting in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner to cure ambiguities, errors and omissions.

For convenience, the Index Sponsor may from time to time replace a data provider, publisher or source of Market Data or Index Data (a "Data Provider"), provided that the relevant data content remains equivalent. In any case where the Index Sponsor reasonably determines that the replacement of a Data Provider is necessary or desirable whilst the data content may not remain strictly equivalent, the Index Sponsor shall select such replacement Data Provider (a) in a commercially reasonable manner, in order to achieve similar Index performance; (b) consistent with the objectives of the Index; and (c) in compliance with the Index Sponsor's internal procedures for Index Rules modification.

3.3 Determination of the Covariance Matrix, "∑(t)"

The Covariance Matrix is computed on the Review Date (t_{Rev}) using 1-day returns for each Underlying Basket Component selected in the allocation (i.e. with a Universe over the last 62 trading days according to the following formula:

If $t = t_{Rev}(t)$,

$$\sum(i,j,t) = \frac{1}{61} \times \sum_{k=0}^{61} (r_i(t-k) - \overline{r_i(t)}) \times (r_j(t-k) - \overline{r_j(t)})$$

Where,

And,

$$\overline{r_i(t)} = \frac{1}{62} \times \sum_{k=0}^{61} r_i(t-k)$$

3.4 Determination of the Basket Component Initial Target Weights, "ITW$_i$(t)"

The ERC Portfolio weights are determined by the Calculation Agent on each Review Date (t_{Rev}) under the following constraints:

- the risk contribution of each portfolio constituent must be equal
- the weighting of each portfolio constituent shall be strictly positive
- the sum of the weightings of the portfolio constituents must be equal to 1

The solution of this problem is endogenous as the weights that satisfy the equal risk contribution objective require the calculation of the portfolio risk which is itself a function of the weights of each portfolio component. The solution can then be found using a sequential quadratic programming algorithm that seeks to minimize the following utility function:

$$y^*(t) = \operatorname{argmin} \sqrt{y^T(t)\Sigma(t)y(t)}$$

$$\begin{cases} \sum_{i \in UII(t)} ln(y_i(t)) \geq 1 \\ y_i(t) > 0 \end{cases}$$

Where,

$$y^(t) = (y^(t))_{i \in UII(t)}$$

The initial target weight for each Basket Component is expressed as:

If $t = t_{Rev}(t)$,

$$ITW_i(t) = \begin{cases} ROUND\left(\frac{y^(t)}{\sum_{i \in UII(t)} y^(t)}, 5\right), & if\ i \in UII(t) \\ 0, & otherwise \end{cases}$$

Otherwise,

$$ITW_i(t) = ITW_i(t-1)$$

Where $ROUND(\cdot, n)$ is the rounding function at the n-th decimal.

For any Calculation (t) > t_s:

Otherwise: IL(t) = 1000

360

$$\frac{\mathrm{ACT}(t-1,t)}{365}$$

2.6.2 Determination of the Sub Index Level, "SIL(t)":

The Gross Index Level, in respect of Calculation Date (t), is calculated by the Index Calculation Agent at the Valuation Time, subject to the occurrence or existence of an Index Disruption Event or an Index Extraordinary Event, according to the following formula:

For any Calculation (t) > t_S - 22:

$$\mathrm{SIL}(t) = \mathrm{SIL}(t-1) \times \left[\frac{\mathrm{CP}(t)}{\mathrm{CP}(t-1)} - \mathrm{R}(t-1) \times \frac{\mathrm{ACT}(t-1,t)}{360}\right]$$

With:

$\mathrm{SIL}(t_S\text{-}22) = 1000$.

2.6.3 Determination of the Aggregate Transaction Cost, "TC(t)":

With $\mathrm{TC}(t_s) = 0$.

2.6.4 Determination of the Historical Volatility "HV(t)":

The Historical Volatility of the Notional Underlying Basket is, in respect of Calculation Date (t), determined by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

$$\mathrm{HV}(t) = \sqrt{\frac{1}{20} \times \sum_{k=0}^{19} \left[\sqrt{\frac{365}{\mathrm{ACT}\ t-k-1, t-k}} \times \ln\left(\frac{\mathrm{SIL}(t-k)}{\mathrm{SIL}(t-k-1)}\right)\right]^2}$$

Where,

"ln" means the logarithm to the base e.

2.6.5 Determination of the Index Historical Volatility "IHV(t)":

The Index Historical Volatility is, in respect of Calculation Date (t), determined by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

Where,

"ln" means the logarithm to the base e, and

α(t) = Min[N(t_s,t);126]

2.6.6 Determination of the Volatility Adjustment Factor "VAF(t)":

The Volatility Adjustment Factor is, in respect of Calculation Date (t), determined by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

a) For any Calculation Date t

≤ t_s: VAF(t) = 1

b) Otherwise:

Where,

α(t) = Min[N(t_s,t) ; 126]

2.6.7 Determination of the Exposure "E(t)":

The Exposure is, in respect of Calculation Date (t), determined as follows: For calculation date $t \geq t_s$:

2.6 Index Calculation Rules:

2.6.1 Determination of the Index Level, "IL(t)":

The Index Level is in respect of Calculation Date (t), calculated by the Index Calculation Agent at the Valuation Time, subject to the occurrence or existence of an Index Disruption Event or an Index Extraordinary Event, according to the following formula:

For any Calculation (t) > t_s:

360

$$\frac{\mathrm{ACT}(t-1,t)}{365}$$

2.6.2 Determination of the Sub Index Level, "SIL(t)":

The Gross Index Level, in respect of Calculation Date (t), is calculated by the Index Calculation Agent at the Valuation Time, subject to the occurrence or existence of an Index Disruption Event or an Index Extraordinary Event, according to the following formula:

For any Calculation (t) > t_S - 22:

$$\mathrm{SIL}(t) = \mathrm{SIL}(t-1) \times \left[\frac{\mathrm{CP}(t)}{\mathrm{CP}(t-1)} - \mathrm{R}(t-1) \times \frac{\mathrm{ACT}(t-1,t)}{360}\right]$$

With:

$\mathrm{SIL}(t_S\text{-}22) = 1000$.

2.6.3 Determination of the Aggregate Transaction Cost, "TC(t)":

The Aggregate Transaction Cost is in respect of a Calculation Date (t), calculated by the Index Calculation Agent at the Valuation Time, subject to the occurrence or existence of an Index Disruption Event or an Index Extraordinary Event, according to the following formula:

With $\mathrm{TC}(t_s) = 0$.

2.6.4 Determination of the Historical Volatility "HV(t)":

The Historical Volatility of the Notional Underlying Basket is, in respect of Calculation Date (t), determined by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

$$\mathrm{HV}(t) = \sqrt{\frac{1}{20} \times \sum_{k=0}^{19} \left[\sqrt{\frac{365}{\mathrm{ACT}\ t-k-1, t-k}} \times \ln\left(\frac{\mathrm{SIL}(t-k)}{\mathrm{SIL}(t-k-1)}\right)\right]^2}$$

Where,

"ln" means the logarithm to the base e.

2.6.5 Determination of the Index Historical Volatility "IHV(t)":

The Index Historical Volatility is, in respect of Calculation Date (t), determined by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

For any Calculation Date (t) ≥ t_s + 1:

Where,

"ln" means the logarithm to the base e, and

α(t) = Min[N(t_s,t);126]

2.6.6 Determination of the Volatility Adjustment Factor "VAF(t)":

The Volatility Adjustment Factor is, in respect of Calculation Date (t), determined by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

a) For any Calculation Date t

≤ t_s: VAF(t) = 1

b) Otherwise:

Where,

α(t) = Min[N(t_s,t) ; 126]

2.6.7 Determination of the Exposure "E(t)":

The Exposure is, in respect of Calculation Date (t), determined as follows: For calculation date $t \geq t_s$:

1.2 Mechanism

The Index is constructed pursuant to a daily Volatility Target process where the deemed exposure of the Index to the Underlying Basket Component (the "Exposure") is based on a formula using the following input parameters:

All resolutions shall be taken by the members of the Index Advisory Committee voting unanimously, unless such resolution is taken in relation to an Index Disruption Event or an Index Extraordinary Event, in which case, the vote of the Index Sponsor shall prevail over all contrary votes from any other member of the committee.

Minutes of meeting

The Index Advisory Committee secretary shall draft the minutes of the meeting of the Index Advisory Committee (the "Minutes").

The Index Advisory Committee secretary shall then send such Minutes by email to each other member of the Index Advisory Committee.

Upon receipt of the Minutes, such other member of the Index Advisory Committee shall signal by return of email either their acceptance of the Minutes (and the resolutions set forth therein) or any comments they may have.

In this connection, each member of the Index Advisory Committee is deemed to have agreed that each of them shall be entitled to rely (without further enquiry or investigation) on such acceptances in this form as conclusive proof of the proceedings of the Index Advisory Committee and the resolutions adopted thereby. Once the Minutes have been accepted by all members of the Index Advisory Committee, the Index Sponsor shall then send such Minutes to the Index Calculation Agent.

5.3. Revision of Procedures

The foregoing procedures may be updated and revised from time to time by the Index Sponsor upon written notice (which may be in the form of an email) to the Index Advisor (a) where such revision or update is necessary or desirable pursuant to legal developments and/or for the purpose of technical improvement and efficiency; and (b) provided that the Index Advisor does not respond to the Index Sponsor with any written objections thereto within 3 Paris business days of such notice.

5.4. Additional Provision

In circumstances where the Index Sponsor makes a decision or where a resolution is adopted by the Index Advisory Committee as the case may be (together the "Decisions"), with respect to the methodology of calculation and/or the allocation of the Index, and the Index Calculation Agent determines that it can no longer calculate the Index to obtain the Index Value according to the Index Rules as amended by such Decisions, the Index Calculation Agent shall notify the Index Sponsor of such determination together with the grounds thereof. Upon receipt of such notification, the Index Sponsor shall modify its decision or, as the case may be, convene a new meeting of the Index Advisory Committee in order to adopt a new resolution, in a manner which would allow the calculation of the Index by the Index Calculation Agent provided that it preserves the economic construction of the Index (the "New Decisions"). Once made by the Index Sponsor or adopted by the Index Advisory Committee as the case may be, such New Decisions shall be sent to the Index Calculation Agent and be conclusive and binding.

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. AUTHORISATION

1.1 Societe Generale

No authorisation procedures are required of Societe Generale by French law for the update of the Programme or the giving of the guarantees in respect of the Programme. However, to the extent that Notes issued by Societe Generale under the Programme may constitute obligations under French law, the issue of such Notes will be authorised in accordance with French law.

1.2 SG Issuer

The issue of Notes has been duly authorised by a resolution of the management board of SG Issuer dated 27 April 2026.

2. CREDIT RATINGS

In respect of SG Issuer:

Unsecured Senior debt of SG Issuer is rated “A” by S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited: An S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited issue credit rating is a forward-looking opinion on a scale of 'AAA' to 'D' about the creditworthiness of an obligor with respect to a specific financial obligation, a specific class of financial obligations, or a specific financial program.

In respect of Societe Generale:

At the date of this Base Prospectus, Societe Generale is rated:

"A+" by Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited: A long-term senior preferred debt rating at Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited provides an ordinal ranking of long-term senior preferred debts of issuers, on a scale of 'AAA' to 'D', based on the agency’s view of their relative vulnerability to default, rather than a prediction of a specific percentage likelihood of default. 'A' ratings denote expectations of low default risk. The capacity for payment of financial commitments is considered strong. This capacity may, nevertheless, be more vulnerable to adverse business or economic conditions than is the case for higher ratings. The modifiers "+" or "-" may be appended to a rating to denote relative status within major rating categories.

"A1" by Moody's France S.A.S.: Ratings assigned on Moody’s France S.A.S.'s global long-term and short-term rating scales are forward-looking opinions of the relative credit risks of financial obligations issued by financial institutions on a scale of 'Aaa' to 'C'. Obligations rated 'A' are judged to be upper-medium grade and are subject to low credit risk. Moody’s France S.A.S.'s appends numerical modifiers 1, 2, and 3 to each generic rating classification from 'Aa' through 'Caa'. The modifier 1 indicates that the obligation ranks in the higher end of its generic rating category; the modifier 2 indicates a mid-range ranking; and the modifier 3 indicates a ranking in the lower end of that generic rating category.

"A" by Rating and Investment Information, Inc.: An Issuer Rating is R&I's opinion on an issuer's general capacity to fulfil its financial obligations and is, in principle, assigned to all issuers. Ratings are issued on a scale of ‘AAA’ to ‘D’, reflecting R&I’s view on the creditworthiness of the Issuer. An issuer rated ‘A’ has a high creditworthiness supported by a few excellent factors.

"A" by S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited: A S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited issue credit rating is a forward-looking opinion on a scale of 'AAA' to 'D' about the creditworthiness of an obligor with respect to a specific financial obligation, a specific class of financial obligations, or a specific financial program. The opinion reflects S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited's view of the obligor's capacity and willingness to meet its financial commitments as they come due, and may assess terms, such as collateral security and subordination, which could affect ultimate payment in the event of default. An obligation rated 'A' is somewhat more susceptible to the adverse effects of changes in circumstances and economic conditions than obligations in higher-rated categories. However, the obligor's capacity to meet its financial commitment on the obligation is still strong. The ratings from 'AA' to 'CCC' may be modified by the addition of a plus (+) or minus (-) sign to show relative standing within the major rating categories.

Each of Moody's France S.A.S., Fitch Ratings and S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited is established in the European Union and is registered under the CRA Regulation and is included in the list of credit rating agencies registered in accordance with the CRA Regulation published on the European Securities and Markets Authority's website (https://www.esma.europa.eu/credit-rating-agencies/cra-authorisation). Rating and Investment Information, Inc. is established in Japan. It has not been registered in accordance with the CRA Regulation.

A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, change or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.
